The Political Impact of African Military Leaders Sabella Ogbobode Abidde,Felix Kumah-Abiwu,2023-06-28 This edited volume examines the cases of four African military leaders who had enormous impact on the continent and beyond These military officers and later heads of state Jerry Rawlings of Ghana Moammar Gaddafi of Libya Thomas Sankara of Burkina Faso and Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt were provocative and polarizing figures beloved domestically but mostly viewed with suspicion and hostility by foreign governments This volume studies these leaders as a group engaging in a critical but systematic examination of their personalities leadership styles official performance legacies and their continuing impact on the future and political destiny of the continent Providing a survey of controversial but important African political figures this volume will be of use to scholars and students in the social sciences especially those interested in African history African studies military science Black studies political science leadership studies and the politics of developing nations

Political Impact of the Sino-U.S. Oil Competition in Africa Didier T. Djoumessi,2009-01-15 The Political Impact of the Sino U S Oil Competition in Africa is an important contribution to the current discussions about the development and security implications of the US Sino competition for oil in Africa s petro states The book focuses on the impact of the growing role of China on these countries acceptance of Western policies in general and those of the U S in particular It uses recent U S attempts to promote democratic governance in countries like Chad Angola and Sudan to show how China s competing presence in these African petro states gradually reduced America s leverage over them It demonstrates that the level of these African countries vulnerability to Washington s policies depends on the intensity of the Sino U S competition within their oil sector The book also contributes to the corpus of theories on resource curse and interdependence through a rigorous review of existing literature which exposes the inadequacies of existing analyses and proffers new theoretical insights and methods of measuring inter state relations

Unmasking Singapore's 2020 General Elections: Covid-19 And The Evolving Political Landscape Bilveer Singh, Walid Jumblatt Abdullah, Felix Thiam Kim Tan, 2020-12-29 On 10 July 2020 Singapore held its 18th general elections in history and the 13th since independence in 1965 The ruling People s Action Party PAP once again retained its supermajority by capturing 83 out of the 93 seats controlling 89.2 percent of parliamentary seats In spite of a changing social political and economic landscape Singapore is still very much identified as an illiberal democracy that has somehow thrived over the years As the general elections was held during the COVID 19 pandemic there were expectations that Singaporeans would overwhelmingly vote for the PAP government as the country was facing a serious crisis of a generation The flight to safety mode that some had expected in an election during a crisis however did not materialise In the end Singaporean voters decided to send a strong warning to the PAP that not all was well with the opposition achieving its strongest gains since 1965 capturing 10 seats and an additional two Non constituency Member of Parliament seats The PAP s total votes dropped from 69.9 percent in 2015 to 61.2 percent in 2020 The rise of a credible opposition has also further strengthened Singaporeans resolve to ensure that a fair playing field exists in the political realm With the highest voter turnout since independence many have made it known that their voices mattered The PAP also saw some cracks in its ranks with some former cadre members and supporters being critical of the new fourth generation team Against this backdrop this book hopes to address the following questions What were the key issues in the general elections Who were the main contenders in the polls What accounted for the PAP s continued hold on power in Singapore Why did the opposition perform much better than in the previous general elections What are the main implications of the 2020 general elections results for the PAP opposition and the broader society at large How far have electoral issues shifted from bread and butter concerns to much broader topics of social injustices and diversity of voices in parliament What were some of the crucial talking points during this election Last but not least how far did social media and internet campaigning determine the outcome of this election
