Environment, Aid and Politics in Zanzibar C. S. L. Chachage, 2000

Security and Democracy in Southern Africa Gavin Cawthra, André Du Pisani, Abillah H. Omari, 2007 A study of the ambiguity of democratization and how it can generate violence Southern Africa has embarked on one of the world's most ambitious security co operation initiatives seeking to roll out the principles of the United Nations at regional levels This book examines the triangular relationship between democratization the character of democracy and its deficits and national security practices and perceptions of eleven southern African states Based on national studies conducted by African academics and security practitioners over three years it includes an examination of the way security is conceived and managed as well as a comparative analysis of regional security co operation in the developing world The study concludes that democratization is ambiguous and uncertain and can in some cases generate violent conflict Building a common security regime in southern Africa will require moving beyond regime solidarity In particular progress will mean building multinational institutions entrenching democratic practices drawing on civil society and integrating the southern African project with that of the African Union The authors conclude with a set of policy recommendations that aim to strengthen both states and civil society within the framework of an emerging common security system

Remembering Julius Nyerere in Tanzania Marie-Aude Fouere, 2015-11-06 This edited volume is about the rekindled investment in the figure of the first president Julius K Nyerere in contemporary Tanzania It explores how Nyerere is remembered by Tanzanians from different levels of society in what ways and for what purposes Looking into what Nyerere means and stands for today it provides insight into the media the political arena poetry the education sector or street corner talks The main argument of this book is that Nyerere has become a widely shared political metaphor used to debate and contest conceptions of the Tanzanian nation and Tanzanian ness The state citizens relationship the moral standards for the exercise of power and the contours of national sentiment are under scrutiny when the figure of Nyerere is mobilized today The contributions gathered here come from a generation of budding or renowned scholars in varied disciplines history anthropology and political science Drawing upon materials collected through extensive fieldwork and archival research they all critically engage the existing literature about Tanzania and prevailing political narratives to explore how nationhood is re imagined in Tanzania today through assent and contest

Between East and South Anna Calori, Anne-Kristin Hartmetz, Bence Kocsev, James Mark, Jan Zofka, 2019-10-21 During the Cold War alternative globalization projects were underway socialist Eastern Europe and left leaning countries in the Third World maintained close economic relations The two worlds traded and exchanged know how and technology This book examines the specific spaces of interaction of these exchanges and discusses the consequences for those projects of globalization undertaken in both world regions

The Persistence of Subsistence Agriculture Tony Waters, 2008-01-01 This book is about how the modern market world transformed the lives of remote agricultural farmers Waters uses diverse examples to illustrate how the modern market economy captured persistent subsistence farms in 18th century Scotland 19th century United States 20th century Tanzania and indeed the entire modern world

Preventing Violent Conflict in Africa Y. Mine, F. Stewart, S. Fukuda-Parr, T. Mkandawire, 2013-10-17 Horizontal inequalities are root causes of violent conflict in Africa Yet people take actions not because of statistical data on inequalities of which they might not be aware but because of injustices they perceive This volume analyses the results of original surveys with over 3 000 respondents in African cities and towns exposing clear discrepancies between objective inequalities and people's subjective perceptions The contributors examine experiences in country pairs and probe into the reasons why neighbouring countries sharing common historical traits sometimes took contrasting pathways of peace and violent conflict Combining quantitative analysis and qualitative anatomy of historical experiences of conflict and reconciliation in Rwanda Burundi Ghana Cote d'Ivoire South Africa Zimbabwe Uganda Tanzania Kenya and Nigeria the study brings forward a set of policy recommendations for development practitioners This work further addresses the issue of institutional choice and reveals how sustainable power sharing and decentralisation contribute to political stability in Africa

From Promise to Practice Chandra Lekha Sriram, Karin Wermester, 2003 How can the United Nations regional and subregional organizations government donors and other policymakers best apply the tools of conflict prevention to the wide range of intrastate conflict situations actually found in the field The detailed case studies and analytical chapters in From Promise to Practice offer operational lessons for fashioning strategy and tactics to meet the challenges of specific conflicts both potential and actual

Environmental Planning, Policies and Politics in Eastern and Southern Africa M.A. Mohamed Salih, Shibru Tedla, 2016-07-27 Caught between underdevelopment poverty and environmental degradation and the need for exploiting their natural resources for development Africa has during the last two decades been engaged in a serious effort to integrate environment and development The nine case studies Botswana Ethiopia Kenya Lesotho Malawi Tanzania Sudan Uganda and Zambia presented in this book explore the complexity involved in environmental planning and policy in one of the World's poorest regions The authors articulate an informed debate with new conclusions and alternative policy recommendations

Disposable Cities Garth Andrew Myers, 2017-03-02 Based on in depth fieldwork in three cities Dar es Salaam Zanzibar and Lusaka this book provides a critical analysis of the United Nations Sustainable Cities Program in Africa SCP Focusing on the SCP's policies for solid waste management which was identified as the top priority problem by the SCP the book examines the success of these pilot schemes and the SCP's record in building new relationships between people and government It argues that the SCP has operated in a political vacuum without recognition of the long and problematic histories and cultural politics of urban environmental governance in Eastern and Southern Africa This book brings these cultural and political histories to the fore in its examination of the contemporary dynamics In doing so it not only provides an insightful analysis of the policies and outcomes for the SCP but also puts forward a historically grounded critique of neoliberalism good governance and sustainable development discourses

African Cities

Professor Garth Myers, 2011-04-14 In this groundbreaking book Garth Myers uses African urban concepts and experiences to speak back to theoretical and practical concerns He argues for a re-visioning a seeing again and a revising of how cities in Africa are discussed and written about in both urban studies and African studies Cities in Africa are still either ignored banished to a different other lesser category of not quite cities or held up as examples of all that can go wrong with urbanism in much of the mainstream and even critical urban literature Myers instead encourages African studies and urban studies scholars across the world to engage with the vibrancy and complexity of African cities with fresh eyes Touching on a diverse range of cities across Africa from Zanzibar to Nairobi Cape Town to Mogadishu Kinshasa to Dakar the book uses the author's own research and a close reading of works by other scholars writers and artists to help illuminate what is happening in and across the region's cities Tanzania Human Rights Report, 2008 Globalisation and Democratic Governance in Tanzania C. S. L. Chachage, 2003 Sustainable Entrepreneurship and Social Innovation Katerina Nicolopoulou, Mine Karatas-Ozkan, Frank Janssen, John Jermier, 2016-11-10 Sustainable entrepreneurship has attracted growing attention in both scholarly and practitioner circles Focusing on generating social environmental and business value the notion has been raised more recently to address the contribution of entrepreneurial activities to sustainable economic and social development Sustainable Entrepreneurship and Social Innovation builds on a theoretical framework that addresses related topics via a combination of insights from sustainability policy managerial strategic innovation and institutional perspectives Providing empirical casework as well as a conceptual and theoretical framework the book takes a global interdisciplinary approach to the emergent field of sustainable entrepreneurship The book highlights elements of sustainable entrepreneurship which have a societal impact as well as regional relevance and related aspects of innovation are also presented Definitional issues are further elaborated in order to encompass the main inter-connected fields of study sustainable entrepreneurship and social innovation This book is an important resource for academic researchers and postgraduate and advanced undergraduate students in the fields of entrepreneurship innovation and sustainability Human Settlement Development - Volume I Saskia Sassen, 2009-09-30 Human Settlement Development is a component of Encyclopedia of Institutional and Infrastructural Resources in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Human Settlement Development deals in nine parts and four volumes with a myriad of issues of great relevance to our world such as Urban Sustainability and the Regional City System in the Asia Pacific Peri Urbanization Zones of Rural Urban Transition Urban Sustainability Theoretical Perspectives on Integrating Economic Development and the Environment Rural Sustainability Using Foreign Direct Investment to Improve Urban Environmental Infrastructure and Services The Case of Hanoi Vietnam The Long Road Towards Sustainable Cities The Dutch case Urban Dimensions of Sustainable Development Rural Development Participation and Diversity for Sustainability The Cities the State and the Markets In Search of Sustainability These four volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences

Giblin, 2015-09-30 A historical study of the relationship between political and environmental change in Tanzania's northeastern lowlands an impoverished region that has been afflicted by severe food shortages throughout the twentieth century

The Challenges of Globalisation to Democratic Governance in Africa Abdul Aziz Jalloh, 2003 Promoting Climate Change Awareness through Environmental Education Wilson, Lynn, Stevenson, Carolyn, 2015-09-22 Addressing global climate change is a monumental battle that can only be fought by the leaders of tomorrow but future leaders are molded through education and shaped by the leaders of today While the pivotal role of education in spreading awareness of climate change is one universally espoused equally universal is the recognition that current education efforts are falling woefully short Promoting Climate Change Awareness through Environmental Education stems the rising tide of shortcomings in environmental education by plugging a known gap in current research and opening a dialogue for the future Targeting an audience of young scholars academics researchers and policymakers this volume provides a much needed dam of empirical evidence regarding the role of youth education in addressing one of the greatest challenges of our age This timely publication focuses on topics such as building resilience to climate change green learning spaces gender issues and concerns for developing countries and the impact of young adults on the future of environmental sustainability

The Small-Scale Fisheries Guidelines Svein Jentoft, Ratana Chuenpagdee, María José Barragán-Paladines, Nicole Franz, 2017-06-10 In June 2014 FAO member states endorsed the Voluntary Guidelines for Securing Sustainable Small Scale Fisheries SSF Guidelines These Guidelines are one of the most significant landmarks for small scale fisheries around the world They are comprehensive in terms of topics covered and progressive with their foundations based on human rights and other key principles It can be anticipated that implementing the SSF Guidelines whether at local national or regional levels will be challenging This book contains in depth case studies where authors discuss the extent to which the Guidelines can help improve the realities of small scale fishing men and women globally and make their livelihoods and communities more secure This will require policy intervention and innovation along with contributions of civil society organizations and academia However most of all it will necessitate the empowerment of fishing people so that they can become active participants in decision making on matters where their well being and human rights are at stake By endorsing the SSF Guidelines states have committed themselves to support and facilitate this development This book asks whether states can successfully walk the talk and provides advice as to how they can do so The collection of case studies sets the platform for an interactive dialogue space for researchers policy makers civil society and small scale fishing communities to start the conversation about the monitoring and evaluation of the implementation of the SSF Guidelines at local national regional and global levels An added value is that it helps add focus to our work as civil society activists involved in ensuring the application of the SSF

Guidelines Naseegh Jaffer General Secretary World Forum of Fisher People WFFP This collection offers many ways in which institutions enabling small scale fisheries can protect and promote sustainability food security customary tenure self management and market access while fostering such benefits as ecosystem based management protected areas incorporation of local knowledge and poverty alleviation You will want to put this book in the hands of policy makers and practitioners immediately and for years to come Evelyn Pinkerton Professor Simon Fraser University Canada

The impact of UK overseas aid on environmental protection and climate change adaptation and mitigation Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee,2011-06-29 The Environmental Audit Committee states that the UK should only provide funding for multilateral institutions with strong environmental credentials The current scale of the World Bank's lending to fossil fuel powered energy generation is unacceptable and the Committee urges the Government to be prepared to vote against new World Bank funding for high emissions coal fired power stations The profile of climate change has increased hugely but there is far less awareness of the importance of protecting biodiversity and ecosystems The Committee believes that the Department for International Development DFID needs to publish a clear strategy on its approach to environmental issues to ensure that it gives them sufficient priority in its programmes and expenditure Every effort must be made to help emerging economies leap frog fossil fuels and fuel their growth with clean energy instead High levels of consumption in the UK increases demand on production in poor countries which leads to degradation of their natural resources The report calls on the UK Government to ensure that economic activity in Britain does not cancel out or even reverse the positive impact that UK aid is having overseas
