Life and Times of Washington; Revised, Enlarged, and Enriched, In Two Volumes Benson John Lossing, John Frederick Schroeder, 2025-09-01 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Restatement Third: Restitution and Unjust Enrichment Charles Mitchell, William Swadling, 2014-07-18 The publication of the Restatement Third Unjust Enrichment and Restitution by the American Law Institute in July 2010 was an event of major importance not only for the development of the law of unjust enrichment in the US but also for global scholarship relating to this area of private law The Restatement First appeared in 1937 and the Restatement Second was abandoned hence the Restatement Third is the most significant survey of the American law on this topic for over 70 years Private law has been a comparatively neglected area of study in US law schools for several decades and this is particularly true of the law of unjust enrichment However the appearance of the Restatement Third has prompted a renewal of interest in the subject among US scholars and it is hoped that the present volume of essays will contribute to this revival while reflecting on the lessons to be learned from the Restatement by other legal systems Featuring the work of leading scholars from the UK Germany South Africa Canada Hong Kong and Australia the essays undertake critical and comparative analysis of the Restatement and offer fresh insights into the rules that it articulates Flammability and Sensitivity of Materials in Oxygen-enriched Atmospheres Joel M. Rethinking Unjust Enrichment Warren Swain,Sagi Peari,2024-01-07 This inter disciplinary volume brings together scholars from across the globe to challenge the dominant position of unjust enrichment and suggest more satisfactory alternatives Rethinking Unjust Enrichment includes a broad range of voices from the UK US Australia Canada China Singapore Germany Ireland New Zealand Hong Kong and South America The book includes voices of sceptics who think that the current unjust enrichment doctrine must be seriously qualified and others who think that it should be eliminated altogether The contributions cast doubt on the various parameters of unjust enrichment from an analytical standpoint representing four interrelated perspectives history sociology doctrine and theory The four limb structure of the book provides readers with a clear understanding of the current problems of unjust enrichment at the deepest levels of its history sociological forces doctrinal fallacies and normative deficiencies This treatment of the subject serves as the basis for a comprehensive reform across jurisdictions Comprehensive and multi faceted Rethinking Unjust Enrichment is interesting to both sceptics and supporters of the unjust enrichment It facilitates a critical and constructive dialogue between the two
