the unique characteristics and rich variety of research in entrepreneurship education They adopt several different perspectives focusing on key issues and significant developments in the field and highlighting emergent new insights The 35 contributors span 11 countries and three continents demonstrating not only the richness but also the complexity of the field in terms of culture geography and institutional ethical and political systems The Handbook is intended to collectively assist entrepreneurship educators in developing new programmes and pedagogical approaches that take into account the richness and diversity of these multiple perspectives Highlighting the unique characteristics of research in entrepreneurship education this Handbook will be of great interest to entrepreneurship researchers academics and students wishing to understand the unique notions of entrepreneurship education and entrepreneurial learning which are often quite distinct from current practical views The companion volume Handbook of Research in Entrepreneurship Education Volume 1 A General Perspective showcases the nature and benefits of the new wave in entrepreneurship education emerging as a result of revised academic programmes developed to reflect new forms of entrepreneurship

Global Perspectives on Military Entrepreneurship and Innovation Ojo, Sanya, 2021-02-19 Like other organizations across the world military establishments apply the concept of entrepreneurship to day to day activities However literature on the topic runs thin creating a gap in the research on this area of military involvement in entrepreneurship These studies focus heavily on three topics ex military officers in entrepreneurship entrepreneurial minded individuals still in the military and military spouses as successful entrepreneurs It is essential that researchers interrogate these three areas across different locational contexts for a clear representation and understanding of the many forms of military entrepreneurship This research focuses on outcomes the entrepreneurial process economic activities and ontological directions Military entrepreneurship is cross cultural spans varied locations and is linked to retired retiring serving military personnel and military spouses Global Perspectives on Military Entrepreneurship and Innovation builds on existing theoretical and empirical studies in the areas of entrepreneurship and military business and enterprise to interrogate the concepts of military entrepreneurship veteran entrepreneurship military spouse entrepreneurship or military women entrepreneurship and retirees entrepreneurship The book is a collection of studies on military entrepreneurship treating the subject with emphasis on metacognition and interrogates differences in metacognitive processing across cultures and values relating to military entrepreneurship The chapters cover various concepts in military entrepreneurship and promote entrepreneurship research within the military ecosystem This book is ideal for military personnel entrepreneurs managers practitioners researchers academicians and students interested in the concept of military entrepreneurship and innovation narratives

Entrepreneurship and the Creative Economy Colette Henry, Anne de Bruin, 2011-01-01 Creative industries are becoming increasingly important to the economic and social wealth of most economies They are also inherently linked to entrepreneurship and this book provides thoughtful and comprehensive insights into the role of creative industries in contemporary economies and to the interface between creative firms and entrepreneurship The book draws upon cutting edge research to illustrate and explain the diversity and nature of creative industries and to provide informed discussion on key topics relevant to developing theory and understanding of this vital sector This book is a must for anyone interested in understanding and learning more about the opportunities which creative industries have created for entrepreneurship and the benefits which an entrepreneurial mind set can offer to the creative industries Eleanor Shaw University of Strathclyde UK The creative industries have long been a hotbed of entrepreneurial activity For decades vaudeville theater movies art and music have exemplified the key aspects of entrepreneurship and the participants in these industries search for novelty and create innovations But despite the fact that some countries have industrial policies to focus on creative arts this is a little studied area of entrepreneurship Colette Henry and Anne de Bruin offer one of the first academic books that showcases research in the creative industries This volume presents a solid theoretical foundation and offers fascinating chapters that consider a variety of topics such as regional strategies education creative expression and the evolution of industry

Asian Models Of Entrepreneurship - From The Indian Union And Nepal To The Japanese Archipelago: Context, Policy And Practice (2nd Edition) Leo-paul Dana,2014-06-13 In this book Leo Paul Dana makes it clear that much can be learnt about the nature of entrepreneurial activity when we delve into the unique characteristics of different nations of South Asia South east Asia and East Asia Through in depth analyses and comprehensive reviews of many Asian countries the profound differences both among and within countries of the region become vividly apparent Dana juxtaposes the explosion in entrepreneurial growth within China against the struggles to build an entrepreneurial community in Japan or the enlightened public policy leadership in Singapore against the crisis driven developments in Korea The range of factors identified within each of the 15 countries examined by Dana is not an example of random influences on the entrepreneurial process because they can be construed in more systematic and logical ways Thus the book uncovers the Chinese model of gradual transition the Royal Cambodian model and the Doi Moi model among many others The reader is challenged to grasp these different models and identify their commonalities and differences
