NA, 2015-12-25. Women of Mystery. Martha Hailey DuBose, 2000-12-11. In this remarkable book, Martha Hailey DuBose has given those multitudes of readers who love the mystery novel an indispensable addition to their libraries. Unlike other works on the subject, Women of Mystery is not merely a directory of the novelists and their publications, with a few biographical details. DuBose combines extensive research into the lives of significant women mystery writers from Anna Katherine Green and Mary Roberts Rinehart with critical essays on their work, anecdotes, contemporary reviews, and opinions and some of the women's own comments. She takes us through the Golden Age of the British women mystery writers Christie Sayers, Marsh Allingham and Tey to the leading crime novelists of today, focused on the women who have become legends of the genre. And though she laments so many mysteries, so little time she makes a good effort at mentioning some of the best of the rest. When DuBose writes of the lives of her principal players, she relates them to their times, their families, their personal situations, and above all to their books. She subtly points out that Sayers, whose experience with the men in her life was inevitably disastrous, created in Lord Peter the ideal lover, one who is all that a woman desires and needs. DuBose gives us the curriculum vitae that Dorothy Sayers created to help her bring Peter Wimsey to a virtual actuality. Ngaio Marsh would give up an active presence in the theatrical world she loved, but she recreated it for herself as well as her readers in many of her novels. The biographies of these women are as engrossing as the stories they wrote, and Martha DuBose has shined a different, intimate and intriguing light on them, their works, and the lives that informed those works. This book is so full of treasure, it's hard to see how any mystery enthusiast will be able to do without it. And what a gift it would make for anyone on your list who has been heard to announce, "I love a mystery." Some of the treats inside: In the Beginning, The Mothers of Detection, Anna Katherine Green, Mary Roberts Rinehart, A Golden Era, The Genteel Puzzlers, Agatha Christie, Dorothy L. Sayers, Ngaio Marsh, Margery Allingham, Josephine Tey, Modern Motives, Mysteries of the Murderous Mind, Patricia Highsmith, P. D. James, Ruth Rendell, Mary Higgins Clark, Sue Grafton, and more.

Clemence Dane, Louise McDonald, 2020-08-31. This feminist investigation of the works of Clemence Dane joins the growing body of research into the relationship of female-authored texts to the ideology and cultural hegemony of the Edwardian and inter-war period. An amalgam of single-author study and thematic period analysis through sustained cultural engagement, this book explores Dane's journalism, drama, and fiction to interrogate a range of issues: inter-war women's writing, the Middlebrow, feminism, homo sexuality, liberal politics, domesticity, and concepts of the spinster. It examines form and a range of fictional genres: drama, Bildungsroman, detective fiction, historical saga, and gothic fiction. It relates back to the genre writing of comparable authors. These include Rosamond Lehmann, Vita Sackville-West, Ivy Compton-Burnett, Dorothy Strachey, Dodie Smith, Rachel Ferguson, May Sinclair, Sylvia Townsend Warner, Daphne du Maurier, G. B. Stern, and detective writers Dorothy L. Sayers, Agatha Christie, Gladys Mitchell, Marjorie Allingham, and Ngaio Marsh. Offering a picture of an era focalised through Dane and contextualised through her journalism and the work of her female peers, it argues that Dane is often markedly more radically feminist than these contemporaries. She engages with broad issues of social justice, irrespective of gender, and her humanity is demonstrated through her sympathetic representations of marginalised characters of both sexes. However, she most specifically evidences a gender politics consistent with the fragmented and multifarious essentialist feminism that emerged following the Great War, which esteemed womanly qualities of care and mothering but simultaneously valued female autonomy, single status, and professionalism. Adopting the critical paradigms of domestic modernism and women's liminality, the book will particularly focus on the trajectories of Dane's extraordinary modern heroines who possess qualities of altruism candour integrity imagination intuition resilience and rebelliousness Over the course of her work these fictional women increasingly challenge oppressive normative forms of domesticity traversing physical thresholds to create alternative domesticities in self defining living and working spaces The Roderick Alleyn Mysteries Volume 3 Ngaio Marsh,2021-12-14 Three witty novels by the finest writer in the English language of the pure classical puzzle whodunnit The Sun This volume includes three books in the Golden Age detective series from the Mystery Writers of America Grand Master Death in a White Tie A high society homicide is the talk of the London season Marsh's writing is a pleasure The Seattle Times Overture to Death In a Dorset village a snobby local busybody is silenced for good in this tale by a peerless practitioner of the slightly surreal English village comedy mystery Kirkus Reviews Death at the Bar A famous barrister is enjoying a pint at the pub until a dart becomes a deadly weapon In her ironic and witty hands the mystery novel can be civilized literature The New York Times Mystery Index Steven Olderr,1987 Provides indexes to American and British mystery novels by author title subject setting and characters
