Reading Is Believing David S. Cunningham, 2002-11-01 In this fascinating and fresh look at the Apostles Creed David Cunningham argues that reading fiction and film can lead Christians to a deeper more precise and more experiential knowledge of their faith Drawing on novels plays and films by the likes of Dickens Shakespeare P D James and Graham

Greene Cunningham discusses the Apostles Creed in detail using one primary text to illuminate each article Cunningham begins with a brief history of the Christian creeds and their significance In addition to plot summaries each chapter includes discussion questions addressing the relationship between literature and faith and concludes with a works cited list and a list for further reading This book will delight Christians who want to better understand the creeds and basic doctrinal confessions of the Christian faith While academics theologians and literature and film aficionados will celebrate Cunningham's keen literary and theological insights the book is equally readable for those with little background in these fields of study Reading Is Believing is an ideal text for Christian education classes adult Sunday school and church based book clubs It will serve well as a text in theology courses as well as various courses in the humanities ethics and cultural and religious studies
