The Dispositif Valerie Larroche, 2019-04-30 The notion of the dispositif dispositive is particularly relevant for understanding phenomena where one can observe the reproducibility of distributed technical activities operational or discursive between human and non human actors This book reviews the concept of the dispositive through various disciplinary perspectives analyzing in turn its technical organizational and discursive dimensions. The relations of power and visibility enrich these discussions Regarding information and communication sciences three main uses of this concept are presented on the one hand to illustrate the heuristic scope of issues integrating the dispositive and on the other hand to demonstrate its unifying aspect in this disciplinary field. The first use concerns the complexity of media content production the second relates to activity traces using the concept of the secondary information dispositive finally the third involves the use of the dispositive in contexts of digital participation The Transition of Religion to Culture in Law and Public Discourse Lori Beaman, 2020-03-27 This book explores the recent trend toward the transformation of religious symbols and practices into culture in Western democracies Analyses of three legal cases involving religion in the public sphere are used to illuminate this trend a municipal council chamber a town hall and town board meetings Each case involves a different national context Canada France and the United States and each illustrates something interesting about the shape shifting nature of religion specifically its flexibility and dexterity in the face of the secular the religious and the plural Despite the differences in national contexts in each instance religion is transformed into culture or heritage by the courts to justify or excuse its presence and to distance the state from the possibility that it is violating legal norms of distance from religion The cultural practice or symbol is represented as a shared national value or activity Transforming the Other into Us through reconstitution is also possible Finally anxiety about the Other becomes part of the story of rendering religion as culture resulting in the impugning of anyone who dares to question the putative shared culture The book will be essential reading for students academics and policy makers working in the areas of sociology of religion religious studies socio legal studies law and public policy constitutional law religion and politics and cultural studies Resources in Education ,1984

Roland Barthes Writing the Political Andrew Stafford, 2022-11-08 With typical rhetorical flourish and beholden to paradox Roland Barthes defines his work on myth as an attempt to define things and yet he is known foremost for his work on language The aim of this book is to take things here as social relations objects and other human beings with which the self interacts It does so via language And language in Barthes's conception is double alienating alienated on the one side liberating inspiring on the other It is this double that we investigate in this book A spectre is haunting Barthes studies the spectre of dialectics and the spectral presence of dialectics is what we will define in this book as the Barthesian spirit in both senses of the word that is haunting his analyses and at once providing us with a double approach I have tried to define things The Constructivist Metaphor Nancy Nelson Spivey, 2023-07-24 The Constructivist not words Barthes 2009 131n1 Metaphor presents a major reconsideration of constructivist theory through an applied examination of the ways in which people create meaning for texts Spivey first delineates major constructivist positions from the early 20th century including Frederic Bartlett's description of the discourse processes of individuals small groups and large communities Then she concentrates on reading and writing processes as they were variously perceived throughout the 1970s and 1980s These cultural and cognitive avenues of investigation provide an essential starting point for her presentation of the late 20th century approaches to the generative organizational and selective nature of human communication The work illustrates an integrative conception of discourse placing cognitive activity in relation to the text while assuming a social orientation encompassing both composition and comprehension It describes constructivist concepts in terms of their similarities and differences It applies theoretical positions to case studies in reading and writing and presents conclusions useful to scholars working on issues of comprehension and communication The Advocate, 2001-08-14 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States El-Hi Textbooks in Print ,1981 Historiography Susan K. Kinnell, 1987 The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever
