Entertaining Angels The Dorothy Day Story:

Entertaining angels [videorecording], 1997 Examines the life of social activist Dorothy Day and the Catholic Worker movement Entertaining Angels: The Dorothy Day Story (original Title Dorothy Day) John Wells, 1996 God's Word, Your World! 2010-2011 Kristine Neumayer Jenkins, 2010-07-08 Catholics in the Movies Colleen McDannell, 2008

Catholicism was all over movie screens in 2004 Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ was at the center of a media firestorm for months A priest was a crucial character in the Academy Award winning Million Dollar Baby Everyone it seemed was talking about how religious stories should be represented marketed and received Catholic characters spaces and rituals have been stock features in popular films since the silent era An intensely visual religion with a well defined ritual and authority system Catholicism lends itself to the drama and pageantry of film Moviegoers watch as Catholic visionaries interact with the supernatural priests counsel their flocks reformers fight for social justice and bishops wield authoritarian power Rather than being marginal to American popular culture Catholic people places and rituals are all central to the world of the movie

Catholics in the Movies begins with an introductory essay that orients readers to the ways that films appear in culture and describes the broad trends that can be seen in the movies hundred year history of representing Catholics Each chapter is written by a noted scholar of American religion who concentrates on one movie that engages important historical artistic and religious issues and then places the film within American cultural and social history discusses the film as an expression of Catholic concerns of the period and relates the film to others of its genre Tracing the story of American Catholic history through popular films Catholics in the Movies should be a valuable resource for anyone interested in American Catholicism and religion and film 100 Spiritual Movies to See before You Die John A. Zukowski, 2023-11-15 Spiritual themes are common in movies The unconventional savior The hero's journey The redemption tale The balance of creation Journalist John A. Zukowski reflects on twelve major spiritual themes in the world of cinema discussing films from Dead Man Walking to Bruce Almighty from Groundhog Day to Chariots of Fire and many more See them all read them all before you die From the Sanctuary to the Streets Wendy R. McCaig, 2010-05-06 What does it mean to be church Is it spending an hour on Sunday with people who look think and act much as we do Or is it something more incarnational that seeks out those who are different the ones living on the margins For centuries Christians have presumed that we are to take the gospel to the poor Instead the author invites us to receive the gospel from the poor through a series of encounters with incarcerated homeless and impoverished individuals the author experienced the mysterious power of Christian hospitality that turns strangers into family Her gift of storytelling brings this mysterious transformation to life These twenty stories within a story about what ordinary people can do when they come together across racial economic and geographic divides to fight poverty will expand your vision of what it means to be the church With your eyes opened to the needs and gifts of your neighbors you too can begin to dream God sized dreams for a hurting world And as you pray Thy kingdom come on earth you will be inspired to live
