Emerging Europe and the Great Recession Daniel Dăianu, 2018-10-09 This volume adds to the existing literature on the Great Recession and the variety of current troubles in the European Union by providing the views of someone who has been in the trenches at national and international levels and who has extensive policy and academic experience Furthermore it deals inter alia with issues of huge importance such as North South and East West cleavages in the EU problems in the Eurozone the diminishing resilience of systems and the rise of a New Protectionism The book voices concerns and dilemmas from the perspective of new EU Member States in a period of radical uncertainty and painful policy trade offs Its underlying paradigm is that markets are essential for entrepreneurship and economic dynamism but that market failures and global finance can cause a lot of misery in society unless they are reined in This volume will be of interest to all those looking for insights into the challenges that the EU the Eurozone and emerging European economies have faced during the past decade and on what may lie ahead Its target audience is policy making and business circles academia research outfits and NGOs

How Emerging Europe Came Through the 2008/09 Crisis Mr.Bas B. Bakker,Mr.Christoph Klingen,2012-08-31 Emerging Europe was particularly hard hit by the global financial crisis but a concerted effort by local policymakers and the international community staved off impending financial meltdown and laid the foundations for renewed convergence with western Europe This book written by staff of the IMF s European Department that worked on the region at the time provides a unique account of events the origins of the crisis and the precrisis policy setting the crisis trigger and the scramble to avoid the worst the stabilization and recovery the remaining challenges and the lessons for the future Five regional chapters provide the analytics to put events into perspective Dedicated chapters for all 19 countries of the region dig deeper into the idiosyncrasies of each economy and provide extensive economic data A final chapter distills the lessons from the overall regional experience and the wide intraregional diversity Taken together they make this book an indispensable reference for economic scholars of the region and beyond

The European Union and the Challenges of the New Global Context Ileana Tache,2015-09-04 This book investigates the new challenges confronted by the EU as an international actor within the context of recent economic and political developments with particular attention to common foreign and security policies the appraisal of development aid policies EU sanctions in the post Soviet space as harder instruments complementing the toolbox of the EU soft power polity preferential trade agreements as a key element of EU external trade policy external relations of the EU international aspects of the monetary policy of the ECB in the context of the financial and sovereign debt crisis massive capital flows and the boom bust cycle in the emerging Europe and the macroeconomic modelling of the relationship between the EU and the rest of the world Thoroughly up to date the contributions to this volume offer analyses of recent tense global events including EU responses to the uprising in Arab countries and the Ukrainian conflict The book concludes with the proposal of a unique macroeconomic model in which the EU is conceptualised as constituting a block against the rest of the world but also a two country model in itself made up of Eurozone and non Eurozone members

European Union and New Regionalism Mario Telò,2013-03-28 Stemming from an international and multidisciplinary network of leading specialists this best selling text is fully updated with new chapter additions With the first edition prepared at the end of the last century this new edition anticipates the world of regionalism as we move further into this millennium This new edition offers A vigorous response to conventional wisdom on EU international identity An exploration of key issues of regionalism versus globalization and the potential for world economic and political governance through regionalism A key resource for postgraduate or undergraduate study and research of international relations European studies comparative politics and international political economy Taking into account the expanded European Union the volume comprises contributions from established scholars in the field to highlight external relations in the framework of the development of regional arrangements within the globalized world of the 21st century

European Union and New Regionalism Professor Mario Telò, 2014-08-28 Stemming from an international and multidisciplinary network of leading specialists this best selling text is fully updated with new chapter additions With the first edition prepared at the end of the last century and the second edition adding inter regional relations this new edition focuses on competing models of regional cooperation within a multipolar world and the role of the European Union

The Emerging Euro-Mediterranean System Dimitris Xenakis, Dimitris N. Chrysoschoou, 2001 Focusing on the principal challenges facing the Euro Mediterranean partnership since the signing of the Barcelona Declaration in November 1995 this study assesses past European policies towards the region

New Regionalism and the European Union Alex Warleigh-Lack, Nick Robinson, Ben Rosamond, 2011-06-01 The debates on regionalism have been polarized between European Union EU scholars and non EU scholars with the assumption being that regionalism within the EU and other regions of the world are quite distinct with little to be learnt from dialogue with each other This book challenges such assumptions and calls for a genuine debate between scholars of regionalism This book demonstrates that more can and needs to be learned about regional integration all over the world through comparison and reflection on specific regional trends Beginning with a theoretically driven introduction leading experts in the field are brought together to offer a series of case studies on regional integration within Latin America Africa Asia North America and Europe In Part III the authors investigate the links between the EU and selected other regional organisations and processes exploring the dynamics through which these interregional relations are developing and the implications they have for the study of contemporary regionalism regionalisation both inside and beyond the continent of Europe The conclusions set out a challenging research agenda for comparative studies in the field Addressing one of the under explored aspects of EU studies the EU s coexistence with other pan continental regional organisations in the European continent this book will be of interest to students and scholars of regionalism IPE European Studies and international politics

Europe's new defense ambitions implications for NATO, the US, and Russia Peter van Ham, 2000 At the European Union s Helsinki summit of December 1999 European leaders took a decisive step toward the development of a new Common European Security and Defense Policy aimed at giving the EU a stronger role in international affairs backed by a credible military force This Marshall Center Paper analyzes the processes leading to Helsinki by examining why and how this new European consensus on defense issues came about It takes the pulse of the EU s emerging defense policy and touches upon the main controversies and challenges that still lie ahead      Patterns of Disintegration.

The EU and the Emerging European Order Federico Nicolaci, 2012-08-15 Paraphrasing Marx one could say that a spectre is hunting Europe the spectre of disintegration The crisis of the Monetary Union the pinnacle of European integration seems to call into question the core assumption of more than half a century of Europe's integration history the functionalist idea that economic integration would be self sustaining and would ultimately lead to the emergence of a political community This book presents evidence suggesting that the current crisis is not an accidental snag but the collapse of the ideological architecture of Europe showing that the disintegrating dynamics threatening the EU are structurally determined      The Cambridge History of the European Union: Volume 2, European Integration Inside-Out Mathieu Segers, Steven Van Hecke, 2023-11-09 Volume II examines the history of the European Union from an inside out perspective focusing on the internal developments that shaped the European integration process Split into three parts Part I covers the principles that have defined European integration exploring the treaties and their changes through time with Brexit being a core milestone Part II considers the different instruments within the architecture of European integration with special focus on the development of policies the euro and enlargement Part III concentrates on the various narratives surrounding European integration in particular the concepts goals and ideas that both spoke and failed to speak to the hearts and minds of Europeans This includes the longue durée concept peace European culture the absence of religion prosperity and a lack of solidarity and democracy      The New Politics of Energy Security in the European Union and Beyond Andrea Prontera, 2017-05-18 Combining theoretical reflections and empirical insights from paradigmatic case studies in the area of external energy governance pipeline politics Liquefied Natural Gas development and offshore petroleum policy and politics this ground breaking study demonstrates that a distinctive and new politics of energy security is definitively emerging in the European Union Innovative not only in regard to the case studies presented which include the Caspian region the Baltic Meditterrean countries Central Asia and EU Russia relations but also in regard to the analytical framework adopted an International Political Economy approach informed by an historical institutional perspective the book challenges the common view of the depoliticisation of energy security supported by the mainstream market approach and the power politics and zero sum game view supported by the geopolitical perspective This book places the study of EU energy politics in the broader evolving context of global energy markets and explores the complex interactions between EU and national political dynamics and between energy security and environmental concerns at the local level      Subregional Cooperation in the New Europe Andrew Cottey, 1999-04-12 Based on a major international research project undertaken by The Institute for East West Studies this book provides the first comprehensive analysis of an important but little explored feature of post Cold War Europe the emergence of subregional cooperation in areas such as the Barents the Baltic Sea Central Europe and the Black Sea It analyses the role of subregional cooperation in the new Europe provides detailed case studies of the new subregional groups and examines their relations with NATO and the European Union

The A to Z of the European Union Joaquín Roy, Aimee Kanner, 2009-09-17 Over half a century old and continuing to grow in strength and authority the European Union consists of 25 member states with more on the waiting list and a population of 450 million people Its influence in foreign and domestic affairs and human rights and law reaches far beyond its earlier fields of trade and politics From the initial ideas about integration leading to the Treaty of Paris and the creation of the European Coal and Steel Community to the current reflection on the Treaty establishing a Constitution for Europe The A to Z of the European Union encompasses the most basic elements of the EU and the components that have emerged as a result of them Through the use of maps photographs a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on topics such as leaders personalities institutions enlargements member states internal policies external relations basic theories treaties and law this dictionary tells a clear and complete story about the European Union that will assist those with greater interest in understanding it

New Trends in Intra-European Union Mobilities Anastasia Bermudez, Laura Oso, 2021-09-05

Mobilities within the European Union EU have changed significantly since the classical intra regional migrations of the 1950s 1970s After a period of reduced less visible flows in the 21st century mobilities increased again first linked to EU expansion towards the East and from 2008 with renewed South North flows following the impact of the Great Recession on Southern European countries It is in this context that the current volume explores how these recent migrations reflect new and more complex patterns of mobility increasingly uncertain and unstable involving both natives and naturalised migrants It also seeks to unpack the multiple connections between these new migration systems and other systems affecting social protection gender and citizenship and how these intersect with other factors such as class age race and ethnicity The different chapters of the book examine this covering a wide variety of cases including intra EU flows from Portugal and Spain recent Spanish and Latin American migrants in London Paris and Brussels and Romanian migration to the UK and France thus adding to its richness This book will be of interest to academics researchers and advanced students of Sociology Anthropology Geography Gender Studies Public Policy and Politics It was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Debating Political Identity and Legitimacy in the European Union Sonia Lucarelli, Furio Cerutti, Vivien Ann Schmidt, 2011

The European Union and Conflict Prevention Emma J. Stewart, 2006 The book examines the evolution of EU conflict prevention as an internal EU process and as an area of external cooperation with the UN OSCE and NATO Conflict prevention has emerged as a prominent EU policy in the post Cold War era Yet how suited is the organisation to practice conflict prevention and what does the record of cooperation with other key European organisations tell us about the EU s external priorities The book critically analyses the EU s policy and outcomes to date concluding that conflict prevention is underdeveloped by the EU and is in danger of being marginalised in favour of shorter term crisis management Moreover EU external cooperation reinforces this the priority is cooperation in crisis management with the UN and NATO rather than

longer term cooperation with the OSCE
