Enlightened Living Teachings Of Tibetan Buddhist Masters Paperback:

Enlightened Living Harold Talbott, 2004-05 This collection of translated writings addresses the issue of engaging in secular life with Buddhist intentions It includes practical advice by great Tibetan teachers such as Paltrul Rinpoche and Jigme Lingpa Combining folktales and poetry their teachings pieces impart the essence of spirituality in a pithy direct fashion There are three things that you should place Your body on the seat Your mind in your body And relaxation in the mind There are three things that should be in conformity Conversations with friends Clothes with the country And mind with the Dharma Paltrul Rinpoche Tulku Thondup is a living advocate of the Tibetan tradition He has translated and published many books and has taught at Harvard University He is the author of the Healing Power of Mind Enlightened Living, 1997 Food of Sinful Demons Geoffrey Barstow, 2017-10-24 Tibetan Buddhism teaches compassion toward all beings a category that explicitly includes animals Slaughtering animals is morally problematic at best and at worst completely incompatible with a religious lifestyle Yet historically most Tibetans both monastic and lay have made meat a regular part of their diet In this study of the place of vegetarianism within Tibetan religiosity Geoffrey Barstow explores the tension between Buddhist ethics and Tibetan cultural norms to offer a novel perspective on the spiritual and social dimensions of meat eating Food of Sinful Demons shows the centrality of vegetarianism to the cultural history of Tibet through specific ways in which nonreligious norms and ideals shaped religious beliefs and practices Barstow offers a detailed analysis of the debates over meat eating and vegetarianism from the first references to such a diet in the tenth century through the Chinese invasion in the 1950s He discusses elements of Tibetan Buddhist thought including monastic vows the Buddhist call to compassion and tantric antinomianism that see meat eating as morally problematic He then looks beyond religious attitudes to examine the cultural economic and environmental factors that oppose the Buddhist critique of meat including Tibetan concepts of medicine and health food scarcity the display of wealth and idealized male gender roles Barstow argues that the issue of meat eating was influenced by a complex interplay of factors with religious perspectives largely supporting vegetarianism while practical concerns and secular ideals pulled in the other direction He concludes by addressing the surge in vegetarianism in contemporary Tibet in light of evolving notions of Tibetan identity and resistance against the central Chinese state The first book to discuss this complex issue Food of Sinful Demons is essential reading for scholars interested in Tibetan religion history and culture as well as global food history A Handbook Of Tibetan Culture Graham Coleman, 2016-03-24 Over the past nine years the Orient Foundation has compiled a database that brings together information on over 600 Tibetan related organizations throughout the world Compiled under the auspices of HH The Dalai Lama this book provided comprehensive information about Tibetan Buddhism and culture for the general public including Museums teaching centres retreat centres and publications listed in a country by country gazetteer Background information on the four schools of Tibetan Buddhism Biographies of practising Tibetan teachers The First glossary of Tibetan terms American Bookseller, 1990 The Three Levels of Spiritual Perception Kun-dga'-bstan-pa'i-ñi-ma (Sde-g'zun Luñ-rig Sprul-sku),2003-06-15 The Three Levels of Spiritual Perception is a revised edition of the classic guide to the Lamdre a key system of meditation of the Sakya tradition of Tibetan Buddhism Written by one of the first Tibetan masters to live and teach in the United States it is rendered in a lyrical style that entertains inspires and motivates the reader A key work for all those who are eager to develop and deepen their meditation practice Tricycle ,2007 The Publishers Weekly ,1998 The Tibetan Book of the Dead Donald S. Lopez,2011-02-07 How an eccentric spiritualist from Trenton New Jersey helped create the most famous text of Tibetan Buddhism The Tibetan Book of the Dead is the most famous Buddhist text in the West having sold more than a million copies since it was first published in English in 1927 Carl Jung wrote a commentary on it Timothy Leary redesigned it as a guidebook for an acid trip and the Beatles quoted Leary s version in their song Tomorrow Never Knows More recently the book has been adopted by the hospice movement enshrined by Penguin Classics and made into an audiobook read by Richard Gere Yet as acclaimed writer and scholar of Buddhism Donald Lopez writes The Tibetan Book of the Dead is not really Tibetan it is not really a book and it is not really about death In this compelling introduction and short history Lopez tells the strange story of how a relatively obscure and malleable collection of Buddhist texts of uncertain origin came to be so revered and so misunderstood in the West The central character in this story is Walter Evans Wentz 1878 1965 an eccentric scholar and spiritual seeker from Trenton New Jersey who despite not knowing the Tibetan language and never visiting the country crafted and named The Tibetan Book of the Dead In fact Lopez argues Evans Wentz s book is much more American than Tibetan owing a greater debt to Theosophy and Madame Blavatsky than to the lamas of the Land of Snows Indeed Lopez suggests that the book s perennial appeal stems not only from its origins in magical and mysterious Tibet but also from the way Evans Wentz translated the text into the language of a very American spirituality Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1995 Contemporary Authors Gale Group,2003-05 A biographical and bibliographical guide to current writers in all fields including poetry fiction and nonfiction journalism drama television and movies Information is provided by the authors themselves or drawn from published interviews feature stories book reviews and other materials provided by the authors publishers Enlightened Living W.
