Cinematic Art and Reversals of Power Eugene B. Young, 2022-01-13 Bringing together Deleuze Blanchot and Foucault this book provides a detailed and original exploration of the ideas that influenced Deleuze's thought leading up to and throughout his cinema volumes and as a result proposes a new definition of art Examining Blanchot's suggestion that art and dream are outside of power as imagination has neither reality nor truth and Foucault's theory that power forms knowledge by valuing life Eugene Brent Young relates these to both Deleuze's philosophy of time and his work with Guattari on art In doing so he uses case studies from literature and popular film including Kafka's Castle Villeneuve's Arrival and Kubrick's Eyes Wide Shut Providing important new insights for those working in literary and cinematic studies this book advances a new definition of art as that which reverses the realities and truths of power to express obscure ideas and values beyond both our exterior and interior worlds
