V. Olguín, 2010-01-15 In this groundbreaking study based on archival research about Chicana and Chicano prisoners known as Pintas and Pintos as well as fresh interpretations of works by renowned Pinta and Pinto authors and activists B V Olguín provides crucial insights into the central roles that incarceration and the incarcerated have played in the evolution of Chicana o history cultural paradigms and oppositional political praxis This is the first text on prisoners in general and Chicana o and Latina o prisoners in particular that provides a range of case studies from the nineteenth century to the present Olguín places multiple approaches in dialogue through the pairing of representational figures in the history of Chicana o incarceration with specific themes and topics Case studies on the first nineteenth century Chicana prisoner in San Quentin State Prison Modesta Avila renowned late twentieth century Chicano poets Ra l Salinas Ricardo S nchez and Jimmy Santiago Baca lesser known Chicana pinta and author Judy Lucero and infamous Chicano drug baron and social bandit Fred G mez Carrasco are aligned with themes from popular culture such as prisoner tattoo art and handkerchief art Hollywood Chicana o gangxploitation and the prisoner film American Me and prisoner education projects Olguín provides a refreshing critical interrogation of Chicana o subaltern agency which too often is celebrated as unambiguously resistant and oppositional. As such, this study challenges long held presumptions about Chicana/o cultures of resistance and proposes important explorations of the complex and contradictory relationship between Chicana/o agency and ideology. Language Variation and Multimodality in Audiovisual Translation Dora Renna, 2021-09-21

Society is characterized by a constant flow of multimodal products which increasingly blur the lines between screen and reality and audiovisual translation allows overcoming geographical and linguistic frontiers between small realities across the planet. However, research has long struggled to adapt its methodologies to effectively analyze such phenomena and even more to scale its results through larger corpus analyses. Dora Renna proposes a pioneering framework informed by the latest trends in audiovisual translation and multimodality and fit to achieve the complex task of operatively including multimodality in a rigorous corpus analysis of source and target versions of films characterized by language variation as a key element of character design. While language is at the core of her analysis, its role in the broader audiovisual context is explored thanks to a solid network of relations that shed light on linguistic and translational choices as well as on their implications. Framework and methodology are explained in detail and thoroughly applied to the case study to show how this perspective contributes to move a step forward in corpus based audiovisual translation studies. The results obtained are unexpected and urge readers to overcome old attitudes towards audiovisual translation and multimodal corpora. What They Don't Learn in School

Jabari Mahiri, 2004. Contributors to this book have illuminated the practices of literacy and learning in the lives of urban youth. Their descriptions and assessments of these practices are anchored in perspectives of New Literacy Studies. The ten studies explore a number of urban scenes in order to engage, understand and present multiple youth identities, attitudes, activities, representations and stories connected to a range of situated, adaptive and voluntary uses of literacy. The authors use a variety of conceptual and methodological approaches to explicate the various skills, the distinct methods of production or composition, the subjective and collective meanings, the mutable and variegated texts and the dynamic contexts that urban youth utilize for expression, affirmation and pleasure. There is a response to each chapter by a major scholar in its area of focus. Together, these studies and responses contribute to a more comprehensive understanding of the pedagogies, politics and possibilities of literacy and learning in and out of school. Hispanic Books Bulletin, 1987 Mediating Chicana/o

Culture Scott L. Baugh, 2008-12-18. Mediating Chicana/o Culture. Multicultural American Vernacular covers an unconventional array of topics from handkerchiefs, votives and graffiti to food, football and the Internet, as well as cutting edge literature, cinema, photography and more. In its cross-disciplinary approach, this collection makes an invaluable contribution to the scholarship on Chicana and Chicano culture and provides engaging readings for courses in race, ethnic studies, media studies and American studies. Collected chapters critically interrogate the underlying tensions between personal expressions and public demonstrations in their ongoing negotiation of Chicana and Chicano identity. Drawing on the revolutionary work of Gloria Anzaldúa, Tomás Ybarra-Frausto, Emma Pérez, Alfred Arteaga, Chela Sandoval, Julia Watson and Sidonie Smith, the

Latina Feminist Group among others chapters in this collection closely read the processes that seem built into the actions and behaviors the products the art the literature and the discourse surrounding the search for identity in the rush of our diverse 21st century existence Mediating Chicana o Culture lays bare the methods by which we define ourselves as individuals and as members of communities examining not only the message but also the medium and the methods of mediating identity and culture Trans-Americanity José David Saldívar, 2012 In this book the author critiques the work of various writers within the framework of a globalized study of the Americas The Chicano Public Catalog, 1987
