El autor aborda un amplísimo tema no tratado hasta la fecha por la historiografía rumana ni por la española ni tampoco por la historiografía europea en general cubriendo un vacío existente en una larga serie de estudios internacionales dedicados a diferentes cultos orientales y provincias del Imperio Romano series EPRO RGRW de Brill. Se presenta en primer lugar una introducción metodológica y un estado de la cuestión muy completo secundados por una exposición sintética del contexto geográfico e histórico. La parte central de la tesis está dedicada al estudio de la difusión de estos cultos en las tres provincias dacicas dedicando diferentes capítulos al Mitraísmo a los cultos sirios a los cultos minorasiáticos y a los cultos egipcios donde se analizan la distribución de los monumentos epigráficos escultóricos y los templos de cada culto la cronología de la difusión la onomástica y el origen técnico de los dedicantes y también su distribución social estableciendo como categorías los diferentes órdenes sociales y también las ocupaciones. Además incluye un capítulo dedicado al problema de la identificación de Sol Invictus y otro en el que se analiza en conjunto la difusión de los cultos. Una tercera parte más interpretativa se centra sobre la relación del culto imperial y los cultos de origen oriental y sobre las formas de integración y de control social e ideológico observadas. Despues de las conclusiones en español se incluye un amplio resumen y las conclusiones integrales en rumano. El primer volumen se completa con una rica bibliografía listados de imágenes y abreviaturas. Por su parte el segundo volumen comprende un extenso y completo corpus epigráfico complementado por diversas listas de concordancia abreviaturas bibliográficas y un extenso índice de fotografías y dibujos de inscripciones de gran calidad con una lista que señala sus lugares de procedencia. Finalmente se incluyen unos tiles y amplios índices analíticos de ambos volúmenes.
