influence of the village squire disappeared But the coming of the railway and later the motor car provoked the most fundamental changes for the isolation of the village was ended The railway linked the villages of Surrey with London In exclusive housing estates of detached homes in culs de sac the exceptionally high status of the village was enhanced by the efforts of the newcomers to protect their new style of life through the most comprehensive countryside protection system in Britain This is a must read for students and scholars interested in British history and sociology      The Fortnightly ,1898
