Bruce E. Stewart

Entwined Lives:

King of the Moonshiners Bruce E. Stewart, 2008 Lewis R Redmond was an archetypal moonshiner On March 1 1876 the twenty one year old North Carolinian shot and killed a U S deputy marshal who tried to arrest him on charges of illicit distilling He then fled to Pickens County South Carolina where within three years he gained national notoriety as the King of the Moonshiners More than any other individual moonshiner in southern Appalachia Redmond captured the imagination of middle class Americans Then as now media coverage had a lot to do with his reputation Entwined Lives Nancy L. Segal, 1999 A groundbreaking study of twins brings together the latest scientific research and case studies to explore the complexities of human behavior and development as it examines such topics as twins separated at birth pseudotwins the loss of a twin the implications of new fertility drugs and more 10 000 first printing Tour Entwined Lives Nonie Sadler, 2015-12-15 One of Us Alice Domurat Dreger, 2005-10-31 One of Us views conjoined twinning and other abnormalities from the point of view of people living with such anatomies and considers these issues within the larger historical context of anatomical politics This deeply thought provoking and compassionate work exposes the extent of the social frame upon which we construct the normal Twin Dilemmas Barbara Klein, 2017-06-26 The development of how twins relate to each other and their single partners is explored through life stories and clinical examples in this telling study of twin interconnections While the quality of a nurturing family life is crucial Dr Klein has found there are often issues with separation anxiety loneliness competition with each other and finding friendships outside of twinship When twin lives are entwined because of inadequate parenting and estrangement twin loss is possible and traumatic creating a crippling fear of expansiveness an inability to be yourself Therapists and twins seeking an understanding of twin relationships will find this clinically compelling book a valuable resource Reconfiguring the Natures of Childhood Affrica Taylor, 2013 In this fascinating new book Affrica Taylor encourages an exciting paradigmatic shift in the ways in which childhood and nature are conceived and pedagogically deployed and invites readers to critically reassess the naturalist childhood discourses that are rife within popular culture and early years education Through adopting a common worlds framework Reconfiguring the Natures of Childhood generates a number of complex and inclusive ways of seeing and representing the early years It recasts childhood as messy and implicated rather than pure and innocent situated and differentiated rather than decontextualized and universal entangled within real world relations rather than protected in a separate space Throughout the book the author follows an intelligent and innovative line of thought which challenges many pre existing ideas about childhood Drawing upon cross disciplinary perspectives and with international relevance this book makes an important contribution to the field of childhood studies and early childhood education and will be a valuable resource for scholars postgraduate students and higher education teachers Living with Strangers Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2020-06-03 Living with Strangers examines the history and cultural representation of bed sitting rooms and boarding houses in England from the early twentieth century to the present Providing a historical overview the authors explore how these alternative domestic spaces came to provide shelter for a diverse demographic of working women and men retired army officers gay people students bohemians writers artists performers migrants and asylum seekers as well as shady figures and criminals Drawing on historical records case studies and examples from literature art and film the book examines how the prevalence and significance of bedsits and boarding houses in novels plays detective stories Ealing comedies and contemporary fiction and film produced its own genre of narrative The nine chapters are written by an international range of established and emerging scholars in the fields of literary studies art and film history political theory queer studies and cultural studies A lively highly original study Living with Strangers makes a significant contribution to the cross disciplinary field of home studies and provides insight into a crucial aspect of British cultural history It is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history literary studies sociology gender and sexuality studies film studies and cultural studies

Dust and Light Andrea Barrett, 2025-02-25 One of Literary Hub's Most Anticipated Books of 2025 The National Book Award winning writer's intimate exploration of how fact is transformed into fiction Hailed as a genius enchantress Karen Russell and winner of the MacArthur Fellowship the celebrated novelist Andrea Barrett has for decades reached backward to find inspiration from the past and written acclaimed and prizewinning works of historical fiction In Dust and Light the first work of nonfiction of her extraordinary career Barrett draws from that deep well of experience to explore the mysteries methods and delights of the form Inspiration found in the past she argues can illuminate fiction just as dust scatters light and makes the unseen visible Barrett writes of lessons gleaned from the classic work of some of her guiding lights Willa Cather Henry James Leo Tolstoy Virginia Woolf as well as the work of such contemporary masters as Hilary Mantel Toni Morrison Colm Tóibín and Jesmyn Ward She reveals how she created some of her own beloved works taking readers on a fascinating journey into some of the largest questions in the genre How does a writer find meaningful subject matter beyond the confines of their life How are scraps of history found used misused manipulated and transformed into a fully formed narrative And what are the perils as well as the potential of this process Building on pieces originally published in leading literary magazines and featured in The Best American Essays Dust and Light is an elegant exploration of the hazy borderlands of fiction sewn from the materials of history Filled with profound insights it will be a delight for any devoted fiction readers and of great use to aspiring writers too

Feminist Ethics and Social and Political Philosophy: Theorizing the Non-Ideal Lisa Tessman, 2009-07-30 Feminist Ethics and Social and Political Philosophy: Theorizing the Non-Ideal is a collection of feminist essays that self consciously develop non idealizing approaches to either ethics or social and political philosophy or both Characterizing feminist ethics and social and political philosophy as marked by a tendency to be non idealizing serves to thematize the volume while still allowing the essays to be diverse enough to constitute a representation of current work in the fields of feminist ethics and social and political philosophy Each of the essays either serves as an instance of work that is rooted in actual non ideal conditions and that as such is able to consider any of the many questions relevant to subordinated people or reflects theoretically on the significance of non idealizing as an approach to feminist ethics or social and political philosophy The volume will be of interest to feminist scholars from all disciplines to academics who are ethicists and political philosophers as well as to graduate students Not All Twins Are Alike Barbara Klein,2003-02-28 Even twins are unique Most people idealize twins fantasizing a close perpetually loving relationship Yet Klein herself an identical twin demonstrates that twins have complicated and intense relationships that range from over identification or excessive closeness to profound estrangement and conflict Most twins who are raised as individuals deal with the significant emotional pain of separation in adolescence or young adulthood yet as mature adults can come to love and respect each other as individuals As Klein makes clear the parenting that twins receive as infants and young children affects the relationships that they have with one another and with the world they choose to function in Because parenting is a critical determinant of psychological well being it should be treated as a serious but manageable challenge This book is a must read for twins their parents and scholars students and other researchers and professionals dealing with mental health and child development Twins William Viney,2021-05-05 Human twins have many meanings and different histories They have been seen as gods and monsters signs of danger death and sexual deviance They are taken as objects of wonder and violent repression the subjects of scientific experiment Now millions are born through fertility technologies Their history is often buried in philosophies and medical theories religious and scientific practices and countless stories of devotion and tragedy In this history of superstitions and marvels fantasies and experiments William Viney himself a twin shows how the use and abuse of twins has helped to shape the world in which we live This book has been written not just for twins but for anyone interested in their historical global and political impact
