Rugman, 2013-03-09 Multinational enterprises have become one of the distinctive institutions of our times Controversy over their economic and political effects and over appropriate public policy responses has become common in home and host countries and in international agencies Much of this debate is reminiscent of the role of large corporations generally particularly in their interregional and intergroup effects The multinational setting however would have raised distinctive issues even apart from the strong surges of nationalism and anti imperialism which have marked recent history Canada has a long and unusual experience with such enterprises Foreign control of capital in the nonfinancial industries manufacturing petroleum and gas other mining and smelting utilities merchandising was already 20 percent in 1930 and 25 percent in 1948 It rose to 36 percent by the late 1960s but has since receded to about 30 percent In 1975 fully 55 percent of the capital in manufacturing was controlled outside Canada as was 72 per cent of that in petroleum and gas and 58 percent in other mining These figures exceed those of other developed countries although there have been striking increases in recent decades About 80 percent of the direct investment capital in Canada is from the United States Recently Canadians have xi xii FOREWORD become aware of a surge of Canadian direct investment abroad which on a flow basis has exceeded inflows exclusive of retained earnings for most of the 1970s Building a Community-controlled Economy Paul Wilkinson, Jack Quarter, 1996-01-01 Focusing on four co operatives in the Evangeline region an Acadian community on Prince Edward Island the authors discuss why some co operatives succeed while others fail Canada Today , 1971 General Credit Control, Debt Management and Economic Mobilization United States. July 27-30, 1970 United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on Foreign Policy, 1970 Unlikely Insider Jack Austin, 2023-02-15 At a time when too many of the world's political leaders are consolidating power by playing on divisions and stoking fear Unlikely Insider a memoir by former federal cabinet minister and senator Jack Austin comes as a welcome reminder of the value of public service as a force for economic progress social justice and nation building With both historical perspective and an eye to the future Austin reflects on events and people whose impacts are still felt and on the enduring challenges of Canadian life Moving away from colonial domination of Indigenous Peoples navigating our pivotal relationship with the United States and engagement with China the nature and purpose of the Senate these remain timely concerns to which Austin has made significant contributions. Sharing insights into policy as well as into the personalities of colleagues and friends, Unlikely Insider paints vignettes of figures from Premier Zhou Enlai to Queen Elizabeth and recounts the author's travels with Pierre Trudeau after the prime minister's retirement. As a British Columbian, Austin worked to ensure that his province's perspectives and interests mattered in Ottawa; as someone who came from a disadvantaged background, he is sensitive to the need to make the country a place of fairness and opportunity for all. Unlikely Insider reminds Canadians that inclusion, regional, social, and demographic, makes our nation both stronger and more just.
