Anne Marie Baylouny

Employment Creation And Social Protection In The Middle East And North Africa:

Employment Creation and Social Protection in the Middle East and North Africa Economic Research Forum for the Arab Countries, Iran, and Turkey, 2002 Describes and analyzes critical aspects of the labor market and social protection in the Arab world The Economic Development Process in the Middle East and North Africa Alessandro Romagnoli, Luisa Mengoni, 2013-11-12 Offering a comprehensive analysis of the development of economies in the Middle East and North Africa over the past half century this book charts the progress of these countries through an examination of an Islamic model of economic development reform processes and economic integration Far from being a simple process economic development in the Middle East and North Africa is dependent on the interaction of a set of changing systems including international relations the political regime economy and society By analysing these interdependent factors The Economic Development Process in MENA seeks to provide answers to the most pressing issues facing the economies in this area Providing an interpretation of regional development in light of dialectics between state and society this book will be of value to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East Economics and International Relations Infrastructure and Employment Creation in the Middle East and North Africa Antonio Estache, Elena Ianchovichina, Robert Bacon, Ilhem Salamon, 2013-02-20 Infrastructure has a substantial role to play in creating new jobs in the Middle East and North Africa but its potential varies greatly across countries and sectors and will not suffice to resolve the mounting unemployment problem in the region

Privatizing Welfare in the Middle East Anne Marie Baylouny, 2010 Examines the effects of neoliberal economic reforms on middle classes in the Middle East Based on fieldwork and interviews with members non members and policymakers this title provides fresh insights into democratization liberalization and civil society The Routledge Handbook on the Middle East Economy Hassan Hakimian, 2021-07-08 This Handbook captures the salient features of Middle Eastern economies and critically examines the public policy responses required to address the challenges and opportunities across the region Bringing together wide ranging perspectives from carefully selected and renowned subject specialists the collection fills a gap in this relatively young and growing academic field Combining discussion of theory and empirical evidence the book maps out the evolution of Middle East economics as a field within area studies and applied development economics Presented in six thematic sections the book enables the reader to gain a comprehensive understanding of the region's main economic themes and issues Growth and development in comparative perspectives Labour force and human development Natural resources resource curse and trade Poverty inequality and social policy Institutions and transition to democracy Corruption conflict and refugees Providing an overview of the principal economic problems policies and performances relating to the countries in the Middle East and North Africa region this collection will be a key resource for upper level undergraduates graduates and scholars with an interest in Middle East economics applied development economics development studies and area studies Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown, 2023-05-01 In recent decades the culture society politics and economics of Bahrain have been transformed driving its global ambitions while retaining to a degree the rule of law and cosmopolitanism Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain examines the transformation of Bahrain from the 1930s from a regional trading port and then an important oil producer into the financial hub for the Gulf and into a global centre of Islamic finance It focuses on the changes and tensions that transformation brought to Bahrain s political legal economic religious and social structures In this book Rajeswary Brown explores the rising force of youth populism driven by the persistence of poverty and unemployment notably among rural Shi ite communities and unemployed middle class youth as well as examining Bahrain s skillful reconciliation of the demands of Islamic faith expressed in the Sharia to the requirements of modern financial capitalism In this Bahrain s experience can be set against the modern history of much of the rest of the Middle East most strikingly with respect to the position of Islamic charities notably in Syria comparisons of which are fully explored here Proceedings of The 6th MAC 2016 Group of authors,2016-02-16 Proceedings of The 6th MAC 2016 The 6th Multidisciplinary Academic Conference in Prague 2016

Challenges of Economic Development in the Middle East and North Africa Region Julia Devlin,Julia C. Devlin,2010 This book surveys major economic issues in the development of countries in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region since World War II It presents a framework of analysis highlighting underlying continuities in the region s approach to issues of growth management of oil and natural resources post conflict environments progress in trade liberalization and regional integration the use of industrial policy labor market adjustment and unemployment educational attainment and poverty incidence At the same time this book focuses on emerging differences across countries in the region in the prevailing approach to addressing such challenges most notably between the economies of the Gulf Cooperation Council and other MENA countries This book also incorporates a discussion of tools and methods used by development practitioners and briefly examines issues of aid effectiveness The approach used is intended to appeal to a wide audience including students of economic development political scientists and development practitioners Institutional Reform & Economic Development in Egypt Noha El-Mikawy,Heba Ahmad Handoussa,2002 This pioneering volume addresses the key issue of the relationship between politics and economics with special reference to Egypt in the 1990s Drawing on the expertise of both political scientists and economists it assembles an impressive array of data including detailed opinion surveys to demonstrate conclusively that political and economic reform need to proceed in tandem In an insightful analysis of the Egyptian legislature the authors draw attention to a fundamental aspect of institutional reform namely the informational and knowledge base of legislation as well as the organizational infrastructure of policy formulation As regards Egypt s economic performance since the early 1990s they focus in particular on impediments to improved export performance and offer solid recommendations as to how such obstacles might be overcome This stimulating study makes a timely contribution to political economic analysis which may at the same time prove helpful in the formulation of new policies Facing

Barriers Vered Kraus, Yuval P. Yonay, 2018-03-22 Palestinian women have slowly become active in the formal labor market in Israel In this book Vered Kraus and Yuval Yonay describe and analyse the labor experience of these Palestinian women and explain why Palestinian and Jewish women have different rates and outcomes in the labor market Challenging popular views that ascribe these differences to Arab culture and Islam they instead find that it is state policies and widespread discrimination that hinder Palestinian women s participation and success By including the various Palestinian sub groups Muslims Bedouins Druze Christians non citizen residents of Jerusalem this book shows how the specific life circumstances of the women from these subgroups affect their employment and achievements The book thus enriches the acute discussion on the labour market experiences of Muslim and Arab women in the Middle East and North Africa and in advanced industrialized societies

Nonfinancial Defined Contribution Pension Schemes in a Changing Pension World Robert Holzmann, Edward Palmer, David Robalino, 2012-06-21 Pensions are under scrutiny worldwide in view of increasing life expectancy and adverse demographics This volume offers an overview of unfunded individual accounts introduced in the mid 1990s in Italy Latvia Poland and Sweden in order to assure a successful adulthood and an even better start for the off springs

Gender, Textile Work, and Tunisian Women's Liberation Claire Oueslati-Porter, 2019-09-14 In this book author Claire Oueslati Porter describes her field research in Binzart Tunisia s sprawling factory zone and in the surrounding city She blends conventional ethnography with auto ethnography leading readers inside a textile factory among the women and men workers who navigate intensely gendered labor While there is pressure to adhere to gendered codes of behavior in the factory some women engage in subversive gender performances Oueslati Porter elucidates a phenomenon that is oft neglected in studies of women in the Middle East and North Africa gender queerness Further Oueslati Porter explores her own perceptions of being a researcher while also being a daughter in law in a Tunisian family and a mother to a toddler aged son while conducting field work This ethnography centralizes women s waged and unwaged labor in the understanding of women s rights Gender Textile Work and Tunisian Women s Liberation will be of interest to students and scholars of anthropology sociology women s gender and sexuality studies LGBTQ studies and Middle East and North Africa studies

Arab Regionalism Silvia Ferabolli, 2014-09-25 Arab regionalism details and examines the power relations involved in the making of an Arab region On an empirical level this book concentrates on the drawing of topographic and ideational boundaries in the Arab region on Arab regional organizations on the functional cooperation among Arab states and institutions and on the socio cultural infra structure that supports the Arab region making process with a strong focus on post 1990 dynamics On a theoretical level this work makes a case for the analytical autonomy of Arab regionalism as opposed to regionalism in the Middle East or in the Mediterranean and for the necessity of approaching it as an actual process instead of a failed project The attitude of debasement and erasure towards Arab regionalism that is common place in the field of regional studies is replaced in this book for the acknowledgment that there is much more political coordination economic cooperation and social integration in the Arab region than has previously been assumed Providing a fresh perspective on Arab regionalism this book will be an essential resource for scholars and researchers with an interest in Regionalism Middle Eastern Politics and International Relations A Political Economy of Arab Education Mohamed Alaa

Abdel-Moneim,2015-09-07 The failure of reform policies in areas of critical importance to Arab populations such as health and education played a central role in igniting the Arab Awakening yet this policy perspective has been largely absent from recent studies of the region Arab regimes most reliant on repression to guarantee their survival were also those most vulnerable to mass politics Where threats to regime survival have been limited so have more meaningful reforms been possible finding an alternative to political change through focusing on soft policy areas such as education A Political Economy of Arab Education offers a comprehensive analysis of K 12 education systems in Arab countries deepening understanding of their administrative structures and outcomes and exploring how political considerations have impacted the ability of Arab regimes to engage in meaningful reform Taking a unique comparative political economy perspective it examines the reasons behind policy stagnation in Arab countries addressing the effects of size history and political stability on the design and implementation of policies and administrative structures Its informed analysis and comparison of education systems provides new insight into Arab regimes and highlights factors pulling them towards either stagnation or reform Examining the sustainability of reforms and establishing the benefits of engaging in meaningful change this book sheds light on why some regimes survived the Arab Spring while others crumbled and formulates convincing predictions on the potential for future regime change in the region This book will be of key interest to students and scholars of Middle Eastern Studies International and Comparative Education and Development Studies The Saudi Arabian Economy

Mohamed A Ramady,2005-12-05 In this unique text Mohamed Ramady develops a framework for studying fundamental challenges to the modern Saudi Arabian economy Public and private sector topics include The hydrocarbon and minerals sector including a new model of mining privatization and cooperation The impact of small and medium sized businesses The evolving role of family businesses The growing role of women in the Saudi economy Shifting trade patterns The Saudi offset technology transfer program The author offers an analysis of key challenges facing the Saudi economy including the potential costs and benefits of privatization globalization and eventual membership in the WTO Employment education economic and social stability and Saudi Arabia s place in the Gulf Cooperation Council are offered as keys to the consensus building needed to ensure the Kingdom s healthy economic future Mohamed Ramady teaches in the Department of Finance and Economics King Fahd University of Petroleum and Minerals A Companion to the History of the Middle East Youssef M.
