Research Handbook on Global Climate Constitutionalism Jordi Jaria-Manzano, Susana Borràs, 2019-12-27 Climate change is causing traditional political and legal concepts to be revisited The emergence of a global polity through physical economic and social interaction demands global responses which should be founded upon new principles and which cannot simply be modelled on traditional constitutionalism centred on the nation state This Research Handbook explores how to build this climate constitutionalism at a global level starting from the narrative of Anthropocene and its implications for law It provides a critical approach to global environmental constitutionalism analysing the problems of sustainability and global equity which are entwined with the causes and consequences of climate change The Handbook explores how to develop constitutional discourses and strategies to address these issues and thereby tackle the negative effects of climate change whilst also advancing a more sustainable equitable and responsible global society The Cambridge Companion to Comparative Family Law Shazia Choudhry, Jonathan Herring, 2019-01-31 Families and family law have encountered significant challenges in the face of rapid changes in social norms demographics and political expectations The Cambridge Companion to Comparative Family Law highlights the key questions and themes that have faced family lawyers across the world Each chapter is written by internationally renowned academic experts and focuses on which of these themes are most significant to their jurisdictions In taking this jurisdictional approach the collection will explore how different countries have tackled these issues As a result the collection is aimed at students practitioners and academics across a variety of disciplines interested in the key issues faced by family law around the world and how they have been addressed

Fábrica de resistencias y recuperación social María Amalia Gracia, 2013-10-31 Las acciones de diversos grupos de trabajadoras y trabajadores argentinos que lograron darse una salida ante situaciones de profunda desesperación provocadas por el cierre

abandono o quiebra de las empresas donde han trabajado durante años son tratados en este volumen Sus páginas muestran en forma más clara y bien documentada un fenómeno vigente que ha ensanchado el campo de lo posible y tiene mucho que decir sobre las acciones políticas y económicas de los trabajadores en un mundo en el que una y otra vez los pueblos se movilizan para protegerse de los choques económicos ante la insistente pretensión del sistema capitalista y sus defensores de separar la esfera económica de la sociedad

Constitutionalism and the Paradox of Principles and Rules Marcelo Neves, 2021-04-29 This title offers a unique approach to constitutionalism focusing on the paradoxical relationship between principles and rules from the perspective of systems theory. It presents a critical counterpoint to Ronald Dworkin's principle-based theory and in particular to Robert Alexy's idea of optimizing balancing. Instead of ceding to the compulsion of an optimizing balancing it suggests the possibility of a comparative or at least satisficing balancing considering the precariousness of legal rationality. The book also reverses Dworkin's metaphor associating rules with Hercules and principles with the Hydra. It takes constitutional principles seriously criticizing the abuse of principles by the legal and constitutional doctrine and practice and pointing out their relationship of complementarity and tension with rules. Finally it offers an alternative model to the recent legal and constitutional theory on the basis of certain assumptions of the systems theory. It deals especially with the paradox of the circular and reflexive relationship between constitutional principles and rules: the former refers primarily to the openness and adequacy of legal system to society and thus to substantive argumentation; the second refers primarily to the closure and consistency of legal system and thus to formal argumentation

Decolonial Feminism in Abya Yala Yuderkys Espinosa-Miñoso, María Lugones,, Nelson Maldonado-Torres, 2022-08-01 This is a collection of eleven chapters and an introduction that develop key arguments in decolonial feminism particularly the coloniality of gender the critique of white and Eurocentric feminisms the imbrication between gender race and colonialism feminicides and the coloniality of democracy and public institutions. The introduction addresses the path of decolonial feminism from a new approach to understanding the relationship between gender as a category race and colonialism that combined U.S. Third World feminism and scholarship on coloniality and decoloniality to its exponential growth in the hands of activists and engaged scholars from Latin America and the Caribbean. Today much of the literature on decolonial feminism in Latin America and the Caribbean remains unknown in the U.S. This anthology seeks to start remedying this problem with seven translations of work originally written in Spanish and three essays originally written in English that address the fundamental concepts of decolonial feminism as well as its contributions to important contemporary political and intellectual debates

Multicultural Curriculum Ram Mahalingam, Cameron McCarthy, 2013-10-28 Multicultural Curriculum is a collection of original essays brought together to develop new theories and meaningful praxis to build a new paradigm for teaching multiculturalism in today's classroom. The impressive list of contributors shows how the current epistemological and pedagogical practices that are designed to forward multiculturalism actually serve to essentialize cultures the antithesis of
