Egyptian Cosmology Rachel Bakers, In the beginning according to ancient Egyptian understanding there was only Nun the vast dark primordial waters that existed before creation itself This was not merely empty space or void but rather a pregnant darkness filled with infinite potential The Egyptians conceived of Nun as both the source and the ultimate destination of all existence a cosmic ocean that surrounded and permeated everything that would come to be Unlike the creation myths of other ancient civilizations that often begin with conflict or divine struggle the Egyptian cosmogony starts with this peaceful undifferentiated unity From these primordial waters emerged the first conscious being Atum whose name means the complete one or the one who completes himself Atum represented the principle of self creation the divine spark that could generate existence from nothingness through sheer force of will and consciousness The Egyptians understood this emergence not as a violent rupture but as a natural unfolding like a lotus flower blooming from the depths of a sacred pond Atum was simultaneously the creator and the first created embodying the paradox of divine self generation that would become central to Egyptian theological thinking The act of creation itself was envisioned as both physical and metaphysical According to the Heliopolitan creation myth one of the most influential cosmogonic traditions Atum created the first divine pair through masturbation or in some versions through sneezing or spitting This seemingly crude imagery actually encoded profound philosophical concepts about the nature of creative force and the relationship between thought word and manifestation The first divine couple Shu air dryness and Tefnut moisture humidity represented the fundamental dualities that would structure all of existence

Ancient Egyptian Roots of Christianity, Expanded 2nd Edition Moustafa Gadalla, 2016-12-02 Egyptian roots of Christianity both historically and spiritually This book reveals the Ancient Egyptian roots of Christianity both historically and spiritually This Expanded Version of the book consists of three parts to coincide with the terms of trinity The first part demonstrates that the major biblical ancestors of the biblical Jesus are all Ancient Egyptian prominent characters The second part demonstrates that the accounts of the historical Jesus are based entirely on the life and death of the Egyptian Pharaoh Twt Tut Ankh Amen The third part demonstrates that the Jesus of Faith and the Christian tenets are all Egyptian in origin such as the essence of the teachings message the creation of the universe and man according to the Book of Genesis as well as the religious holidays The very thing that is now called the Christian religion was already in existence in Ancient Egypt long before the adoption of the New Testament The British Egyptologist Sir E A Wallis Budge wrote in his book The Gods of the Egyptians 1969 The new religion Christianity which was preached there by St Mark and his immediate followers in all essentials so closely resembled that which was the outcome of the worship of Osiris Isis and Horus The similarities noted by Budge and everyone who has compared the Egyptian Osiris Isis Horus allegory to the Gospel story are striking Both accounts are practically the same e g the supernatural conception the divine birth the struggles against the enemy in the wilderness and the resurrection from the dead to eternal life The main difference between the two versions is that the Gospel tale is considered historical and the Osiris Isis Horus cycle is an allegory The spiritual message of the Ancient Egyptian Osiris Isis Horus allegory and the Christian revelation is exactly the same The British scholar A N Wilson pointed out in his book Jesus The Jesus of History and the Christ of Faith are two separate beings with very different stories It is difficult enough to reconstruct the first and in the attempt we are likely to do irreparable harm to the second This book will demonstrate that the Jesus of History the Jesus of Faith and the tenets of Christianity are all

Ancient Egyptian This will be done without causing any irreparable harm as per A N Wilson s concern for two main reasons Firstly the truth must be told Secondly explaining Christian tenets via their original Ancient Egyptian contexts will enhance the idealism of Christianity This Expanded Version of the book consists of three parts to coincide with the terms of trinity the Three that are Two that are One The first part demonstrates that the major biblical ancestors of the biblical Jesus are all Ancient Egyptian prominent individuals The second part demonstrates that the accounts of the historical Jesus are based entirely on the life and death of the Egyptian Pharaoh Twt Tut Ankh Amen The third part demonstrates that the Jesus of Faith and the Christian tenets are all Egyptian in origin such as the essence of the teachings message the creation of the universe and man according to the Book of Genesis as well as the religious holidays There is an undeniable irony and a profound deep undeniable truth in Hosea s prophetic saying Out of Egypt have I called my Son A deep irony indeed Let us open our minds and review the available evidence For the truth is a composite of different and complementary pieces of a puzzle Let us put the pieces in the right location time and order

Hilber,2020-04-03 In order to reconcile the discrepancies between ancient and modern cosmology confessional scholars from every viewpoint on the interpretation of the early chapters of Genesis agree that God accommodated language to finite human understanding But in the history of interpretation no consensus has emerged regarding what accommodation entails at the linguistic level More precise consideration of how the ancient cognitive environment functions in the informative intention of the divine and human authors is necessary Not only does relevance theory validate interpretative options that are inherently most probable within the primary communication situation but the application of relevance theory can also help disentangle the complexities of dual authorship inherent in any model of accommodation The results also make a salutary contribution to the theological reading of Scripture The Search for Ultimate Reality Dan Liroy,2005 In analyzing the intertextuality between the Genesis and Johannine Prologues Dr Liroy maintains that both passages utilize polemical theology to refute distorted views of ultimate reality Furthermore he theorizes that the author of the Johannine Prologue deliberately reflected the structure and themes found in the Genesis Prologue to emphasize that the God man Jesus Christ created all things and is a new spiritual beginning for all who believe in Him Ultimate reality is found through faith in the Son
