Russell Shaw, David Byers

Emmaus Road Churches Making Their Way Forward:

Emmaus Road Donna Sinclair, 2003 Emmaus Road Donna Sinclair, Christopher White, 2003 Using as their guide the story of the two disciples who meet the risen Christ on the road to Emmaus Donna Sinclair and Christopher White move congregations beyond a search for silver bullet solutions beyond a preoccupation with technique and programming beyond a hope in simplistic formulas for success to the qualities of character and faith that will help congregations in the years ahead Focussing on the healing power of community the nurture and comfort of study the gift of sacrament and the power of outreach Sinclair and White offer to readers what those first disciples experienced on the road to Emmaus an encounter with hope Seismic Shifts Christopher White, 2006 The Hell Jesus Never Intended Keith Wright, This book is a passionate and reasoned plea for re examining the traditional teaching that unbelievers are consigned to eternal punishment in Hell Instead The Hell Jesus Never Intended returns to a concept of Hell that is more in line with our ancestors and their teachings

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Becoming a New Church Malcolm L. Warford, 2009-10-01 Since church membership has entered into a period of rapid decline the church is being challenged to renew and redefine itself and its ministries by liberating itself from past constraints and crafting new ways of being the church Becoming A New Church offers Malcolm Warford s well reasoned articulate reflections on what meeting this challenge means For Warford renewal is not a matter of restoring what already has been but being committed to thoughtful faith based innovation He invites us to think of ourselves as pilgrims in a community where there are no clearly marked road signs but where we have a shared memory of Jesus who made us free to live open to the world and its potential for transformation Quill & Quire, 2003 From Truth and truth Francis Etheredge, 2016-04-26 What emerges in this second book of the trilogy is that the very ground and content of experience is richer than what can be reduced to a particular account of it As such dialogue develops from the natural diversity of what is of faith and what is of reason Neither faith nor reason however originates from experience rather both are witnessed in experience In other words taking up questions about the nature of man whether philosophically psychologically or in terms of social structures manifests both a variety of points of departure and at the same time the manifold conversations that are possible in the field of culture Focusing particularly on the work of St John Paul II the first essay examines the answer of reason and the answer of faith to the same question What is man Conversion too entails an unexpected relationship to natural truth which in its own way is both adequate and inadequate to salvation Communication as it were runs throughout these essays however in particular there is a need to enrich our human understanding of the process of coming to ourselves with the insights of spiritual discernment Axiomatically however it is possible to say that just as we come to exist through a relationship to others so our healing and holiness are manifest through our relationship to others in the Other Furthermore while it is ultimately true that we exist as individually rooted in the social structure of our origin and the times in which we live we need to critically participate in the dialogue which identifies our common reality and not live our lives covered in psycho social labels of one kind or another As a whole then there is an incomparable range and depth to dialogue Indeed given the many critical situations in the world it is increasingly indispensable and essential that humanity choose the incredible wealth of dialogue in contrast to the possibility of a polarised and conflictual structure between people and peoples

The Church in the Face of Crises and Challenges over the Centuries Marcin Nabozny, Marcin Wysocki, 2023-06-12 Challenges crises and difficult experiences are an integral part of our lives and an inherent element of every human being's existence in addition to being ingrained in the functioning of organisations institutions and nations On many occasions humankind has failed to confront them resulting in the real dramas that we witness on the pages of history Fortunately challenges crises and difficult situations have often been lessons from which appropriate conclusions have been drawn thanks to which it was possible to create a better future In the history of the Church from its very beginning challenges have been an integral part of working towards a better tomorrow a better version of oneself and the reality around us and the Church herself Paradoxically what was intended to weaken or even destroy the faith became an impulse for its spread Crisis became the cause of consolidation and development And so over the centuries the Church has faced crises caused by schisms divisions unsuitable people in ecclesiastical offices as well as challenges posed by the surrounding world political systems and conflicts of human origin Owing to this publication the reader will be able to learn about various types of crises and challenges in order to draw conclusions from them to appreciate the history of the Church through a better knowledge thereof and all this in order to create a better future The subject of the book concerns crises and challenges during various periods in the history of the Church up until modern times including the crisis caused by the Second World War or communism in Central and Eastern Europe

Bouncing Forwards Patrick Regan, Liza Hoeksma, 2024-07-18 Nobody is immune from the storms of life Patrick's book is a lifeboat while the waves are crashing but it is much more than that Bouncing Forwards is a guide that helps us to navigate through tricky waters so that we become better equipped for the journey of life It's an honest wise and practical handbook for growing in resilience I can't recommend it highly enough CATHY MADAVAN AUTHOR OF IRREPRESSIBLE Bouncing Forwards offers hope to those who're facing battles such as mental or physical health challenges bereavement the loss of cherished dreams or recovery from trauma Patrick Regan reveals his vulnerability as he shares that making peace with his own ongoing anxiety only came after a period of intense physical emotional and spiritual pain There is always the temptation to wait for the day when all will be well Yet becoming preoccupied with the future may well mean missing out on what's happening in our lives in the here and now Is it possible to be OK even when life isn't Can we thrive not just once we've come through adversity but right there in the midst of it Exploring resilience acceptance and emotional agility Patrick encourages us to believe we can find meaning in some of life's toughest moments and the faith to journey on

Revitalizing Catholicism in America Russell Shaw, David Byers, 2023-04-24 The Catholic Church in the United States has reached a tipping point The crisis is painfully visible in the sharp declines that have already taken place in many essential areas of Church life from Catholic marriages and infant baptisms to Sunday Mass attendance and the number of priests Meanwhile the number of semi active and inactive Catholics is rising and the number of ex Catholic nuns is skyrocketing What happens in the immediate future will determine how the Church in America will emerge from this crisis a smaller but more committed body of faithful Christians or a stagnant inward looking remnant The American Catholic laity must decide whether they will be passive onlookers or will choose to act Revitalizing Catholicism in America provides nine practical action items every faithful Catholic can undertake nine steps which all together will form the building blocks of a renewed Catholic subculture No matter what your specific gift or walk of life you have a role to play in revitalizing Catholicism in America This book will show you how The Living Church, 1944 Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly, 1889
