Allen, 2011 This catalogue is published in conjunction with the exhibition The Dawn of Egyptian Art on view at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York from April 10 to August 5 2012 T p verso Mistress of the House, Mistress of Heaven Anne K. Capel, Glenn Markoe, 1996 The first of its kind exhibit cataloged here focuses on the women of Egypt from all levels of society in works compiled strictly from American collections by American curators Because the quantity of written records is limited though enormous in comparison to most early societies there is still much guesswork involved in determining the place

women held in Egyptian society It is clear that unlike most ancient and not so ancient societies Egypt conferred on women the legal right to own property and to barter their own goods which means a larger record for current study The essays here are both erudite and fascinating to read the illustrations are clear and well presented in conjunction with the text 117 colour 112 b w illustrations

All Things Ancient Egypt Lisa K. Sabbahy, 2019-04-24 Written by specialists in the field of Egyptology this book is a readable introduction to ancient Egypt covering all anticipated subjects and stressing the monuments and material culture of this remarkable ancient civilization The rich natural resources of ancient Egypt provided a wealth of raw material for its structures sculptures and art while its geographic isolation helped to ensure the survival of its rich culture for centuries While other references focus on the people and battles central to Egyptian history this reference explores the material culture and social institutions of ancient Egypt The book focuses on pharaonic Egypt covering the period from roughly 5000 BCE to the beginning of the Greco Roman Period in 320 BCE At the front of the work a timeline provides a quick look at the major events in Egyptian history and an introduction surveys ancient Egypt's physical geography and history Alphabetically arranged reference entries written by expert contributors then provide fundamental information about the buildings jewelry social practices and other topics related to the material culture and institutions that made up the Egyptian world Excerpts from primary source historical documents provide evidence for what we know about ancient Egyptian culture and suggestions for further reading direct users to additional sources of information

Modern Egyptian Art, 1910-2003 Liliane Karnouk, 2005 From the early years of the twentieth century with the rejection of European political and cultural domination in Europe modern artistic expression in Egypt was influenced by and often reflected the country's growing national consciousness In the years following the 1952 revolution wealthy patrons of the arts disappeared from Egypt's cosmopolitan art world and were replaced by the state which by the 1960s exercised full control over all cultural activities including the arts In the 1990s as elsewhere throughout the world Egyptian art was affected by general shifts in culture brought about by globalization The disruption of a sense of place and feelings of belonging were a response to the influx of the challenging and at times disquieting information available to whole cultures and communities through new media Examining the work of over 70 artists from 1910 until the present day Liliane Karnouk traces the parallel steps of modern Egyptian art and the social and political environment in which that art was and continues to be created Fully illustrated with over 280 color and black and white illustrations this comprehensive volume is both a feast for the eyes and a mine of information for artists and non specialists alike

Historical Dictionary of Ancient and Medieval Nubia Richard A. Lobban, 2003-12-09 The Historical Dictionary of Ancient and Medieval Nubia covers the period from the Paleolithic all the periods of ancient Nubia Predynastic Kerma Dynasty XXV Napatan Meroitic Post Meroitic and to the end of medieval Christianity in Nubia Sudan This resource focuses on Nubian history through a Nubian perspective rather than on the more common Egypto centrism perspective and the coverage is based on the latest and best archaeological and epigraphic evidence Newly created maps of the general area and its specific regions and place names and a photospread showing important related features of the region are included A detailed chronology provides a timeline of historical events and an introductory narrative shapes the overall history and leads to the main body of the work in the form of a cross referenced dictionary The descriptive entries cover the main features of the region in the various periods that are key not only to Nubian events but also to the important interactions they had with Egypt to the north Nine appendices and an extensive bibliography conclude this work Lobban has been teaching Nubian studies in undergraduate classrooms for thirty years and this book is a product of his hands on experiences as well as extensive anthropological fieldwork and travel in Sudanese and Egyptian Nubia

Ayad,2022-11-15 Cutting edge research by twenty four international scholars on female power agency health and literacy in ancient Egypt There has been considerable scholarship in the last fifty years on the role of ancient Egyptian women in society With their ability to work outside the home inherit and dispense of property initiate divorce testify in court and serve in local government Egyptian women exercised more legal rights and economic independence than their counterparts throughout antiquity Yet their agency and autonomy are often downplayed undermined or outright ignored In Women in Ancient Egypt twenty four international scholars offer a corrective to this view by presenting the latest cutting edge research on women and gender in ancient Egypt Covering the entirety of Egyptian history from earliest times to Late Antiquity this volume commences with a thorough study of the earliest written evidence of Egyptian women both royal and non royal before moving on to chapters that deal with various aspects of Egyptian queens followed by studies on the legal status and economic roles of non royal women and finally on women s health and body adornment Within this sweeping chronological range each study is intensely focused on the evidence recovered from a particular site or a specific time period Rather than following a strictly chronological arrangement the thematic organization of chapters enables readers to discern diachronic patterns of continuity and change within each group of women
