Egypt Vs Greece And The American Academy The Debate Over The Birth Of Civilization:

An Afrocentric Manifesto Molefi Kete Asante, 2013-05-08 Molefi Kete Asante's Afrocentric philosophy has become one of the most persistent influences in the social sciences and humanities over the past three decades. It strives to create new forms of discourse about Africa and the African Diaspora, impact on education through expanding curricula to be more inclusive, change the language of social institutions to reflect a more holistic universe, and revitalize conversations in Africa, Europe, and America about an African renaissance based on commitment to fundamental ideas of agency, centeredness, and cultural location. In An Afrocentric Manifesto, Molefi Kete Asante examines and explores the cultural perspective closest to the existential reality of African people in order to present an innovative interpretation on the modern issues confronting contemporary society. Thus, this book engages the major critiques of Afrocentricity, defends the necessity for African people to view themselves as agents instead of as objects on the fringes of Europe, and proposes a more democratic framework for human relationships. An Afrocentric Manifesto completes Asante's quartet on Afrocentric theory. It is at the cutting edge of this new paradigm with implications for all disciplines and fields of study. It will be essential reading for urban studies, philosophy, African and African American Studies, social work, sociology, political science, and communication. Developing Africa? Lehasa Moloi, 2024-03-12 Developing Africa: New Horizons with Afrocentricity aims to contest the Eurocentric narrative of an African development discourse. This book deploys the theory of Afrocentricity as an intellectual standpoint from which African thinkers should interrogate and reconceptualize the discourse of development in Africa. Particularly, the book argues in favour of the Afrocentric re-interpretation of African history, African culture, and assertion of African agency as the core building wedge in the reconceptualization of the ideal African development trajectory. Afrosophian Knowledge and Cheikh Anta Diop François Ngoa Kodena, 2023-07-03 Afrosophian Knowledge and Cheikh Anta Diop: Geo-Ethical and Political Implications wrestles with the cultural, epistemological, ethical, and geopolitical conundrums of our contemporary world. The book offers fresh conceptual and dialogical frameworks that allow the reader to explore alternative perspectives on the axiological impasses of philosophia. A cultural slide from Greek to African terrain offers a novel semantic trove, namely sofia in the Beti Mvett. Therefore, sofia calls for sofia, the trope for subjective and social solarization. François Ngoa Kodena argues that sofia is a psychological, discursive, social, and civilizational sickle constantly sharpened to weed barbarism in its alienating imperial, colonial, mental, linguistic, racist, and prejudicial overtones from private and public spheres. Kodena's methodology is direct and trans-disciplinary; his overall ontological outlook is curative and conciliatory. After expounding an Afrosophian Antadiopian paradigm, the author undertakes an in-depth examination of Cheikh Anta Diop's epistemology to uncover its subtle underlying threads connecting sofia to the Kemetic cosmic law of becoming, called kheper. Contemporary humanity is thus faced with a crucial dilemma: civilization or barbarism. The former informs earthly existential struggles and epistemic Afrosophian practices. The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World Rhetorics Keith Lloyd, 2020-06-10 The
