H. Vervliet, 2013-11-11 The history of printing books and libraries is confined only to a limited extent within the boundaries of individual countries There are indeed few historical developments which have played a more universal role in reaction against all kinds of particularism than type design printing book production publishing illustration binding librarianship journal ism and related subjects Their history should be assessed and studied primarily in an international not in a local context The bibliographical resources however which the historian of these subjects has at his disposal correspond hardly at all to the essentially inter national character of the object of his studies Since the appearance of the retrospective bibliography of BIG MORE and WYMAN covering the subject comprehensively up to 1880 the only current bibliography has been the Internatwnale Bibliographie des Buch und Bi bliothecksweisens Covering a representative part of newly published literature it appeared from 1928 but did not survive the Second World War More recently several useful but limited bibliographies have appeared      Revue européenne des Sciences sociales et Cahiers Vilfredo Pareto, 1985      Jewish

Conscience of the Church Norman C. Tobias, 2017-04-06 This book presents the backstory of how the Catholic Church came to clarify and embrace the role of Israel in salvation history at the behest of an unlikely personality Jules Isaac This embrace put to an end the tradition more than fifteen centuries old of anti Jewish rhetoric that had served as taproot to racial varieties of anti Semitism Prior to Isaac s thought and activism this contemptuous tradition had never been denounced in so compelling a manner that the Church was forced to address it It is a story of loss and triumph and ultimately unlikely partnership Isaac devoted his years after World War II to a crusade for scriptural truth and rectification of Christian teaching regarding Jews and Judaism Isaac s crusade culminated in an unpublicized audience with Pope John XXIII a meeting that moved the pope to make a last minute addition to the Second Vatican Council agenda and set in motion the events leading to a revolution in Catholic teaching about Jews      Les Cahiers Britanniques Et Americains, 1917      'Inquiétude' in the work of Pierre Mac Orlan Roger W. Baines, 2021-10-25 This is the first major study in English of the work of the French novelist essayist journalist poet and chansonnier Pierre Mac Orlan 1882 1970 It assesses Mac Orlan s contribution to the post 1918 phenomenon of intellectual disillusionment and disorientation which was termed the nouveau mal du siècle or inquiétude. Although he has largely been ignored by critics thus far Mac Orlan was part of mainstream French literary production and a major exponent of inquiétude. Where he differs from his contemporaries is in his subject matter in his use of sociological rather than abstract intellectual material. His expression of inquiétude encompasses le fantastique social adventure, marginality, le cafard and sadistic sexuality. His originality lies in his invention of le fantastique social in his constant use of certain techniques as well as the subject matter of German Expressionism via the depiction of the disturbing landscape of the modern city post 1918 inflation and decadence, prostitutes and criminals, doomed adventurers, the mystery of modern technology and in the expression of a morbid interest in sexual violence. This volume will be of particular interest to students of inter war French literature and thought.

Perspectives on Literature and Translation Brian Nelson, Brigid Maher, 2013-10-15. This volume explores the relationship between literature and translation from three perspectives: the creative dimensions of the translation process, the way texts circulate between languages and the way texts are received in translation by new audiences. The distinctiveness of the volume lies in the fact that it considers these fundamental aspects of literary translation together and in terms of their interconnections. Contributors examine a wide variety of texts including world classics, poetry, genre fiction, transnational literature and life writing from around the world. Both theoretical and empirical issues are covered with some contributors approaching the topic as practitioners of literary translation and others writing from within the academy.

Art in the Cinema Steven Jacobs, Birgit Cleppé, Dimitrios Latsis, 2020-10-15. In the 1940s and 1950s hundreds of art documentaries were produced, many of them being highly personal, poetic, reflexive and experimental films that offer a thrilling cinematic experience. With the exception of Alain Resnais's Van Gogh 1948, Henri Georges Clouzot's Le Mystère Picasso 1956 and a few others, most of them have received only scant scholarly attention. This book aims to rectify this situation by discussing the most lyrical, experimental and influential post-war art documentaries connecting them to contemporaneous museological developments and Euro-American cultural and political relationships. With contributors with expertise across art history and film studies, Art in the Cinema draws attention to film projects by André Bazin, Ilya Bolotowsky, Paul Haesaerts, Carlo Ruggini, John Read, Dudley Shaw, Aston Storck and Willard Van Dyke among others.
