Entering The Household Of God Taking Baptism Seriously In A Postchristian Society:

Entering the Household of God, Every priest and minister knows there is more much more to baptism than a brief ceremony The Book of Common Prayer makes it very clear that parents and godparents have a duty to help the new Christians grow in the knowledge and love of God and in their responsibilities as members of his Church But in this post modern post Christian world how does a parish priest overcome the obstacles our culture puts in the way of carrying out this task Fortunately the Rev Claudia A Dickson has made a study of the gifts and responsibilities that are both implicit and explicit in the rite of baptism And she has distilled her study into this helpful and succinct volume You will find a basic history of baptism followed by suggested plans for study sessions for parents godparents candidates or individuals preparing to renew their baptismal vows Questions for discussion and simple group exercises are designed to ensure lively conversation and at the same time to ensure that participants have a solid sense of the implications of the baptismal rite Throughout the discussion there are useful cross references to the Service of Holy Baptism which is reprinted in this volume Entering the Household of God Claudia A. Tanye,2010 Ethnocentrism is one of the greatest obstacles to peace on the African continent Taking the Church as Family of God as a model of evangelization this work explores means of inculturating the Gospel message in African cultures in order to transform them make them blossom and enable Africans to live as authentic Christians in their cultures It examines the values of African extended families and the prospects of interreligious dialogue as means through which the various religious bodies can effectively work together to overcome ethnocentrism and its evil effects and thus establish a wholesome African society where every human person is at home irrespective of family orientation or tribal background American Book

R. Griffiths,2019-01-14 In today s world the Christian is constantly being challenged with new teachings Some of these are particularly dangerous because they are put forward by those with evangelical credentials Tom Nicholas Wright is one of the leading proponents of the New Perspective on Paul Wright sees himself as the new Luther a discoverer of the true biblical understanding of key doctrines like that of justification by faith According to him the Reformation misunderstood the nature of justification by faith alone and the role of the law in the Old Testament Wright maintains that this has continued to be the case for those of the Reformed Faith He tells us that we are guilty of anachronism whereby we interpret first century Judaism in the light of medieval Roman Catholicism In this work the writer not only defends the Reformed understanding of this vital doctrine but also seeks to show how Wright has misunderstood the nature of the new covenant and the place of ethnic Israel     The Baptizing Community Albert Theodore Eastman,1982     Purity, Community, and Ritual in Early Christian Literature Moshe Blidstein,2017-04-28 Purity Community and Ritual in Early Christian Literature investigates the meaning of purity purification defilement and disgust for Christian writers readers and listeners from the first to third centuries Anthropological and sociological works over the past decades have demonstrated how purity and defilement rituals practices and discourses harness the power of a raw emotion in order to shape and manipulate cultural structures Moshe Blidstein builds on such theories to explain how early Christian writers drew on ancient Jewish and Greco Roman traditions on purity and defilement using them to create new types of community form Christian identity and articulate the relationship between body sin and ritual Blidstein discusses early Christian purity issues under several headings dietary law death defilement purity of the heart defilement of outsiders and purity of the community Analysis of the motivations shaping the development of each area of discourse reveals two major considerations polemical and substantive Thus Christian writing on dietary law and death defilement is essentially polemical constructing Christian identity by marking the purity practices and beliefs of others as false Concerning the subjects of baptism eucharist and penance however the discourse turns inwards and becomes more substantive seeking to create and maintain theories of ritual and human nature coherent with the theological principles of the new religion     Post-Christendom Stuart Murray,2018-01-10 Western societies are experiencing a series of disorientating culture shifts Uncertain where we are heading observers use post words to signal that familiar landmarks are disappearing but we cannot yet discern the shape of what is emerging One of the most significant shifts post Christendom raises many questions about the mission and role of the church in this strange new world What does it mean to be one of many minorities in a culture that the church no longer dominates How do followers of Jesus engage in mission from the margins What do we bring with us as precious resources from the fading Christendom era and what do we lay down as baggage that will weigh us down on our journey into post Christendom Post Christendom identifies the challenges and opportunities of this unsettling but exciting time Stuart Murray presents an overview of the formation and development of the Christendom system examines the legacies this has left and highlights the questions that the Christian community needs to consider in this period of cultural transition     The Christian Union ,1871     Christian Weekly ,1906     St. George's Sword and Shield St. George's Church (Flushing, N.Y.),1925     An Exposition of the Bible Marcus Dods,Robert Alexander Watson,1907     Christian Standard ,1909     The Friend ,1834
