An Economic History of the Silk Industry, 1830-1930 Giovanni Federico, 1997-05 An Economic History of the Silk Industry 1830 1930 first published in 1997 is an ambitious historical analysis of the development of a major commodity Dr Federico examines the rapid growth of the world silk industry from the early nineteenth century to the eve of the Great Depression of the 1930s Silk production grew as a result of Western industrialisation which in turn brought about increased incomes and thus increased demand for silk products The author documents the changes in methods of production and the technical progress that enabled the silk industry to cope with this new influx in demand Dr Federico then discusses the significant changes in the geographical distribution of world output that accompanied this growth In conclusion Federico points out that silk did indeed become the first example of a Japanese success story on the world market Italy and China both losing their markets due to Japan's large agricultural supply of raw material cocoons and its adroitness in importing and adopting Western technology The Oxford Handbook of the Italian Economy Since Unification Gianni Toniolo, 2013-03-07 The Oxford Handbook of the Italian Economy Since Unification provides for the first time a comprehensive quantitative new economic history of Italy British Economic History, 1700-1870 William Henry Bassano Court, 1971 An Introduction to Economic History Norman Scott Brien Gras, 1922 Global Economic History Tirthankar Roy, Giorgio Riello, 2024-09-05 Guiding the reader through the many guises of global economic history this book uncovers its key issues debates and subjects With contributions from leading scholars around the world it delves into the economic histories of Africa Europe Asia and the Americas from the 16th to the 20th centuries From the environment to The Great Divergence finance consumption trade industrialisation commodities and labour regimes it demonstrates the global nature of economic history and highlights how indispensable it is and has been Updated throughout this new edition boasts an expanded introduction and four new chapters on capitalism and political economy European empires and colonialism North Africa and the Middle East and the North American Economy A comprehensive introduction to global economic history this textbook provides students with a confident grasp of the field its key debates and essential issues The Economic History of Britain Since 1700 Roderick Floud, D. N. McCloskey, 1994-08-18 The most up to date and comprehensive survey of recent British economic history currently available The Pacific in the Age of Early Industrialization Kenneth Pomeranz, 2017-05-15 The essays selected for this volume show how the Pacific rapidly became part of an industrializing world Its raw materials notably rubber and copper were critical some of its handicraft industries were devastated by mechanized competition others survived and adapted contributing to distinctive patterns of industrialization that made Japan a new center of power and also laid the groundwork for later growth in Taiwan Korea and coastal China The Pacific coast of the Americas was also first drawn into an industrial world largely as an exporter of raw materials but North and South diverged rapidly portending futures even more different than those of Northeast and Southeast Asia By the 1930s when the uneven effects of industrialization would have much to do with plunging the Pacific into war one can already glimpse in outline the structural bases for many of the region's contemporary characteristics All this is set in context in the important introduction by Kenneth Pomeranz Courtaulds: an Economic and Social History Donald Cuthbert Coleman,1969 Historical background of a large enterprise of the textile industry in the UK refers to entrepreneurship of the courtauld family in the 19th century and development by the enterprise of the industrial production of silk crepe and synthetic fibres and covers investment technological change innovation working conditions of textile workers wages labour relations trade unionism sociological aspects etc Biography courtauld family British Multinational Banking, 1830-1990 Geoffrey Jones,1993 Analyses the emergence growth and performance from the 1830s to the present The Cambridge Economic History of Europe H.
