El Monserrate Segundo:

El Monserrate segundo Cristóbal de Virués, Mary Fitts Finch, 1984      Myth and Identity in the Epic of Imperial Spain Elizabeth B. Davis, 2000

The first in depth analysis of some of the most important epic poems of the Spanish Golden Age Myth and Identity in the Epic of Imperial Spain breathes new life into five of these long neglected texts Elizabeth Davis demonstrates that the epic must not be overlooked for doing so creates a significant gap in one's ability to appraise not only the cultural practice of the imperial age but also the purest expression of its ideology Davis's study focuses on heroic poetry written from 1569 to 1611 including Alonso de Ercilla's La Araucana undeniably the most significant epic poem of its time Also included are Diego de Hojeda's La Christiada Juan Rufo's La Austriada Lope de Vega's Jerusalén Conquistada and Cristóbal de Virués's Historia del Monserrate Examining these epics as the major site for the construction of cultural identities and Renaissance nationalist myths Davis analyzes the means by which the epic constructs a Spanish sense of self Because this sense of identity is not easily susceptible to direct representation it is often derived in opposition to an other which serves to reaffirm Spanish cultural superiority The Spanish Christian caballeros are almost always pitted against Amerindians Muslims Jews or other adversaries portrayed as backward or heathen for their cultural and ethnic differences The pro Castilian elite of sixteenth century Spain faced the daunting task of constructing unity at home in the process of expansion and conquest abroad yet ethnic and regional differences in the Iberian Peninsula made the creation of an imperial identity particularly difficult The epic as Davis shows strains to convey the overriding image of a Spain that appears more unified than the Spanish empire ever truly was An important reexamination of the Golden Age canon Myth and Identity in the Epic of Imperial Spain brings a new twist to the study of canon formation While Davis does not ignore more traditional approaches to the literary text she does apply recent theories such as deconstruction and feminist criticism to these poems resulting in an innovative examination of the material Confronting such issues as canonicity gender the relationship between literature and Golden Age culture and that between art and power this publication offers scholars a new perspective for assessing Golden Age and Transatlantic studies

Queering the Medieval Mediterranean: Transcultural Sea of Sex, Gender, Identity, and Culture, 2021-07-26

In ten essays authored by an international team of scholars this volume explores queer readings of Western and Eastern Mediterranean Europe Northern Africa Islam and Arabic traditions The contributors enter into a dialogue comparing cases from opposite sides of the Mediterranean in order to analyze the forgotten exchange of sexualities that was brought forth through the Mediterranean and its bordering landmasses during the Middle Ages This collection questions the hypothesis that distinct cultures treated sexuality and the other differently The volume initiates the conversation around queerness and sexuality on these trade routes and problematizes the differences between various Mediterranean cultures in order to argue that through both queerness and sexuality neighboring civilizations had access to and knowledge of common shared experiences Contributors are Sahar Amer Israel Burshatin Robert L A Clark Denise K Filos

An Eye on Race John Beusterien, 2006 Racism in the modern nation state is based on a Continental and an American model In the Continental model the racist differentiates the raced individual by religion Because this raced individual is indistinguishable from the racist a narrative is written to see that individual In turn in the American model the racist differentiates the raced individual based on skin color Because the sign of difference is obvious no story is written to justify racist thinking By 1550 both models form part of imperial thinking in the Iberian world system An Eye on Race Perspectives from Theater in Imperial Spain describes these models at work in imperial Spanish theater The study reveals how the display of blood in drama serves the Continental model and how the display of skin color serves the American model It also elucidates how Miguel de Cervantes celebrates a subaltern aesthetic as he discards both racial paradigms John Beusterien is Associate Professor of Spanish at Texas Tech University The Encyclopedia Britannica ,1911
