R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Blood on the Stage, 1925-1950 Amnon Kabatchnik, 2010 In this volume Amnon Kabatchnik provides an overview of more than 150 important and memorable theatrical works of crime and detection between 1925 and 1950 Each entry includes a plot synopsis production data and the opinions of well known and respected critics and scholars The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: 1900-1950 George Watson, 1969 The Reader's Adviser and Bookman's Manual, 1960 Contemporary Dramatists, 1982 General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. perspectives on the individual reputations of a number of British writers and their specific works often down to the particular lines in plays and poems The reader whose interest is limited for example to the singular reputation of a Dickens novel or a Byron poem may find the book functional for its broad bibliographical qualities For cultural studies students Americanists and others the book will demonstrate the complexity of cultural appropriation and the patterns of nineteenth century American resistance and harmonization The Illustrated London News ,1844
