Eisenstein Sergei Eisenstein,1974      The Cinema of Eisenstein David Bordwell,2020-10-07 The Cinema of Eisenstein is David Bordwell's comprehensive analysis of the films of Sergei Eisenstein arguably the key figure in the entire history of film The director of such classics as Potemkin Ivan the Terrible October Strike and Alexander Nevsky Eisenstein theorized montage presented Soviet realism to the world and mastered the concept of film epic Comprehensive authoritative and illustrated throughout this classic work deserves to be on the shelf of every serious student of cinema      Classical Epic Tradition John Kevin Newman,2003-04-01 The literary epic and critical theories about the epic tradition are traced from Aristotle and Callimachus through Apollonius Virgil and their successors such as Chaucer and Milton to Eisenstein Tolstoy and Thomas Mann Newman's revisionist critique will challenge all scholars students and general readers of the classics comparative literature and western literary traditions      Sergei Rachmaninoff Sergei Bertensson,Jay Leyda,2001

Throughout his career as composer conductor and pianist Sergei Rachmaninoff 1873 1943 was an intensely private individual When Bertensson and Leyda's 1956 biography appeared it lifted the veil of secrecy on several areas of Rachmaninoff's life especially concerning the genesis of his compositions and how he was affected by their critical reception These pages are fabulously peopled Here we find the Tchaikovsky brothers Rimsky Korsakov Scriabin Glazunov and Stravinsky as well as Chekhov Stanislavsky Chaliapin Fokine Hofmann and Horowitz This biography reflects direct consultation with a number of people who knew Rachmaninoff worked with him and corresponded with him Even with the availability of such sources and full access to the Rachmaninoff Archive at the Library of Congress Bertensson Leyda and Satina Rachmaninoff's cousin and sister in law were tireless in their pursuit of privately held documents particularly correspondence The wonderfully engaging product of their labours masterfully incorporates primary materials into the narrative Almost half a century after it first appeared this volume remains essential reading      A Short History of the Movies Gerald Mast,Bruce F. History and Popular Memory Paul A Cohen,2014-04-29 When people experience a traumatic event such as war or the threat of annihilation they often turn to history for stories that promise a positive outcome to their suffering During World War II the French took comfort in the story of Joan of Arc and her heroic efforts to rid France of foreign occupation To bring the Joan narrative more into line with current circumstances however popular retellings modified the original story so that what people believed took place in the past was often quite different from what actually occurred Paul A Cohen identifies this interplay between story and history as a worldwide phenomenon found in countries of radically different cultural religious and social character He focuses here on Serbia Israel China France the Soviet Union and Great Britain all of which experienced severe crises in the twentieth century and in response appropriated age old historical narratives that resonated with what was happening in the present to serve a unifying restorative purpose A central theme in the book is the distinction between popular memory and history Although vitally important to historians this distinction is routinely blurred in people s minds and the historian s truth often cannot compete with the power of a compelling story from the past even when it has been seriously distorted by myth or political manipulation Cohen concludes by suggesting that the patterns of interaction he probes given their near universality may well be rooted in certain human propensities that transcend cultural difference

Companion to Under the Volcano Lawrence J. Clipper, Christopher Ackerley, 2011-11-01 An item by item discussion of the innumerable often obscure details of Malcolm Lowry's novel; this book comprises 1 600 notes covering some 7 000 specific points. The notes are keyed to page numbers in the Penguin paperback and the two standard hardback editions. The appendices include a glossary, bibliography, maps of the region and an index of motifs. In their comprehensive but unpedantic commentary on the novel's complexities, the authors' emphasis is on the narrative level. All points of obscurity are followed by an interpretation of fact. Thus references are noted to films, books, places, foreign languages and national and tribal histories. Special attention is given to the literary, mystical and Mexican background      Cosmopolitan Film Cultures in Latin America, 1896-1960 Rielle Navitski, Nicolas Poppe, 2017-06-19 Cosmopolitan Film Cultures in Latin America examines how cinema forged cultural connections between Latin American publics and film exporting nations in the first half of the twentieth century. Predating today's transnational media industries by several decades, these connections were defined by active economic and cultural exchanges as well as longstanding inequalities in political power and cultural capital. The essays explore the arrival and expansion of cinema throughout the region from the first screenings of the Lumière Cinématographe in 1896 to the emergence of new forms of cinephilia and cult spectatorship in the 1940s and beyond. Examining these transnational exchanges through the lens of the cosmopolitan, which emphasizes the ethical and political dimensions of cultural consumption, illuminates the role played by moving images in negotiating between the local, national and global and between the popular and the elite in twentieth century Latin America. In addition, primary historical documents provide vivid accounts of Latin American film critics, movie audiences and film industry workers' experiences with moving images produced elsewhere, encounters that were deeply rooted in the local context yet also opened out onto global horizons      The Invisible

Art of Film Music Laurence E. MacDonald, 2013-05-02 Beginning with the era of synchronized sound in the 1920s, music has been an integral part of motion pictures. Whether used to heighten the tension of a scene or evoke a subtle emotional response, scores have played a significant if often unrealized role in the viewer's enjoyment. In The Invisible Art of Film Music, Laurence MacDonald provides a comprehensive introduction for the general student, film historian and aspiring cinematographer. Arranged chronologically from the silent era to the present day, this volume provides insight into the evolution of music in cinema and analyzes the vital contributions of scores to hundreds of films. MacDonald reviews key developments in film music and discusses many of the most important and influential scores of the last nine decades, including those from Modern Times, Gone with the Wind, Citizen Kane, Laura, A Streetcar Named Desire, Ben-Hur, Lawrence of Arabia, The Godfather, Jaws, Ragtime, The Mission, Titanic, Gladiator, The Lord of the Rings, Brokeback Mountain and Slumdog

Millionaire MacDonald also provides biographical sketches of such great composers as Max Steiner Alfred Newman Franz Waxman Bernard Herrmann Elmer Bernstein Henry Mancini Maurice Jarre John Barry John Williams Jerry Goldsmith Dave Grusin Ennio Morricone Randy Newman Hans Zimmer and Danny Elfman Updated and expanded to include scores produced well into the twenty first century this new edition of The Invisible Art of Film Music will appeal not only to scholars of cinema and musicologists but also any fan of film scores      A History Of Russia Volume 2 Walter G. Moss,2004-10-01 Moss has significantly revised his text and bibliography in this second edition to reflect new research findings and controversies on numerous subjects He has also brought the history up to date by revising the post Soviet material which now covers events from the end of 1991 up to the present day This new edition retains the features of the successful first edition that have made it a popular choice in universities and colleges throughout the US Canada and around the world      Left of Hollywood Chris Rob  ,2012-11-29 In the 1930s as the capitalist system faltered many in the United States turned to the political Left Hollywood so deeply embedded in capitalism was not immune to this shift Left of Hollywood offers the first book length study of Depression era Left film theory and criticism in the United States Rob studies the development of this theory and criticism over the course of the 1930s as artists and intellectuals formed alliances in order to establish an engaged political film movement that aspired toward a popular cinema of social change Combining extensive archival research with careful close analysis of films Rob explores the origins of this radical social formation of U S Left film culture Grounding his arguments in the surrounding contexts and aesthetics of a few films in particular Sergei Eisenstein s Que Viva Mexico Fritz Lang s Fury William Dieterle s Juarez and Jean Renoir s La Marseillaise Rob focuses on how film theorists and critics sought to foster audiences who might push both film culture and larger social practices in more progressive directions Turning at one point to anti lynching films Rob discusses how these movies united black and white film critics forging an alliance of writers who championed not only critical spectatorship but also the public support of racial equality Yet despite a stated interest in forging more egalitarian social relations gender bias was endemic in Left criticism of the era and female centered films were regularly discounted Thus Rob provides an in depth examination of this overlooked shortcoming of U S Left film criticism and theory
