Enlightenment And Despair A History Of Social Theory:

Enlightenment and Despair Geoffrey Hawthorn,1987-03-12 An acclaimed critical history of social theory from the eighteenth century onwards

Enlightenment and Despair G. Hawthorn,1976-11-25 Geoffrey Hawthorn has written a substantial new conclusion for the second edition of his widely acclaimed critical history of social theory in England France Germany and the USA from the eighteenth century to the present Hawthorn begins with the prehistory of the subject and traces particularly in the thought of Rousseau Kant and Hegel the emergence of certain fundamental distinctions and assumptions whose existence is often overlooked in studies of the traditional founding fathers of sociology like Marx Durkheim and Weber

Enlightenment and Despair Geoffrey Hawthorn,1987 The Natural Law Foundations of Modern Social Theory Daniel Chernilo,2013-01-31 Daniel Chernilo offers an original reconstruction of the history of universalism in modern social thought from Hobbes to Habermas

Beginning classical social theory Marcel Stoetzler,2017-07-21 Beginning classical social theory introduces students and educated general readers to thirteen key social theorists by way of examining a single exemplary text by each author ranging from Comte to Adorno It answers the need for a book that helps students develop the skill to critically read theory Rather than learning how to admire the canonical theorists readers are alerted to the flow of their arguments and the texts contradictions and limitations Having gotten under the skin of one key text by each author will provide readers with a solid starting point for further study The book will be suitable as the principal textbook in social theory modules as much as alongside a more conventional textbook as a recommended additional tool for self study It will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as educated lay readers
