Turkey's Water Policy Aysegul Kibaroglu, Waltina Scheumann, Annika Kramer, 2011-08-19 Water is a strategic natural resource of vital importance to all nations As such it has been the cause of several international disputes For Turkey especially water is crucial to social and economic development Turkey's current national water regime that emphasises water resources development and management for productive uses however faces growing environmental concerns and international criticism regarding transboundary water cooperation Furthermore EU accession requires Turkey to adopt an extensive and ambitious body of EU water law To understand Turkey's position to international water law the national policies and socio economic circumstances that impact water resources management need to be considered This book fills the existing knowledge gap through a broad perspective and analysis of the current state of Turkey's water policy and its management of both national and transboundary waters It is a unique undertaking that brings together Turkish and international authors practitioners and academics covering all aspects of water management

Contested Spaces in Contemporary Turkey Fatma Müge Göçek, 2017-06-30 The most significant political development of the post Cold War era was arguably the diffusion of neoliberalism across the globe Yet behind the illusion of abundance and development the rule of the market can be violent and destructive exploiting the environment dismissing cultural or historical conservation and ignoring individual rights This book now examines the emergence and consequences of neoliberalism in Turkey Of particular importance to the study are the contested spaces those sites of struggle and protest where the impact of this economic system is challenged or negotiated The contributors look beyond the neoliberal cities of the West Istanbul and Ankara to take into account the rest of the country and the groups that are most negatively affected such as the Kurds women and migrants Chapters consider the complexity of neoliberalism in Turkey where the power of the market the agenda of the state and significantly the country's past are shown to have shaped current economic practices and policies Contested Spaces in Contemporary Turkey sheds new light on the societal processes that are re shaping modern Turkey a subject which is of increasing importance considering Erdogan's new model for an Islam based state and in the aftermath of the July 2016 military coup attempt It is at the cutting edge of research on urban history and social space and will be a significant resource for scholars of Turkish Studies and Kurdish Studies The Making of Neoliberal Turkey Cenk Ozbay, Maral Erol, Z. Umut Turem, Aysecan Terzioğlu, 2016-09-17 Exploring the divergent aspects of the rule of neoliberalism in Turkey since 1980s each chapter in this book highlights a specific dimension of this socio economic process and together these essays construct a thorough examination of the whirlwind of changes recently experienced by Turkish society With particular focus on the new ways in which social power operates expert contributors explore new discourses and subjectivities around environmentalism health popular culture economic policies feminism and motherhood urban space and minorities class and masculinities By questioning the primary influence of the state in these micro political matters they engage with concepts of neoliberalism and governmentality to provide a fresh grounded and analytical perspective on the routes through which social power navigates the society This sustained examination of the new axes of power and subjectivity with a particular eye on the formation of new political spaces of governance and resistance deepens the analysis of Turkey's experiment with neoliberal globalization
