Einführung In Das Christentum Vorlesungen Aber Das Apostolische Glaubensbekenntnis

Anne-Marie Schloesser, Alf Gerlach

Einführung In Das Christentum Vorlesungen Aaber Das Apostolische Glaubensbekenntnis:

Einführung in das Christentum Benedikt (Papst, XVI.), Joseph Ratzinger, 1958 Einführung in das Christentum Benedikt XVI. (Papst), 1971 Einführung in das Christentum Benedikt XVI. (Papst), 2005 Benedict XVI: A Life Volume One Peter Seewald, 2020-12-10 The first volume of Peter Seewald's long awaited authoritative biography of Pope Benedict XVI. By any reckoning the papacy of Pope Benedict XVI was extraordinary with moments of high drama. Not the least of these was his resignation from office in February 2013 the first papal resignation in almost 600 years. But who was Joseph Ratzinger? In this definitive biography based on meticulous historical research and many hours of taped interviews with his subject Peter Seewald shows the exceptional circumstances in which the exceptionally talented son of a Bavarian policeman became the first German pope for 950 years. In this first volume covering the years 1927-1965 we witness Joseph Ratzinger's early days living above his father's police station. Ratzinger came to adulthood through the years of National Socialism. Though hostile to the rise of Hitler his family knew well about Dachau and Ratzinger himself was conscripted into the Hitler Youth. Joseph Ratzinger proved to be a man of exceptional intellectual gifts and by the time of the Second Vatican Council 1962-1965 he was already noted as one of the outstanding intellects present and was nominated a peritus or theological expert. This was also the time of the start of his friendship with the Swiss theologian Hans Küng who was to become his nemesis. Of his predecessor Pope Francis has said Pope Benedict was a great Pope great for the penetration of his intelligence great for his important contribution to theology great for his love of the Church and human beings great for his virtues and faith. Even in this first volume we begin to understand how this came to be true. Crossing Borders - Integrating Differences Anne-Marie Schloesser, Alf Gerlach, 2018-04-17 This book will stimulate readers to cross borders between theory and practice between research and everyday therapy between outpatient and inpatient psychotherapy between the view of one's own the known and the culturally foreign. Yet it is only with an awareness of these borders an acknowledgement and respect of them that it will be possible to proceed towards integrating differences where this makes sense and appears necessary. Main Challenges for Christian Theology Today LIT Verlag, 2020-01-10 In this volume on the basis of three consultations which took place in Seoul and Geneva 2016-2017-2018 theologians from Yonsei University's College of Theology in Seoul South Korea and from the Theological Faculty at the University of Geneva reflect together on three of the main challenges facing Christian theology today. First questions related to religious pluralism and multiple religious belonging are addressed. Second the promise of an enhanced human being through technology and other means is discussed. Third the reality of the threat humanity represents to our ecosystem is considered. Each of these themes is examined from a Korean as well as from a Western European perspective for Christian theology in our day can no longer afford to remain limited to its own geographical context. Christophe Chalamet is Professor of Systematic Theology at the University of Geneva Switzerland. Hyun Shik Jun is Professor of Systematic Theology at Yonsei University's College of

Theology in Seoul Korea The Thought of Pope Benedict XVI Aidan Nichols, 2024-06-13 This important and illuminating book focuses on Ratzinger's status as one of the preeminent Catholic theologians of the 20th century. Aidan Nichols provides a full-scale investigation of his theology as it develops from the 1950s onward. The book presents a chronological account of the development of Ratzinger's writing, which reflects a wide range of historical and theoretical interests such as Augustine's ecclesiology, early Franciscanism, and the idea of salvation history. Christian brotherhood, the unfolding of the Second Vatican Council, the Apostles' Creed, explorations of the concept of the Church, preaching, liturgy, and Church music, eschatology, the foundations of dogmatic and moral theology, and the problem of pluralism. This third edition, as well as providing a two-chapter-long biography of Joseph Ratzinger, Benedict XVI, and amplifying the account already given of his later pre-papal writings, describes the new thinking that belongs to the years of Benedict's pontificate. That comprises his trilogy of books on Jesus of Nazareth, his quartet of encyclicals, and the set of major speeches he gave at global venues, chiefly on the contribution of faith to culture and civil society. An expanded Conclusion, weighing the lasting significance of his work, leads into a presentation of the themes of his posthumous essay collection, the curtain call he entitled What is Christianity. The Routledge Handbook of Idealism and Immaterialism Joshua Farris, Benedikt Paul Göcke, 2021-09-12 The influence of materialist ontology largely dominates philosophical and scientific discussions. However, there is a resurgent interest in alternative ontologies: from panpsychism, the view that at the base of reality exists potential minds, minds, or mind, to idealism and dualism, the view that all of reality is material and mental. The Routledge Handbook of Idealism and Immaterialism is an outstanding reference source and the first major collection of its kind. Historically grounded and constructively motivated, it covers the key topics in philosophy, science, and theology, providing students and scholars with a comprehensive introduction to idealism and immaterialism. Also addressed are post-materialism developments with explicit attention to variations of idealism and immaterialism: the view that reality depends on a mind or a set of minds. Comprising 44 chapters written by an international and interdisciplinary team of contributors, the Handbook is organised into five clear parts: Idealism and the history of philosophy; Important figures in idealism; Systematic assessment of idealism; Idealism and science; Idealism, physicalism, panpsychism, and substance dualism. Essential reading for students and researchers in metaphysics, philosophy of science, philosophy of religion, and philosophy of mind. The Routledge Handbook of Idealism and Immaterialism will also be of interest to those in related disciplines where idealist and immaterialist ontology impinge on history, science, and theology. A Deeper Vision Robert Royal, 2015-10-30 In this wide-ranging and ambitious volume, Robert Royal, a prominent participant for many years in debates about religion and contemporary life, offers a comprehensive and balanced appraisal of the Catholic intellectual tradition in the twentieth century. The Catholic Church values both Faith and Reason, and Catholicism has given rise to extraordinary ideas and whole schools of remarkable thought, not just in the distant past but throughout the troubled decades of the twentieth century. Royal presents in a single volume a sweeping but readable account of how Catholic thinking developed in philosophy theology Scripture studies culture literature and much more in the twentieth century This involves great figures recognized as such both inside and outside the Church such as Jacques Maritain Bernard Lonergan Joseph Pieper Edith Stein Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor Romano Guardini Karl Rahner Henri du Lubac Karol Wojtyla Joseph Ratzinger Hans Urs von Balthasar Charles Peguy Paul Claudel George Bernanos Francois Mauriac G K Chesterton Gerard Manley Hopkins Christopher Dawson Graham Greene Sigrid Undset J R R Tolkien Czeslaw Milosz and many more Royal argues that without rigorous thought Catholicism however welcoming and nourishing it might be would become something like a doctor with a good bedside manner but who knows little medicine It has always been the aspiration of the Catholic tradition to unite emotion and intellect action and contemplation But unless we know what the tradition has already produced especially in the work of the great figures of the recent past we will not be able to answer the challenges that the modern world poses or even properly recognize the true questions we face This is a reflective non polemical work that brings together various strands of Catholic thought in the twentieth century A comprehensive guide to the recent past and the future

At the Feet of Abraham Levi UC Nkwocha,2020-11-30 This book advances an Abrahamic asymmetric mutual substitutive model of hospitality as a practical approach to establish peaceful coexistence between Muslims and Christians The merits include its helpful survey of the four models of interfaith dialogue and its clear exposition of the dialogue of life its constructive use of the philosophy of Levinas particularly in supporting its vision of asymmetrical moral responsibility among Muslim and Christians and its familiarity with an extensive philosophical literature on alterity gift exchange and responsibility The research also demonstrates strong command of the relevant Christian and Muslim scriptures and Catholic teaching on interfaith relations in addition to a wide range of background material on African Ubuntu spirit visible in Nigerian sociocultural and religious interdependent relations Through a consistent engagement of these philosophical ethical and cultural dimensions the Abrahamic theology of hospitality is ingeniously crafted to fill the age old gap mutual inability to deal with religious otherness At once the book provokes further scholarship inquiries on and around the identified concerns Its commonness and concreteness with the proposed respect for each other s faith commitment further underscores its quality

The Word Made Love Christopher S. Collins,2013-05-01 From scholarly monographs to papal homilies Joseph Ratzinger has insisted consistently over decades that Christianity is not a set of ideas to believe or even less moral laws to follow Rather Christianity is about a person and our encounter with that person In The Word Made Love Christopher Collins identifies in the structure of Ratzinger's thought the presentation of God as one who speaks and who ultimately speaks Himself in the person of Jesus Christ Humanity's posture before God is one of hearing and responding For Ratzinger then dialogue is the basic structure of all reality and the Christian Vision articulates the radical transformation that happens when we enter into this divine dialogue Collins argues that this dialogical communicative structure is a distinctive aspect of Ratzinger's thought and a unique contribution to the renewal of theology in our day Christ's Descent into Hell Lyra Pitstick, 2016 Pope John Paul II and Joseph Ratzinger now Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI both held Hans Urs von Balthasar in high regard Many assume that their praise of Balthasar implies approval of his theology of Holy Saturday but this book by Lyra Pitstick shows that conclusion to be far from accurate Pitstick looks at what John Paul II Joseph Ratzinger and Hans Urs von Balthasar have said regarding the creedal affirmation that Christ descended into hell and she shows that there are radical differences in their conclusions She then addresses some important questions that follow from these differences If they disagree who is right If John Paul II and Benedict XVI have lauded someone with whom they disagreed are there implications for papal infallibility Finally whose theology best expresses the Catholic doctrine of Christ's descent into hell and how can we know This careful concise exploration of what three of the twentieth century's most famous Catholic theologians had to say about Christ's descent into hell provides an accessible take on a difficult point of theological debate

Revelation, Hermeneutics, and Doctrinal Development in Joseph Ratzinger Fr. Mauro Gagliardi, 2024-09-16 Throughout his prodigious theological and ecclesiastical career Joseph Ratzinger advanced a rich and nuanced theology of Revelation reflecting at length on the nature unity and interrelationship of Scripture and Tradition on their native ecclesial context and on their transformative Christ centered purpose and aim Ratzinger's many writings in this area are marked not only by an unwavering fidelity to divinely revealed truth but also by sensitivity to the difficulties of its interpretation to the dynamics of historical progress and regress and to the needs of the Church and the world within the modern era In Revelation Hermeneutics and Doctrinal Development in Joseph Ratzinger Mauro Gagliardi offers a penetrating diachronic study of Ratzinger's thought on these foundational themes Beginning with his 1955 Habilitationsschrift on St Bonaventure's understanding of Revelation and continuing in his works of the conciliar and post conciliar periods through those of his episcopacy and later pontificate Gagliardi traces Ratzinger's vision of Scripture and Tradition of the Magisterium and theology and of faith and its transmission today By turns critical and appreciative Gagliardi elucidates the German theologian's teaching on Revelation in depth exploring its underlying hermeneutic commitments and in the book's final chapter elaborating its implications for the question of the development of doctrine a topic of both longstanding and pressing importance within Catholic theology and Christian thought The Ratzinger Reader Joseph Ratzinger, 2010-05-06 A fascinating and insightful volume collecting together the key writings of Joseph Ratzinger some of them yet untranslated from his youthful and more progressive writings to his transition period following his disillusionment with the aftermath of Vatican II to his time as Prefect of the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith down to 2005. The emphasis will be upon Joseph Ratzinger as private theologian; his many writings released in a personal capacity for such will chart the formation of and comment upon the official statements and texts released under his name in a more informative fashion than the simple inclusion of the formulaic official texts themselves. Following a section providing insight into the fundamental and systematic theological background and development of Joseph Ratzinger's thought, further thematic sections will also be included, for example: Joseph Ratzinger's writings on Ecclesiology, on Theology and the Role of Theologians, on the Eucharist, on Religious Pluralism, on Sacramental Theology, Ecumenism, on Truth, on the Contemporary Historical Era, on Magisterium, and on Faith, Morals, etc. The volume will open with an introductory essay charting the life and career, the achievements of and the controversies surrounding the new pope. Each reading will be prefaced by a brief introduction to its context and themes and will be followed by recommended further reading on its respective subject matter.

Religion, Politics and Law Bart Labuschagne, 2009-03-16. Modern liberal democracies in the West, living under the rule of law and protection of human rights, cannot articulate the very values from which they derive their legitimacy. These pre-political and pre-legal preconditions cannot be guaranteed, let alone be enforced by the state, but constitute nevertheless its moral and spiritual infrastructure. Until recently, a common background and horizon consisted in Christianity, but due to secularisation and globalisation, society has become increasingly multicultural and multireligious. The question can and should be raised: how does religion relate to these sources of normative order in society? how do religion, politics, and law relate to each other, and how can social cohesion be attained in society given the growing varieties of religious experiences? In this book, a philosophical account of this question is carried out, on the one hand, historically from Plato to the Enlightenment, on the other hand, systematically and practically.

Einführung in das Christentum Joseph Ratzinger, 1968 Joseph Ratzinger Maximilian Heinrich Heim, 2007. This is a major work on the theology of Joseph Ratzinger by a highly regarded German theologian, priest, and writer. Since his election to the Papacy, Ratzinger's theology, and in particular his ecclesiology, theology of the Church, has been in the limelight of theological and ecumenical discussions. This work studies in detail Ratzinger's ecclesiology in the light of Vatican II, against the ongoing debate about what Vatican II really meant to say about the life of the Church, its liturgy, its worship, its doctrine, its pastoral mission, and more.
