Economic Planning in Transition János Mátyás Kovács, Bruno Dallago, 1990 Economic Planning in Transition János Kovács, Bruno Dallago, 1990 Economic Institutions, Markets, and Competition Bruno Dallago, Luigi Mittone, 1996 The decentralization of economic institutions in the West since the 1970s and in Eastern and Central Europe since 1989 is a significant and ongoing process which has implications for the nature of economic systems This major new book explores the importance of institutions in economic systems and challenges the traditional assumption of antagonism between tendencies to centralize and tendencies to decentralize An international group of authors from Europe and the US addresses different aspects of the centralization decentralization issues including privatization fiscal federalism the recent experience of Russia and Eastern Europe and the role of quasi markets and non profit organizations Drawing on theoretical approaches and empirical material they argue that the real achievement of efficiency requires the presence of certain key criteria in the structure of the market Every move towards decentralization such as privatization is shown to entail counter balancing moves towards centralization such as the introduction of improved central regulation Economic Institutions Markets and Competition will be welcomed for exploring the implications of centralization and decentralization in the transformation of economic systems and for emphasizing market structure as well as market competition Third World Planning Review ,1998 Capitalism, Institutions, and Economic Development Michael G. Heller, 2009-09-10 In this forthright challenge to relativist economic recipes for growth and culturalist incrementalist views in institutional economics Heller draws on Weber Schumpeter and Hayek to present a new universalistic vision of capitalism s depersonalized institutions as well as the ideological policies needed during constructed capitalist transitions Bibliographic Index ,1991 Ideology, Political Transitions and the City Aleksandra Djurasovic, 2016-06-10 Recent history has seen Bosnian and Herzegovinian BiH cities undergoing several transitions Their cities have developed under socialism 1945 1992 have suffered through the civil war during the 1990s and during the last twenty years have been undergoing a slow and multifaceted transition to an indeterminate end point Focusing on the post socialist postwar and neoliberal transitions experienced in BiH the book shows that planning systems deviated from control oriented and top down regulation to flexible approaches for more open for informal development The book analyzes several levels of planning related processes the former Yugoslavia BiH the city of Mostar and three urban zones the Industrial Zone Bi e Polje the City Zone Rondo and the Historic District and the Old Town Zone in order to offer insights into the new planning systems in the late phase of post socialist transition PAIS Bulletin ,1990-10 Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service, 1990 Index of Conference Proceedings British Library. Document Supply Centre, 1988 Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin ,1989 Global Geographies of Post-Socialist Transition Tassilo Herrschel, 2006-09-27 Since the formal raising of the Iron Curtain there has been much interest in post socialism and the process of post socialist transition This timely book provides a systematic review and analysis of the process of transition Herrschel explores recent theories concepts and debates on post socialism and the notion of transition provides a systematic topical account of post socialist transitions around the world as evidence by social economic and political processes examines case studies of post socialist transition in east and Central Europe the former Soviet Union Asia and South East Asia and Africa and Latin America brings together theoretical and practical aspects by examining what lessons can be learned from recent experiences Global Geographies of Post Socialist Transition provides a truly global comparative account of the meaning and processes of post socialist transition and will be an invaluable resource for all those interested in this area Asian Bibliography ,1993 Forthcoming
