music groups the fiddle remained integral to the musicking of some Black musicians in the rural South Featured in Fiddling Is My Joy is access to a comprehensive online eScholarship Companion that contains maps photographs audiovisual examples and other materials to expand the work of this enlightening and significant study To understand the immense history of fiddling DjeDje uses geography to weave together a common thread by profiling the lives and contributions of Black fiddlers in various parts of the rural South and Midwest including the mountains and along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts In addition to exploring the extent that musical characteristics and aesthetics identified with African and European cultures were maintained or reinterpreted in Black fiddling she also investigates how the sharing of musical ideas between Black and white fiddlers affected the development of both traditions Most importantly she considers the contradiction in representation Historical evidence suggests that the fiddle may be one of the oldest uninterrupted instrumental traditions in African American culture yet most people in the United States including African Americans do not identify it with Black music

Being Interrupted Al Barrett,Ruth Harley,2020-11-30 Beginning with a Street Nativity Play that didn't end as planned and finishing with an open ended conversation in the midst of the COVID 19 pandemic Being Interrupted locates an institutionally anxious Church of England within the wider contexts of divisions of race and class in the ruins of empire alongside ongoing gender inequalities the marginalization of children and catastrophic ecological breakdown In the midst of this bleak picture Al Barrett and Ruth Harley open a door to a creative disruption of the status quo from the outside in the breaking of the wild reality of the Kingdom of God Through careful and unsettling readings in Mark's gospel alongside stories from a multicultural outer estate in east Birmingham they paint a vivid picture of an alternative economy for the Church's life and mission which begins with transformative encounters with neighbours and strangers at the edges of our churches our neighbourhoods and our imaginations and offers new possibilities for repentance and resurrection Borne on Air Mary Clearman Blew,Phil Druker,2009 Third in the Elements series A collection of essays by a number of Idaho based authors including Kim Barnes Claire Davis Robert Wrigley Brandon Schrand and the late William Studebaker Their reflections guide the reader to uncommon insights and spark a new appreciation of how we interact with what envelops us Returning Home to Our Bodies Abigail Rose Clarke,2024-01-09 For readers of adrienne maree brown Staci K Haines and Robin Wall Kimmerer A body based healing model that interrogates what we've been wrongly taught about hierarchies of nature and the body and pushes back against the white supremacy colonialism patriarchy and capitalism embedded in modern embodiment practices Pushing back against a consumerist pleasure centric somatics industry that privileges product over process Abigail Rose Clarke reminds us that truly meaningful embodiment practice nurtures our relationships among self nature and community Combining the rigor of the scientific method with the poetry and lyricism of movement and somatic studies Clarke's somatic learning system The Embodied Life Method centers the body as a guide through today's most seemingly intractable social and environmental challenges reclaiming the body as a source of liberatory comfort in times of great uncertainty and yet possibility With tools and practices to help us better understand and dismantle the many ways our bodies are weaponized to serve domination systems topics covered include Harnessing the vitality of curiosity and experimentation Using nature as a guide to possibility Embracing the necessity of difference Exposing the lie of universal isolation Dismantling the fallacy of hierarchy Uncovering the truth of endless capacity Awe as a driving force for transformation With methods honed over decades of inquiry teaching and practice Returning Home to Our Bodies provides a lucid body based model of healing and restoration one that imagines a world beyond systems of domination marginalization and isolation to nurture embodied whole community liberation Disrupting Secondary STEM Education Margery Gardner, 2024-12-19 This volume brings into focus the pivotal educational years during adolescence when many learners are exposed to implicit and explicit messages that STEM is not a viable educational pathway for them Challenging this notion Disrupting Secondary STEM Education brings together a collective of critical educators who share what disruptive STEM teaching looks and feels like from an insider perspective as well as the ways they purposefully create curriculum to subvert existing structures that can confine learning Through disruptive STEM teaching a joy for learning is kindled as well as a sense of empowered criticality in students that can support their development as global citizens facing complex futures The collection shares stories across a spectrum of educators from those beginning their teaching journey to those who ve stood up against narrow curriculum and standardized testing for years in the capacity of both P 12 teachers and teacher educators The voices of these educators illustrate how the work of disruptive STEM teaching can be actualized within cohorts of future teachers achieved through early engagement with critical theories and generative field experiences that support and affirm a wide array of identities This book provides multiple theoretical and practical access points for the reader to understand the work of disruptive STEM teaching and offers a way forward for those interested in developing more critical curriculum in their own classrooms As such it will be important reading for postgraduate students and researchers in Social Justice Education and STEM Education as well as for in service educators
