Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483-1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism

Churrasco Mary (Joy) Philip, John Arthur Nunes, Charles M. Collier, 2013-05-01 Just as a churrasco is a Brazilian barbecue of a variety of meats Churrasco skewers together an ebullient and eclectic assortment of theological texts from around the world to honor and celebrate one of Brazil's most eclectic and creative theologians Victor Westhelle Churrasco brings together different fields and disciplines transgressing boundaries and allowing them to seep into each other Though predominantly Lutheran the authors hail from various denominations and contexts Poised between in depth doctrinal and practically reflective essays are poetically creative pieces The contributions are exemplars of how to develop and foster language for God talk and how to appropriate our God talk in relationships with fellow human beings and with the environment The topical range is wide and spans from the theology of the cross to eschatology postcolonialism ecumenism science and religion the erotic otherness experience literature poetry and the reformer Martin Luther Unfettered by a common theme the essays nevertheless connect and weave a tapestry they raise key questions and they challenge theologians not only to rethink traditional concepts and contemporary views but also to reevaluate the task of theology itself Contributors include Walter Altmann Oswald Bayer Kathleen D Kadi Billman Luis H Dreher Philip Hefner Reinhard Hutter Claudia Jahn Antje Jackelén Musimbi Kanyoro Robert

Smith,2011-01-01 Like Leonard Smith's larger study Religion and the Rise of History this essay Martin Luther's Two Ways of Viewing Life asserts that Luther's well known at the same time simul or paradoxical way of viewing life does not capture Luther's thought as a whole because it does not represent his deeply incarnational and dynamic mystical and holistic particularizing and historical way of viewing life based on the power of the Word and the Spirit of God either in his own life or in human history Smith contends 1 that the best way to capture Luther's second basic way of thinking and of viewing life is through the connected prepositions connected especially for Lutherans in with and under 2 that this second basic way was based primarily on the Gospel of John and its great Prologue which shows how God is acting creating and redeeming and how Jesus is the Word become flesh and 3 that understanding both of Luther's ways of viewing life is helpful for understanding Lutheran education and a Lutheran ethos since the sixteenth century Since this brief essay is written primarily for a general audience it can easily be used as a text or supplementary reading for a class seminary or group discussion Cruciform Ecumenism Elizabeth Smith Woodard,2019-09-06 The truth claims of Christianity appear compromised by the division of Christ's followers into different denominations What keeps Christians separated retreating to their corners labeled Catholic Orthodox and various types of Protestant Elizabeth Smith Woodard accounts for Christian disunity in terms of ecclesiology episcopacy and apostolicity in brief Who are we Who is in charge And are we who we say we are Woodard argues that the controversial issues dividing Christians today stem from these questions of authority and identity What would it look like Woodard asks if Christians did not insist on making others more like us but instead worked toward all of us becoming more and more like Christ She answers that growing in such cruciformity should serve as the basis for unity Using recent unity achieving Anglican Lutheran discussions as a case study she examines the crucial intersection of ecclesiology episcopacy and apostolicity to argue that Christians growth in Christ's mission necessarily entails growing in unity and cruciformity

Armentrout,Robert Boak

Slocum,2003-09-01 In 2000 the Episcopal Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America began a relationship of full communion based on the document Called to Common Mission This momentous agreement bringing together the reformed and catholic traditions came after years of discussion and some resistance As the possibilities for living and working together evolve across all levels of these two churches lives there will inevitably arise many questions about the details from shared worship and mission initiatives to interchangeability in deploying clergy Discovering Common Mission is a collection of essays that address the issues Contributors Martin E Marty J Robert Wright Mark Dyer Jon S Enslin Reginald H Fuller George H Tavard Robert H Busch Parish study groups congregations exploring new relationships with their Lutheran or Episcopal neighbors and seminarians will find these essays helpful in understanding the issues of this ongoing relationship

Ecumenism, Memory, and German Nationalism, 1817-1917 Stan M. Landry,2014-02-11 Explores the relationship among the German confessional divide collective memories of religion and the construction of German national identity and difference It argues that nineteenth century proponents of church unity used and abused memories of Martin Luther and the Protestant Reformation to espouse German religious unity which would then serve as a catalyst for German national unification

Archeologies of Confession Carina L. Johnson,David M. Luebke,Marjorie Elizabeth Plummer,Jesse Spohnholz,2017-05-01 Modern religious identities are rooted in collective memories that are constantly made and remade across generations How do these mutations of memory distort our picture of historical change and the ways that historical actors perceive it Can one give voice to those whom history has forgotten The essays collected here examine the formation of religious identities during the Reformation in Germany through case studies of remembering and forgetting instances in which patterns and practices of religious plurality were excised from historical memory By tracing their ramifications through the centuries Archeologies of Confession carefully reconstructs the often surprising histories of plurality that have otherwise been lost or obscured

To Change the Church Ross Douthat,2019-03-19 A New York Times columnist and one of America s leading conservative thinkers considers Pope Francis s efforts to change the church he governs in a book that is must reading for every Christian who cares about the fate of the West and the future of global Christianity Rod Dreher author of The Benedict Option Born Jorge Mario Bergoglio in 1936 today Pope Francis is the 266th pope of the Roman Catholic Church Pope Francis s stewardship of the Church while perceived as a revelation by many has provoked division throughout the world If a conclave were to be held today one Roman source told The New Yorker Francis would be lucky to get ten votes In his concise rhetorically agile adroit perceptive gripping account The New York Times Book Review Ross Douthat explains why the particular debate Francis has opened over communion for the divorced and the remarried is so dangerous How it cuts to the heart of the larger argument over how Christianity should respond to the sexual revolution and modernity itself how it promises or threatens to separate the church from its own deep past and how it divides Catholicism along geographical and cultural lines Douthat argues that the Francis era is a crucial experiment for all of Western civilization which is facing resurgent external enemies from ISIS to Putin even as it struggles with its own internal divisions its decadence and self doubt Whether Francis or his critics are right won't just determine whether he ends up as a hero or a tragic figure for Catholics It will determine whether he's a hero or a gambler who's betraying both his church and his civilization into the hands of its enemies A balanced look at the struggle for the future of Catholicism To Change the Church is a fascinating look at the church under Pope Francis Kirkus Reviews Engaging and provocative this is a pot boiler of a history that examines a growing ecclesial crisis Washington Independent Review of Books Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs, 2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communiality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ's prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe Who Is the Church? Cheryl M. Peterson, 2013-05-01 Many congregations today focus on strategy and purpose what churches do but Cheryl Peterson submits that mainline churches need to focus instead on what or who they are to reclaim a theological rather than sociological understanding of themselves Peterson suggests that we understand the church as a people created by the Spirit to be a community and that we must claim a narrative method to explore the church's identity specifically the story of the church's origin in the Acts of the Apostles Finally here is a way of thinking of church that reconciles the best of competing models of church for the future of mainline Protestant theology

Your Faith, Your Life Jenifer Gamber, Bill Lewellis, 2017-11-01 The everything you need to know adult guide to the Episcopal Church This updated and revised edition incorporates new initiatives and changes in the Episcopal Church including marriage inclusion of LBGTQ persons Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's call to join the Jesus Movement and taking our faith out into the world A Leader Guide is included in this revised edition in addition to the transformation questions that follow each chapter Easy to read but with substance for newcomers adult formation groups and lifelong Episcopalians this book is for all who desire to know more about the Episcopal Church Ecumenical Future Braaten, Robert W. Jenson, 2004-01-15 Last year a group of sixteen theologians from various church traditions published In One Body through the Cross a landmark statement on the present state and future possibilities of modern ecumenism In order to help readers understand the true depth of this document also known as The Princeton Proposal The Ecumenical Future makes available the scholarly studies that stand behind it According to the editors of this timely and provocative volume the perception is widespread that the ecumenical train is stalling or has even run off the tracks In spite of significant gains in understanding between Catholics Orthodox and various Protestant denominations the church s present divisions are nothing less than a scandal Seen in the light of Jesus prayer in John 17 that all may be one ecumenism is neither an option nor a social or political football The fourteen essays in this book represent a focused examination of the issues that still divide and of the common ground still to be discovered
