From Hamama to Montreal Abdelkarim Elhassani,2012-11 This book reveals key untold stories and scenes from the life of a Palestinian who comes from the Palestinian village of Hamama The book unfolds its stories through the different stages and diverse contexts the author has been through It is neither a historical record nor an autobiography as it may appear at first sight rather an intricate account of the tragedies and calamities endured by tens of thousands of

Palestinians The book is neither written as a political discourse analysis or a criticism nor is it a description of battles and behaviors It is a whoop of sadness and grief of a people whose homeland was usurped and is still living in them In preparing this book it was meant to be free of any derogation or belittlement of anybody I did not communicate everything and was content with such allusions that maintain one's dignity Indeed this book by uncovering the misfortunes and atrocities Palestinian children men and women went through is profoundly a message to the future generations of Arabs who did not see these scenes into reality The book is a flash of knowledge a document for researchers and a source of enlightenment for readers and students alike It contains invaluable scenes from a substantial span of time since Field Marshal Edmund Allenby entered Jerusalem after his triumph over the Ottoman armies in World War I and said Today the crusades have ended

Israel in the Making Hagar Salamon,2017-03-27 The brilliant kaleidoscope of everyday creativity in Israel is thrown into relief in this study which teases out the abiding national tensions and contradictions at work in the expressive acts of ordinary people Hagar Salamon examines creativity in Israel's public sphere through the lively discourse of bumper stickers which have become a potent medium for identity and commentary on national and religious issues Exploring the more private expressive sphere of women's embroidery she profiles a group of Jerusalem women who meet regularly and create folk embroidery Salamon also considers the significance of folk expressions at the intersections of the public and private that rework change and embrace transformation Far ranging and insightful Israel in the Making captures the complex creative essence of a nation state and vividly demonstrates how its citizens go about defining themselves others and their country every day

Fabricating Lureland Julia Winckler,2021-12-06 Through the analysis of surviving archival traces this book constructs a history of the imagination and memory of the town of Peacehaven Built as a speculative development atop iconic chalk cliffs on the Sussex Coast and marketed as a garden city by the sea the estate quickly attracted adverse publicity Influential voices such as the Bloomsbury group's Virginia and Leonard Woolf architect and writer Clough Williams Ellis and the Campaign for the Protection of Rural England soon began to criticise it as a blot on the rolling pastoral downland Instead of reading and appraising Peacehaven's story in a polarized way this book breaks new ground by critically interpreting visual representations and commissioned photographs of the Estate and re-evaluating propositions from its inception which aspired to secure improved public health and home ownership in direct response to the negative impact of industrialization and WWI Focusing on the interwar period and tracing mutating agendas the book investigates contested marketing and construction narratives through Histoire Crois'e methodology and its intercrossings with memory and the imagination By combining visual and creative research methods with oral history multi-layered narratives of place come into focus The study tracks the visual programme of the developer's in-house magazine Peacehaven Post alongside previously underexplored blueprints photographs postcards and promotional guidebooks and considers the garden city narrative as a form of social Utopia Garden city ideals are once again evoked in debates as a potential solution to the ongoing national housing shortage giving this research additional urgency as new large scale redevelopment erases many of the few and fast disappearing original
