Edward Thomas On The Countryside A Selection Of His Prose And Verse:

Edward Thomas on the Countryside Edward Thomas, 2009-02-19 Edward Thomas was born in Lambeth London in 1878 and educated at St Paul s College and Lincoln College Oxford Thomas voluntarily enlisted in the Artists Rifles in 1915 and was commissioned into the Royal Garrison Artillery in 1916 He was killed in action at Arras on 9 April 1917 Since his death his reputation as a poet has grown steadily but the prose work is largely inaccessible or unknown His books have often been dismissed as bread and butter work by a poet who was able to blossom only when his soldier's pay released him from wage earning Roland Gant has made a selection from Thomas s writings on country matters which will be welcomed not only by admirers of his poetry but also by readers interested in pre 1914 rural life Drawing on nearly twenty books such as The South Country Wales The Heart of England and volumes of essays Grant has arranged his extracts under the headings Roads and Footpaths The Lie of the Land Figures in the Landscape and Through the Year Interspersed are poems that often distil the theme of a prose description and show that Thomas s strength as a poet is more than equal to his creative achievement as a writer of prose The Imagination of Edward Thomas Michael Kirkham, 1986-12-04 This fascinating study explores the imagination life and work of Edward Thomas 1878 1917 Nature in Literary and Cultural Studies, 2006-01-01 Nature in Literary and Cultural Studies is a collection of essays written by European and North American scholars who argue that nature and culture can no longer be thought of in oppositional mutually exclusive terms. They are united in an effort to push the theoretical limits of ecocriticism towards a more rigorous investigation of nature s critical potential as a concept that challenges modern culture s philosophical assumptions epistemological convictions aesthetic principles and ethical imperatives This volume offers scholars and students of literature culture history philosophy and linguistics new insights into the ongoing transformation of ecocriticism into an innovative force in international and interdisciplinary literary and cultural studies Topographies of Caribbean Writing, Race, and the British Countryside Joanna Johnson, 2019-01-04 How do Caribbean writers see the British countryside Do they feel included ignored marginalised In Topographies of Caribbean Writing Race and the British Countryside Joanna Johnson shows how writers like Derek Walcott V S Naipaul Jean Rhys Grace Nichols Andrea Levy and Caryl Phillips have very different and unexpected responses to this rural space Johnson demonstrates how Caribbean writing shows greater complexity and wider significance than accounts and understandings of the British countryside have traditionally admitted at the same time close examination of these works illustrates that complexity and ambiguity remain an essential part of these authors relationships with the British countrysides of their colonial or postcolonial imaginations. This study examines accepted norms and raises questions about urgent issues of belonging Britishness and Commonwealth identity The Georgian Poets Rennie Parker, 1999 This introductory study helps to set the Georgians in their original context and revises the critical balance in favour of three lesser known writers whose contribution to early twentieth century letters was viewed as significant before the 1930s Country Life ,1922

Selection of Recent Books Published in Great Britainf1940-Apr. 1941, 1978 Edward Thomas's Prose Ralph Pite, 2025-10-02 Edward Thomas 1878 1917 is a renowned poet Until recently his prose writing has by comparison been neglected and very often dismissed by critics Thanks not least to the multi volume new edition being published by OUP gen eds Guy Cuthbertson and Lucy Newlyn this body of work is being re evaluated This new study by Ralph Pite forms part of that undertaking it is the first to consider Thomas s prose on its own terms independently of the poetry that it preceded By considering all of Thomas's prose work in its wide variety of genres nature writing literary criticism fiction autobiography and by drawing for the first time on the whole range of his reviewing this study transforms understanding of his development The continuity of his critical perspective emerges his Celtic loyalties their nature and their depth are revealed both the complexity and the conviction of his politics are brought to light alongside his receptive alertness to innovative writing and his own originality and daring as a writer The view of his achievement generated by his interwar reception itself the outcome of societal mourning and griefwork is challenged so is the critical consensus regarding the quality of his prose and the reasons behind its changing styles across Thomas s career From all of this it becomes clear moreover how powerfully Thomas s work speaks in the contemporary moment of environmental and climate breakdown Thomas s prose seeks constantly to articulate a relationship of absolute interdependence between human beings and the natural world His writing is so exploratory and original because Thomas seeks to address the problematic reality that interdependence this truth of humanity s place in natural world is perceptible to Western eyes only as mystery Trees Richard Hayman, 2003 In this book Richard Hayman traces the different values and virtues people have seen in trees and forests over the course of history reflecting the changing use of woodland and the effects of deforestation and urbanization Tacitus followed by Romantics and historians of liberty located freedom in the German forests Medieval forests were both protected hunting parks and the refuge of Robin Hood Shakespeare contrasted the simplicity of life in the Forest of Arden with the artificial manners of the court Since the 18th century poets such as Wordsworth Clare and Hardy have drawn inspiration from trees How we see trees Branch-lines Guy Cuthbertson, Lucy Newlyn, 2008 When Edward today will dictate how trees are treated in the future Thomas died in the First World War very few of his poems had been published but he is now recognised as one of the finest and most influential poets of the last century Although often referred to as a poet s poet his writing has an almost universal appeal He wrote accessibly on traditional themes the natural world human relationships transience and mortality And yet his poetry is alive with the critical intelligence that came from years of writing non fiction and reviewing verse Branch Lines captures the range of Thomas s achievement not least by combining poetry with prose In this unique collection fifty five contemporary poets reflect on Thomas s craftsmanship and enduring power Some have chosen poems of their own in which they detect his influence others have written new poems in his honour Each poet has also contributed a piece of prose and the volume contains an introduction four critical essays illustrations a Foreword by Andrew Motion and an Afterword by

Michael Longley Branch Lines offers a fascinating perspective on the workings of literary influence with personal insights from some of the leading poet critics of our time The collection has a double value It is a celebration of Thomas and dignified tribute to his achievement at the same time it bears witness to his powers of regeneration Andrew Motion CONTRIBUTORS INCLUDE Dannie Abse Gillian Clarke David Constantine Robert Crawford Kevin Crossley Holland Peter Dale Jane Draycott U A Fanthorpe John Fuller Jane Griffiths David Harsent Seamus Heaney Geoffrey Hill Jeremy Hooker P J Kavanagh Grevel Lindop Edna Longley Michael Longley Glyn Maxwell Jamie McKendrick Andrew Motion Paul Muldoon Bernard O Donoghue Tom Paulin Peter Porter Jem Poster Vernon Scannell Peter Scupham Owen Sheers Penelope Shuttle Jon Stallworthy Anne Stevenson Charles Tomlinson Clive Wilmer English Poetry, 1900-1950 Emily Ann Anderson, 1982 British Book News British Council,1982 Includes no 53a British wartime books for young people The Drama ,1976 Canadian Forum ,1920 The Use of English, 1981 Waterstone's Guide to Books Waterstone & Co,1988 The Nature of Modernism Elizabeth Black, 2017-11-22 This books presents the first extended study of the relationship between British modernist poetry and the environment Challenging reductive associations of modernism as predominantly anthropocentric in character and urban in focus the book s central argument is that within British modernist poetry there is a clear and sustained interest in the natural world which has yet to receive adequate critical attention Whilst modernist studies continues to emphasize the plurality of the movement and the breadth of voices and concerns within it the environmental consciousness of modernist literature and its response to changes to human nature relations following the experience of war and modernity remain largely unexamined Exploring British modernist poetry from an ecocritical perspective offers a fresh approach to the movement and its context and produces original readings of both canonical and more marginalized modernist voices This book opens by discussing the relationship between modernism and ecocriticism and the benefits of creating a dialogue between the two It then presents new readings of Edward Thomas T S Eliot Edith Sitwell and Charlotte Mew that reveal a shared preoccupation with environmental issues and a common desire to find new ways of achieving physical psychological and artistic reconnection with nature Building on the continuing growth of ecocriticism this book demonstrates how green approaches to modernist studies can produce new insights into both individual poets and the modernist movement as a whole making it an essential resource for students of modernism ecocriticism and early twentieth century literature The Bookman ,1917 National Union Catalog ,1978 Clothing and Landscape in Victorian England Rachel Worth, 2018-01-30 In the context of this rapidly changing world Rachel Worth explores the ways in which the clothing of the rural working classes was represented visually in paintings and photographs and by the literary sources of documentary autobiography and fiction as well as by the particular pattern of survival and collection by museums of garments of rural provenance Rachel Worth explores ways in which clothing and how it is represented throws light on wider social and cultural aspects of society as well as how traditional styles of dress like men s smock frocks or women s sun bonnets came to be replaced by fashion Her compelling study with black white and colour illustrations both adds a broader dimension to the history of dress by considering it within the social and cultural context of its time and discusses how clothing enriches our understanding of the social history of the Victorian period
