Enkaustik und Fresko auf antiker Grundlage : eine Ergänzungsschrift zu "Bergers Beiträgen zur Entwicklungsgeschichte der Maltechnik" Hans Schmid, 1976 The Art Bulletin, 1929 Includes section Notes and reviews List of Books for a College Art Library College Art Association of America. Committee on Books for the College Art Library, 1929 Colour and Culture John Gage, 2024-10-24 What does the language of colour tell us Where does one colour begin and another end Is it a radiant visual stimulus an intangible function of light or a material substance to be moulded and arrayed Colour is fundamental to art yet so diverse that it has hardly ever been studied in a comprehensive way Art historian John Gage considers every conceivable aspect of the subject in this groundbreaking analysis of colour in Western culture from the ancient Greeks to the late twentieth century Gage describes the first theories of colour articulated by Greek philosophers and subsequent attempts by the Romans and their Renaissance disciples to organize it systematically or endow it with symbolic power He unfolds its religious significance and its use in heraldry as well as how Renaissance artists approached colour with the help of alchemists He explores the analysis of the spectrum undertaken by Newton and continued in the nineteenth century by artists such as Seurat traces the influence of Goethe's colour theory and considers the extraordinary theories and practices that attempted to unite colour and music or make colour into an entirely abstract language of its own The first ever undertaking to suggest answers to many perennial questions about the role of colour in Western art and thought this study throws fresh light on the hidden meanings of many familiar masterpieces Color and Culture John Gage, 2025-01-28 A groundbreaking award winning analysis of color in Western culture from the ancient Greeks to the late twentieth century by one of the most foremost authors on the subject What does the language of color tell us Where does one color begin and another end Is it a radiant visual stimulus an intangible function of light or a material substance to be molded and arrayed Color is fundamental to art yet so diverse that it has hardly ever been studied in a comprehensive way Art historian John Gage considers every conceivable aspect of the subject in this groundbreaking analysis of color in Western culture from the ancient Greeks to the late twentieth century Gage describes the first theories of color articulated by Greek philosophers and subsequent attempts by the Romans and their Renaissance disciples to organize it systematically or endow it with symbolic power He unfolds its religious significance and its use in heraldry as well as how Renaissance artists approached color with the help of alchemists He explores the analysis of the spectrum undertaken by Isaac Newton and continued in the nineteenth century by artists such as Georges Seurat traces the influence of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe's color theory and considers the extraordinary theories and practices that attempted to unite color and music or make color into an entirely abstract language of its own A seminal undertaking to suggest answers to many perennial questions about the role of color in Western art and thought Color and Culture throws fresh light on the hidden meanings of many familiar masterpieces Painting Materials R. J. Gettens, G. L. Stout, 2012-09-26 The combined training and experience of the authors of this classic in the varied activities of painting conservation cultural research chemistry physics and paint technology ideally suited them to the task they attempted Their book written when they were both affiliated with the Department of Conservation at Harvard's Fogg Art Museum is not a handbook of instruction It is instead an encyclopedic collection of specialized data on every aspect of painting and painting research The book is divided into five sections Mediums Adhesives and Film Substances amber beeswax casein cellulose nitrate dragon's blood egg tempera paraffin lacquer gum Arabic Strasbourg turpentine water glass etc Pigments and Inert Materials over 100 entries from alizarin to zinnobor green Solvents Diluents and Detergents acetone ammonia carbon tetrachloride soap water etc Supports academy board dozens of different woods esparto grass gesso glass leather plaster silk vellum etc and Tools and Equipment Coverage within each section is exhaustive Thirteen pages are devoted to items related to linseed oil eleven to the history and physical and chemical properties of pigments two to artificial ultramarine blue eleven to wood and so on with hundreds of entries Much of the information physical behavior earliest known use chemical composition history of synthesis refractive index etc is difficult to find elsewhere The rest was drawn from such a wide range of fields and from such a long span of time that the book was immediately hailed as the best organized most accessible work of its kind That reputation hasn't changed The author's new preface lists some recent discoveries regarding pigments and other materials and the pigment composition chart has been revised but the text remains essentially unchanged It is still invaluable not only for museum curators and conservators for whom it was designed but for painters themselves and for teachers and students as well God's Human Face Christoph Schoenborn, 2011-03-30 The principal editor of the Catechism of the Catholic Church presents the sources of meditation on the mystery of God's human face from the great Masters of early Christianity Artists and theologians have meditated upon the mystery of God's human countenance and tried to express it This book seeks to present the great sources of this meditation sources which today are widely unknown or have become foreign or obscure These sources are above all the great masters of early Christianity In their meditation upon Christ Bishop Schonborn seeks the sources of the art on the Icon The reader will find not only an engaging introduction to the meaning and beauty of Icons but an invitation to draw closer to the One who inspired these Masters of theological expression and holy art Includes beautiful color Icon illustrations

Ancient Egyptian Materials and Industries A. Lucas, J. Harris, 2012-04-30 Describes ancient Egypt's vast resources and the processes that incorporated them in daily life including animal products building materials cosmetics perfumes and incense fibers glazed ware glass mummification materials and more Living Images Janet Picton, Stephen Quirke, Paul C Roberts, 2018-04-17 The haunting funerary paintings on wood coffins found in Roman Egypt still represent some of the most vivid images that come to us from the ancient world These paintings were first discovered by Flinders Petrie father of modern archaeology in his excavations in the Egyptian Fayum during the 1880s and have rested at University College London for over 100 years Now the Petrie Museum is bringing this corpus of paintings to the public in a stunning catalog Living Images is a beautiful and authoritative presentation of the restored collection that will be an essential reference for scholars and a fascinating read for general audiences Central to the volume is a complete catalog of the mummy portraits uncovered by Petrie including full color illustrations and descriptions of technical and stylistic features and iconographic characteristics To add to the value of the volume articles describe the process of finding the mummies explain the place of funerary assemblages in the history of Egyptian burial customs offer an introduction to Egyptian portrait painting and explain the conservation issues presented by the coffins Petrie's own reflections on his finds are also included The volume is dedicated to the memory of Egyptologist Barbara Adams and co sponsored by the Petrie Museum Catalogue of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
