Enola Gay Gordon Thomas,Max Morgan-Witts,2014-07-01 From theNew York Times bestselling coauthors A fascinating unrivaled history of the B 29 and its fateful mission to drop the atomic bomb on Hiroshima The New York Times Book Review Painstakingly researched the story behind the decision to send the Enola Gay to bomb Hiroshima is told through firsthand sources From diplomatic moves behind the scenes to Japanese actions and the US Army Air Force s call to action no detail is left untold Touching on the early days of the Manhattan Project and the first inkling of an atomic bomb investigative journalist Gordon Thomas and his writing partner Max Morgan Witts take WWII enthusiasts through the training of the crew of the Enola Gay and the challenges faced by pilot Paul Tibbets A page turner that offers minute by minute coverage of the critical periods surrounding the mission Enola Gay finally separates myth and reality from the planning of the flight to the moment over Hiroshima when the atomic age was born Library Journal History Wars Edward T. Linenthal,Tom Engelhardt,1996-08-15 From the taming of the West to the dropping of the atomic bomb on Hiroshima the portrayal of the past has become a battleground at the heart of American politics. What kind of history Americans should read, see, or fund is no longer merely a matter of professional interest to teachers, historians, and museum curators. Everywhere now, history is increasingly being held hostage, but to what end and why? In History Wars, eight prominent historians consider the angry swirl of emotions that now surrounds public memory. Included are trenchant essays by Paul Boyer, John W. Dower, Tom Engelhardt, Richard H. Kohn, Edward Linenthal, Michael S. Sherry, Marilyn B. Young, and Mike Wallace.

The Enola Gay and the Smithsonian Institution Charles T. O'Reilly, William A. Rooney, 2015-01-24. On August 6, 1945, the B-29 Enola Gay dropped an atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan, which ushered in the end of World War II. For the 50th anniversary of this major event in world history, the National Air and Space Museum of the Smithsonian Institution produced an exhibit. A controversy erupted, however, over the exhibit's historical authenticity. Veterans, for example, complained that the museum displayed a misrepresented version of history. After concisely covering the background of the Enola Gay and its mission, this study focuses on the controversy surrounding the museum exhibit. Issues covered include casualty figures, ethical questions, and political correctness, among others. The viewpoints of such groups as museum personnel, exhibit organizers, veterans, and historians are covered. Appendices offer information on content analysis of the National Air and Space Museum exhibit script, non-museum materials that were intended to complement the exhibit script, and the importance of full disclosure in research.

Enola Gay Mark Levine, 2023-11-15. Some devastation has struck the soul and the Earth alike, and in Enola Gay, his second volume of poems, Mark Levine surveys the disaster. Here is a volume of poetry approaching Carolyn Forché's The Angel of History as a stark meditation on Blanchot's sense of writing as the desired, undesired torment which endures everything. Levine engages the traditional resources of lyric poetry in an exploration of historical and cultural landscapes ravaged by imponderable events. Enola Gay's mission can seem spiritual, imaginative, and militaristic, as the speaker in these poems surveys marshes and fields and a land on the edge of disintegration. Levine sifts the psychological residue that accumulates in the wake of unspeakable acts and so negotiates that terrain between the banality of language and the need to stand witness and to speak. Levine's stunning second book, with its grave cultural implications and its surveillance of a distinctly postmodern malaise, offers multiple readings. Here are compact poems with uncanny power, rhythm, and a strange formal beauty, echoing and renewing the legacy of Wallace Stevens for a new era. Some devastation has struck the soul and the Earth alike, and in Enola Gay, his second volume of poems, Mark Levine surveys the disaster. Here is a volume of poetry approaching Carolyn Forché's The Angel of History as a stark meditation.

Hiroshima in History Robert James Maddox,2007 When President Harry Truman authorized the use of atomic weapons against Japan he did so to end a bloody war that would have been bloodier still had the planned invasion of Japan proved necessary Revisionists claim that Truman s real interest was a power play with the Soviet Union and that the Japanese would have surrendered even earlier had the retention of their imperial system been assured Truman wanted the war to continue they insist in order to show off America s powerful new weapon This anthology exposes revisionist fallacies about Truman s motives the cost of an invasion and the question of Japan s surrender Essays by prominent military and diplomatic historians reveal the hollowness of revisionist claims exposing the degree to which these agenda driven scholars have manipulated the historical record to support their contentions They show that although some Japanese businessmen and minor officials indicated a willingness to negotiate peace no one in a governmental decision making capacity even suggested surrender And although casualty estimates for an invasion vary considerably the more authoritative approximations point to the very bloodbath that Truman sought to avoid Volume editor Robert Maddox first examines the writings of revisionist Gar Alperovitz to expose the unscholarly methods Alperovitz employed to support his claims then distinguished Japanese historian Sadao Asada reveals how difficult it was for his country s peace faction to prevail even after the bombs had been dropped Other contributors point to continuing Japanese military buildups analyze the revisionists low casualty estimates for an invasion reveal manipulations of the Strategic Bombing Survey of 1946 and show how even the exhibit commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the bombing at the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum hewed to the revisionist line And a close reading of Tsuyoshi Hasegawa s acclaimed Racing the Enemy exposes many grave discrepancies between that recent revisionist text and its sources The use of atomic bombs against Japan remains one of the most controversial issues in American history Gathered in a single volume for the first time these insightful readings take a major step toward settling that controversy by showing how insubstantial Hiroshima revisionism really is and that sometimes history cannot proceed without decisive action however regrettable Rosebloom Harvey Perr,1972 THE STORY A neurotic middle aged woman her crippled son and his sexually seething young wife await the return of Rosebloom the father of the family who has been in prison for twenty six years As they wait their hidden thoughts come alive in The Road to Tinian: the Story of the 135th USNCB , Prompt and Utter Destruction J.
