Development and Global Governance Roy Culpeper, Caroline Pestieau, 1996 Fifty years on the reform of the Bretton Woods institutions OCo the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund OCo has become a lively issue The G 7 industrialized countries took a first bite at this subject during their Halifax Summit and the debate continues A group of experts from all continents met in Ottawa to give challenging advice to the summiteers and beyond ranging from the view that the G 7 itself is in eclipse to an argument for turning the IMF into a central world bank This book contains the seven papers and a summary of the discussion from that meeting sponsored jointly by the International Development Research Centre and the North South Institute Eastern and Western Ideas for African Growth Kenichi Ohno, Izumi Ohno, 2013-05-29 The West and the East approach economic development differently The Europeans and Americans stress free and fair business climate promoting private activities generally without picking winners and improving governance East Asia is interested in achieving concrete results and projects rather than formal correctness prioritizing a few sectors for industrialization and eventual graduation from aid The West mostly shapes shifting strategies of the international donor community while the East has in reality made remarkable progress in industrial catch up The two approaches cannot be merged easily but they can be used in proper combination to realize growth and economic transformation This book proposes more dialogue and complementarity between the two in the development effort of Africa and other regions In this collected volume contributed by experts and practitioners from both East and West the need to introduce Eastern ideas to the global development strategy is emphasized Analysis of British and other Western donor policies is given while Japanese Korean and other Asian approaches are also explained with concrete examples The concept of governance for growth is presented and the impact of rising China on development studies is contemplated The practices of industrial policy dialogues and actions assisted by East Asian experts are reported from Tunisia Zambia Ethiopia Rwanda and others The book should be applicable to all donors institutions NGOs and business enterprises engaged in development cooperation Democracy and Civil Society in Asia: Volume 1 F. Quadir,J. Lele,2004-03-31 This edited volume brings together a number of well known scholars and activists from various parts of the world to present critical perspectives on recent and long term trends in the economic socio cultural and political life of the people of Asia and examines the policies and constraints faced by the nation states of the region It contributes to and enriches the current debates on globalization the prospects for democracy and sustainable human development The book offers an incisive assessment of the role of civil society in creating a democratic political culture in Asia Industrial Development Global Report 1997 United Nations Industrial Development

Organization,1997 The UNIDO Industrial Development Global Report provides annual description and analysis of industrial development on both a global and a regional scale The 1997 Report addresses the challenge of diminishing global economic expansion and the falling per capita income of many developing countries by focusing on the long term dynamics of investment and economic growth As its central message it emphasizes the crucial importance investment as a necessary condition for economic growth African Poverty at the Millennium Howard White,Tony Killick,Steve

Kayizzi-Mugerwa,2001-01-01 This explores the complex nature of poverty in Africa It identifies its political and social causes and assesses the impact of recent economic growth on the welfare of poor people To permanently reduce poverty it calls for realistic home grown policy initiative governmental commitment a realignment of the donor community s role and the development of institutional structures such as poverty monitoring systems that can hold the governments accountable
