Enormous Changes At The Last Minute:

Enormous Changes at the Last Minute Grace Paley, 2014-10-07 In Enormous Changes at the Last Minute originally published in 1974 Grace Paley makes the novel as a form seem virtually redundant Angela Carter London Review of Books Her stories here capture the itch of the city love between parents and children and the cutting edge of combat Lis Harris The New York Times Book Review In this collection of seventeen stories she creates a solid and vital fictional world cross referenced and dense with life Walter Clemons Newsweek Enormous Changes at the Last Minute Grace Paley, 1979

Enormous Changes at the Last Minute Grace Paley, 1974 Enormous Changes at the Last Minute, 1985 Short Story Index, 1974 Conversations with Grace Paley Grace Paley, 1997 With firm authority Paley discusses topics of wide range many of which she describes as personal discoveries She includes politics and environmentalism the family and human relationships the impact of background and education the moral importance of community feminism and women's liberation the sexual self and role enforcement America's need for communality and women's creative response to it the art of teaching and the importance of friendship Enormous Changes at the Last Minute Susan Rice, John Sayles, 1985 Teaching Genius Barbara Lourie Sand, 2005-11 The secret of DeLay's success seems obvious to me now but it was a long time before I saw it DeLay is basically in the business of teaching her pupils how to think and to trust their ability to do so effectively This is a much more difficult undertaking than telling them to copy what she does or to repeat a passage over and over until it at least in theory gets better To DeLay learning and thinking are inextricably connected and the core of her philosophy lies in continually challenging her students to look for their own answers Publisher Middle Grounds Alan Wilde, 1987-11-29 Alan Wilde identifies and defends what he calls midfiction which rejects both the extremes of realism and experimental self reflexive fiction He offers as examples the best works of Apple Berger Barthelme Pynchon and Paley Good Neighbors Sarah Langan, 2021-02-02 Celeste Ng and Liane Moriarty's enthralling dissection of suburbia meets Shirley Jackson's creeping dread in this wickedly funny unnerving puzzle box of a novel Dan Chaon author of Ill Will about the downward spiral of a Long Island community after a tragedy exposes its residents' depths of deception Welcome to Maple Street a picture perfect slice of suburban Long Island its residents bound by their children their work and their illusion of safety in a rapidly changing world But menace skulks among this exclusive enclave When the Wilde family arrive they trigger their neighbors' worst fears Dad Arlo's a gruff has been rock star with track marks Mom Gertie's got a thick Brooklyn accent with high heels and tube tops to match Their weird kids cuss like sailors They don't fit with the way Maple Street sees itself Maple Street's Queen Bee Rhea Schroeder a lonely professor repressing a dark past initially welcomed Gertie but relations plummeted during one summer evening when the new best friends shared too much too soon By the time the story opens the Wildes are outcasts As tensions mount a sinkhole opens in a nearby park and Rhea's daughter Shelly falls inside The search for Shelly brings a shocking accusation against the Wildes Suddenly it is one mom's word against the other's in a court of public opinion that can end only in blood Riveting and ruthless Good Neighbors is a chilling compulsively readable novel that looks toward the future in order to help us understand how we live now Kevin Wilson author of Nothing to See Here Grace Paley Jacqueline Taylor,2014-02-19 Grace Paley is a writer s writer admired by both scholars and the reading public for her originality and unique voice In this first book length study of her work Jacqueline Taylor explores the source of Paley s originality locating it in the way Paley transforms language to create strongly woman centered stories Drawing on interviews with the author as well as the stories themselves Taylor emphasizes Paley s awareness that women s voices have been muted and their stories ignored or left untold in our culture s male oriented dominant discourse She watches Paley in the process of reshaping language at both the semantic and narrative levels to make it express women s perceptions and experiences In Paley s stories it becomes possible to ignore traditional heroic and dramatic themes and instead talk about women and children in such everyday settings as the playground the kitchen and the grocery store Some of the specific techniques Paley uses to accomplish this include identifying and repudiating sexist language in the dominant discourse and redefining ordinary words from the perspective of women At the narrative level Taylor reveals how she draws on women s oral traditions to tell open ended stories that resist rigid beginning middle and end structuring This transformed language enables Paley to construct a social world where woman centered meanings can flourish In her nontraditional stories no single narrator or version of events dominates Anyone can be a storyteller and no one has the last word Engendering Romance E. Miller Budick,1994-01-01 Describes how four 20th century women writers have inherited and adapted a tradition of American romance Analyzing fiction by Faulkner and others this work goes on to explain how women have updated the genre to include alternatives to matriarchal as well as patriarchal constructions Memory Spaces Victoria Aarons,2023-05-09 Jewish identity memory and place deftly revealed through the lens of Jewish women s graphic narratives An exploration of the work of Jewish women graphic novelists and the intricate Jewish identity is complicated by gender memory generation and place that is the emotional geographical and psychological spaces that women inhabit Victoria Aarons argues that Jewish women graphic novelists are preoccupied with embodied memory the way the body materializes memory This monograph investigates how memory manifests in the drawn shape of the body as an expression of the weight of personal and collective histories Aarons explores Jewish identity diaspora mourning memory and witness in the works of Sarah Lightman Liana Finck Anya Ulinich Leela Corman and more Memory Spaces begins by framing this research within contemporary discourse and reflects upon the choice to explore Jewish women graphic novelists specifically In the chapters that follow Aarons relates the nuanced issues of memory transmission of trauma Jewish cultural identity and the gendered self to a series of meaningful and noteworthy graphic novels Aarons s insight close readings and integration of contemporary scholarship are conveyed clearly and concisely creating a work that both captivates readers and contributes to scholarly discourse in Jewish studies women s literature memory studies and identity Holocaust Literature and Representation

Phyllis Lassner, Judith Tydor Baumel-Schwartz, 2023-02-09 Each scholar working in the field of Holocaust literature and representation has a story to tell Not only the scholarly story of the work they do but their personal story their journey to becoming a specialist in Holocaust studies What academic political cultural and personal experiences led them to choose Holocaust representation as their subject of research and teaching What challenges did they face on their journey What approaches genres media or other forms of Holocaust representation did they choose and why How and where did they find a scholarly home in which to share their work productively Have political social and cultural conditions today affected how they think about their work on Holocaust representation How do they imagine their work moving forward including new challenges responses and audiences These are but a few of the questions that the authors in this volume address showing how a scholar's field of research and resulting writings are not arbitrary and are often informed by their personal history and professional experiences

Literary Sisterhoods Deborah Heller, 2005-02-11 Building on scholarship such as feminist criticism that has contributed to an awareness of the distinctive perspectives on female experience revealed in women's writing Heller reveals how women authors construct their female protagonists' quests for creative self-expression By situating these narrative journeys in their own times and cultures Literary Sisterhoods shows how they contribute to a common tradition that speaks to readers today

A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Antitrust, In Defense of Dialogue Monika Gehlawat, 2020-02-25 In Defense of Dialogue Reading Habermas and Postwar American Literature offers a timely investigation of the value of dialogue in contemporary American culture Using Jürgen Habermas's theory of communicative action to read the work of Frank O'Hara James Baldwin Grace Paley and Andy Warhol In Defense of Dialogue assembles postwar writers who have never been studied alongside one another showing how they overcame the pervading skepticism of their contemporaries to imagine sincere and rational speakers who seek to cultivate intersubjective discourse

Budapest Diary: In Search of the Motherbook Susan Rubin Suleiman, 2019-08-10 Can you forget the place you once called home What does it take to make you recapture it In this moving memoir Susan Rubin Suleiman describes her returns to the city of her birth where she speaks the language like a native but with an accent Suleiman left Budapest in 1949 as a young child with her parents fleeing communism thirty-five years later she returned with her two sons for a brief vacation and began to remember her childhood Her earliest memories of Nazi persecution in the final year of World War II came back to her in fragments as did memories of her first school years after the war and of the stormy marriage between her father a brilliant Talmudic scholar and her mother a cosmopolitan woman from a more secular Jewish family In 1993 after the fall of communism and the death of her mother Suleiman returned to Budapest for a six month stay She recounts her ongoing quest for personal history interweaving it with the stories of present day Hungarians struggling to make sense of the changes in their individual and collective lives Suleiman s search for documents relating to her childhood the lives of her parents and their families and the Jewish communities of Hungary and Poland takes her on a series of fascinating journeys within and outside Budapest Emerging from this eloquent often suspenseful diary is the portrait of an intellectual who recaptures her past and comes into contact with the vital troubling world of contemporary Eastern Europe Suleiman s vivid descriptions of her encounters with a proud old city and its people in a time of historical change remind us that every life story is at once unique and part of a larger history I recommend this autobiographical narrative because it is grave and beautiful Better still it is shatteringly truthful Elie Wiesel Susan Rubin was a little girl when her parents fled through darkened fields to escape the Communist regime in Hungary in 1949 This is a poignant piece of self revelation sprinkled with some trenchant observations on the way the dead hand of history has weighed down the former Warsaw Pact countries Kirkus A fascinating revealing journal brutally honest Publishers Weekly This pensive forthright journal records Suleiman s efforts to reconnect with a long forgotten homeland Booklist Suleiman lyrically describes her quest and the complex interaction of the Eastern Europe of the past and present Boston Globe A tale of survival adaptation and pure luck whose darker side reveals the linguistic and emotional cost of emigration and exile the feeling of permanent displacement of being nowhere at home Forward This story must speak to all those who have fled and who have ever dreamed of a return Independent Jewish Women s Magazine A thoughtful and sophisticated memoir You don t have to be Hungarian or Jewish to appreciate writing like this Montreal Gazette
