Enterprising Women The Garretts And Their Circle:

Enterprising Women Elizabeth Crawford, 2009 Women and the Making of Built Space in England, 1870-1950

Elizabeth Darling, Lesley Whitworth, 2017-03-02 This interdisciplinary collection explores the relationships between women and built space in England between the 1870s and the 1940s. Historians working in cultural literary architectural urban design labour and social history approach the topic through case studies of often neglected organisations individuals practices and initiatives. Included are East End rent collectors tenants diarists and correspondents the All Europe House the Women's Co-operative Guild the Housewives Committee of the Council of Industrial Design provincial and metropolitan exhibitors and activists of varying kinds. Moving beyond the study of buildings and their designers the volume considers the making of space in its broadest sense from the production of discourses to the consumption of domestic appliances and the performance of roles as diverse as social reformers committee members and homemakers. It thereby demonstrates that women made a significant contribution to the creation of modern built environments in both public and private spheres.

The Cosmopolitan Interior Judy Neiswander, 2008. Judith Neiswander explains that during these years liberal values individuality cosmopolitanism scientific rationalism the progressive role of the elite and the emancipation of women informed advice about the desirable appearance of the home. In the period preceding the First World War these values changed dramatically. Advice on decoration became more nationalistic in tone and a new goal was set for the interior to raise the British child by the British hearth. Neiswander traces this evolving discourse within the context of current writing on interior decoration writing that it is much more detached from social and political issues of the day. BOOK JACKET Victorian Social Activists' Novels
