Colorful stories about and profound teachings of Patrul Rinpoche one of the most impactful teachers and thinkers in the Tibetan tradition from the nineteenth century The life and teachings of the wandering yogi Patrul Rinpoche a highly revered Buddhist master and scholar of nineteenth century Tibet come alive in true stories gathered and translated by the French Buddhist monk Matthieu Ricard over more than thirty years based on the oral accounts of great contemporary teachers as well as written sources Patrul s life story reveals the nature of a highly realized being as he transmits the Dharma in everything he does teaching both simple nomads and great lamas in ways that are often unconventional and even humorous but always with uncompromising authenticity Introduction to Tantra Thubten Yeshe,2001-06-15

This introduction recognizes and explains how to channel the powerful energies aroused by human desires and how to transform lives with them Food of Sinful Demons Geoffrey Barstow,2017-10-24 Tibetan Buddhism teaches compassion toward all beings a category that explicitly includes animals Slaughtering animals is morally problematic at best and at worst completely incompatible with a religious lifestyle Yet historically most Tibetans both monastic and lay have made meat a regular part of their diet In this study of the place of vegetarianism within Tibetan religiosity Geoffrey Barstow explores the tension between Buddhist ethics and Tibetan cultural norms to offer a novel perspective on the spiritual and social dimensions of meat eating Food of Sinful Demons shows the centrality of vegetarianism to the cultural history of Tibet through specific ways in which nonreligious norms and ideals shaped religious beliefs and practices Barstow offers a detailed analysis of the debates over meat eating and vegetarianism from the first references to such a diet in the tenth century through the Chinese invasion in the 1950s He discusses elements of Tibetan Buddhist thought including monastic vows the Buddhist call to compassion and tantric antinomianism that see meat eating as morally problematic He then looks beyond religious attitudes to examine the cultural economic and environmental factors that oppose the Buddhist critique of meat including Tibetan concepts of medicine and health food scarcity the display of wealth and idealized male gender roles Barstow argues that the issue of meat eating was influenced by a complex interplay of factors with religious perspectives largely supporting vegetarianism while practical concerns and secular ideals pulled in the other direction He concludes by addressing the surge in vegetarianism in contemporary Tibet in light of evolving notions of Tibetan identity and resistance against the central Chinese state The first book to discuss this complex issue Food of Sinful Demons is essential reading for scholars interested in Tibetan religion history and culture as well as global food history Longing to Awaken Holly

Gayley, Dominique Townsend, 2024-08-19 An indispensable collection of Buddhist devotional poems and songs Longing to Awaken features twenty five translations of Buddhist devotional poems and songs composed by revered Tibetan masters from diverse traditions and time periods The anthology invites readers to experience a variety of poetic forms that embody a range of emotions from grief and longing to skepticism and humor demonstrating the ways that poetry can inspire faith as well as reflect the profundity and at times fraught nature of the teacher student relationship This collection gives weight to literary not simply literal translation as a crucial endeavor in the transmission of Buddhism today one with the potential to raise the profile of Tibetan poetry onto the stage of global literature Featuring a remarkable interview with esteemed Tibetan master Jets n Khandro Rinpoche to elucidate Buddhist devotion and a landmark essay by Lama Jabb articulating a Tibetan theory for translating poetry A Dakini's Counsel Sera Khandro, 2024-05-21 Translated here for the first time a collection of heartfelt and intimate advice for Buddhist practice from the modern female Buddhist teacher Sera Khandro Dewai Dorje 1892 1940 revealing her firsthand experiences as a mother wife consort and spiritual teacher of the Dzogchen tradition of Tibetan Buddhism Sera Khandro Dewai Dorje was a rare example of a well known Tibetan woman renowned as a teacher in the modern era While there are many notable female figures in Tibetan Buddhist history very few left a collection of poetic autobiographical and devotional writings as extensive as Dewai Dorje Both biographical and instructional this is a collection of advice prayers dreams prophecies and treasures terma from within the Tibetan Buddhist tradition of Dzogchen a Buddhist practice on resting in the nature of mind Typically seen as high level practices these Dzogchen and other instructions are presented in Dawai Dorje's highly personal and accessible voice. This collection of practice instructions is a window into the inner experience of a beautiful woman in love who single pointedly pursued a life of Dharma. Born to a wealthy and powerful father in Lhasa, she left home and became a dedicated Dharma practitioner living as an unaccompanied female in the wilds of eastern Tibet in the early 1900s. She became a wife, mother, and then consort and wrote of both highly spiritual and highly personal experiences from spiritual realization to grief.

Portraits of Tibetan Buddhist Masters, a collection of superb color photographs presented with brief biographies and teachings from each master, is a vibrant work, a testament to the compassion and wisdom that lies at the heart of the Tibetan Buddhist tradition. Farber felt compelled to record the last of the living Buddhist masters who received their training in Tibet and then fled the country following the invasion by China, as well as other masters who survived many years of imprisonment during the Cultural Revolution. He has worked with a sense of urgency to photograph and interview these extraordinary beings who have been the custodians of this endangered Buddhist tradition. His collection of portraits also includes some of the bright lights of Tibetan Buddhism, the younger masters who will carry the tradition into the future.
