business managers executives scholars and upper level students      Effective Evangelistic Churches Thom S. Rainer, 1996-07-15 Based on a study of 576 churches that are above average in church growth Rainer presents a process in which church growth begins with winning people to Christ      The Nature of Biblical Followership, Volume 1 Kathleen Patterson, Bruce E. Winston, 2023-09-01 From a Biblical perspective followership is an important aspect of leadership and is exemplified in the lives of numerous individuals in the Bible These examples offer valuable guidance for how followership can be applied in modern organizations Divided into three parts this volume explores the definition and impact of followership on leadership examining its interdependence with servant leadership as well as the positive and negative aspects of the relationship between followers and leaders The book also delves into how followers share power in the workplace and the characteristics and behaviors of followers Overall this work contributes to the emerging field of followership in organizational leadership research with a particular emphasis on the Biblical perspective but also relevant to broader leadership studies      Sustainable Management Niels Brabandt, 2019-10-17 Outstanding leadership personalities always have a great impact on corporate brand and corporate success This relation can partly be illustrated very clearly for stock listed companies When Josef Ackermann then CEO of Deutsche Bank suffered a weakness attack the bank's stock prices recorded a massive decline Within few hours its market capitalization on January 15 2009 decreased by half a billion Euros A second instance is the withdrawal of Steve Jobs who like no other stood for a company's enthralling reincarnation Apple's market price hit its lowest level in two years The above examples show that leaders are able to considerably influence a company's reputation and success through their behavior There is even empirical evidence for the fact that in the external perception a CEO's image correlates with the image of the company brand Also a CEO's image and prominence has an influence on media coverage This was revealed by a survey of 137 communication managers of Germany's 500 most profitable companies Grubendorfer 2012 pp 5 6 The same holds for the internal perception Ehren 2005 states that the manner in which employees perceive the corporate brand depends on whether and how leaders act in a brand compliant way Hence brands are largely shaped by a company's leaders This view is still relatively new Thomas Gad made use of the term Leadership Branding for the first time in 2003 He concluded an essay by stating that branding is closely linked to entrepreneurship and therefore to leadership Branding Gad holds is a convenient way of reproducing oneself both as an entrepreneur and as a leader For this reason he considers it an efficient and simple way of leading Gad 2005 pp 183 198 By shaping a brand leaders provide their employees with orientation With everyone within an organization being able to identify with the respective brand it is ensured that work is performed in line with this idea The first step of the present paper is to give a more detailed definition of leadership branding The second step is to explain how leadership branding is implemented successfully The final step is to show on the basis of well known leadership personalities and their companies how leadership can be successfully implemented in business practice      Revitalizing the Sunday Morning Dinosaur Ken Hemphill, 1996

G. effectiveness particularly with a view toward leadership succession and organizational significance God's Footprints in Personal Life, Family Life, and Ministry Gide DA(c)msthA"ne,2024-02-12 Following God's footsteps and the mystery of God's will in Christian life and walk can be a daunting task. Multitudes of voices, life choices and sociocultural options and challenges make it hard for one to perceive and understand clearly when God is truly speaking and what does His message entail. Thus like Abraham it may require an absolute departure from the habitual way of life to a far out city, country or region where God can start with us anew. Also we must be willing to surrender our will to God's will and follow in His footstep wherever He may lead in daily life. Now that requires self sacrifice and applied humility, a practical death to self. At times it's about listening to God's voice through a moral, spiritual or ministerial decision. Other times it's just about family life crises or it can be regarding political or social issues. God's will happens when we commit to listen to His word and apply it to practical life effortlessly for His sake. This author lived through it all and acknowledges that God's will is about following in His footsteps in every area of life, however mysterious or difficult it may appear. God's purpose for our lives journey is already set in heaven. Surrendering to His purpose will lead to a very content, satisfying and joyful life regardless the challenges we experience throughout our lifetime. This autobiography will challenge you to begin exploring God's footsteps in different facets of your own life and intentionally pursue His mysterious plan.
