A Companion to Carmen Martín Gaité Catherine O'Leary, Alison Ribeiro de Menezes, 2014-08-21 A comprehensive examination of the full range of Carmen Martín Gaité's work Carmen Martín Gaité produced a large body of work in various genres over the course of her five decade career though she is primarily known as a novelist short story writer and social commentator Her work at times reflects and at times defies the pattern of development in Spanish fiction since the 1950s This Companion offers a re-reading of Martín Gaité's works emphasizing her early experimentalism which culminated in mid-career works notably El cuarto de atrás and stressing how in the late 1960s and early 1970s when the majority of Spanish novelists were engaged in a critique of history Martín Gaité turned to the writing of cultural history exploring its intersection with narrative fiction in a positivist rather than a nihilistic mode Her exploration of gender issues particularly mother-child relations towards the end of her career anticipated new directions in feminist thought Discussions of often ignored works such as poetry drama children's literature and literary translations offer insight into sidelined aspects of this writer's literary output Catherine O'Leary is Reader in Spanish at the University of St Andrews Alison Ribeiro de Menezes is Professor of Spanish at the University of Warwick

Fairy Tales and Feminism Donald Haase, 2004 In the 1970s feminists focused critical attention on fairy tales broke the spell that had enchanted readers for centuries by exposing the role of the fairy tale in the cultural struggle over gender This book revisits feminist criticism offers a new evaluation of its merits

A New History of Spanish Writing, 1939 to the 1990s Chris Perriam, 2000 A New History of Spanish Writing 1939 to the 1990s explores the diversity of some sixty years of imaginative writing by Spaniards its interactions with Spain's peculiarly dramatic history since the end of its Civil War and its wider thematic significance It covers the famous and canonical texts of the most recent in Modern Spanish literature but also explores areas less well known outside Spain essays and editorials queer narrative new poetry comics and texts of the militant and reactionary Right More space than is usual in literary histories is allowed for commentary on famous texts but the book also makes room for the marginalized and for socially contextualized explorations of the interconnectedness of various forms of writing The overall structure is not chronological but thematic dealing with abstract and topical issues such as silence the family or realism

White Ink Stephen M. Hart, 1993 An analysis of the use made of five structuring devices or motifs the Bildungsroman the patriarchal prison the fairy tale sexual politics and gender trouble in a selection of representative women's novels from Spain and Latin America written between 1936 and the present STEPHEN M HART is Reader in the Department of Spanish and Latin American Studies at University College London

Entre visillos Carmen Martín Gaité, 1997 Examines the social conditions that characterize Spanish society of the 1950s with patriarchal norms and sex role stereotyping put under scrutiny

Reflection in Sequence Sandra J. Schumm, 1999-07 The codes of conduct imposed on females by Spain's dictator Francisco Franco after the Spanish Civil War 1936-39 created a stifling environment for women until his death in 1975

Beginning with Carmen Laforet's 1944 Nadal Prize winning novel Nada novels by women many of which explore female identity began to proliferate in Spain. The works examined in this study are Nada (1944) by Ana María Matute, La placa del Diamante (1962) by Mercè Rodoreda, Julia (1969) by Ana María Moix, El cuarto de atrás (1978) by Carmen Martín Gaité, El amor es un juego solitario (1979) by Esther Tusquets, and Questio d'amor propi (1987) by Carme Riera. These feature female protagonists struggling for self-realization and by extension for change in a restrictive Spanish society. Schumm's analysis of the seven novels demonstrates how examination of metaphoric tropes and mirror images provides insight into the protagonists' development.

Under Construction Elizabeth A. Scarlett, 1994 Scarlett reveals significant correlations between gender and figurations of the female and male body and traces a history of the mind-body connection in Spanish novels from the late nineteenth century to the present.

Beyond The Back Room Marian Womack, 2011 This collection of essays examines current trends in scholarly research on Spanish author Carmen Martín Gaité (1925-2000). It concentrates on the least explored areas of Martín Gaité's oeuvre such as her collage artwork, the relationship between image and text in her work, and her close relationship with themes such as genre, writing the fairy tale, and textual/physical notions of space, as well as her personal theories on orality and narration. As we pass the tenth anniversary of her death, Martín Gaité continues to be an increasing focus of study as scholars start to identify and comprehend the breadth and scope of her work. The essays in the volume complement previous studies of Martín Gaité's major works from the 1960s and 1970s by focusing largely on her later novels together with in-depth analysis of the manuscripts and artistic materials that have been made available since her death.

Carmen Martín Gaité Ester Bautista Botello, 2019-01-09 This book reconstructs the poetics of Carmen Martín Gaité by viewing the concept of journey as a fundamental principle upon which she bases and elaborates her narrative writing of the 1990s. Five novels published in this period receive critical attention, all of which coincide with the last trips taken by the writer to New York: Caperucita en Manhattan (1990), Nubosidad variable (1992), La reina de las nieves (1994), Lo raro es vivir (1996), and Irse de casa (1998). To the extent that the journey is the essence of the narrative under consideration, the concept is analysed as an aesthetic practice and an attempt to identify a series of actions which allow us to link the writer's novels with two areas that have previously received only scant critical scrutiny: geography and the visual dimension. This book presents a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of space in Martín Gaité's narrative as well as in her collages, drawings, and paintings.

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Carmen Martín Gaité Joan L. Brown, 2013-01-01 The career of Spain's celebrated author Carmen Martín Gaité spanned the Spanish Civil War, Franco's dictatorship, and the nation's transition to democracy. She wrote fiction, poetry, drama, screenplays for television and film, and books of literary and cultural analysis. The only person to win Spain's National Prize for Literature (Premio Nacional de las Letras) twice, Martín Gaité explored and blended a range of genres from social realism to the fantastic as she took up issues of gender, class, economics, and aesthetics in a time of political upheaval. Part 1: Materials of this volume provides resources for instructors and a literary

The Girl in the Text Ann Smith, 2019-07-16 How are girls represented in written and graphic texts and how do these representations inform our understanding of girlhood In this volume contributors examine the girl in the text in order to explore a range of perspectives on girlhood across borders and in relation to their positionality In literary and transactional texts girls are presented as heroes who empower themselves and others with lasting effect as figures of liberating pedagogical practice and educational activism and as catalysts for discussions of the relationship between desire and ethics In these varied chapters a new notion of transnationalism emerges one rooted not only in the process through which borders between nation states become more porous but through which cultural and ethnic imperatives become permeable
