In Search of Self Margaret L. Snook, 1998 This study focuses on the search to discover or recover a sense of self that provides a thematic link between Bioy Casares's diverse fantastic tales Combining various theoretical approaches it analyzes the author's portrayal of the patriarchal values that shape human identity and interpersonal relationships It sheds new light on the importance of boundaries and difference to Bioy's protagonists and clearly demonstrates how these issues are reflected in dramatic stance discourse and narrative strategies

Rereading the Black Legend Margaret R. Greer, Walter D. Mignolo, Maureen Quilligan, 2008-09-15 The phrase The Black Legend was coined in 1912 by a Spanish journalist in protest of the characterization of Spain by other Europeans as a backward country defined by ignorance superstition and religious fanaticism whose history could never recover from the black mark of its violent conquest of the Americas Challenging this stereotype Rereading the Black Legend contextualizes Spain's uniquely tarnished reputation by exposing the colonial efforts of other nations whose interests were served by propagating the Black Legend A distinguished group of contributors here examine early modern imperialisms including the Ottomans in Eastern Europe the Portuguese in East India and the cases of Mughal India and China to historicize the charge of unique Spanish brutality in encounters with indigenous peoples during the Age of Exploration The geographic reach and linguistic breadth of this ambitious collection will make it a valuable resource for any discussion of race national identity and religious belief in the European Renaissance

Masculinity and Sexuality in Modern Mexico Víctor M. Macías-González, Anne Rubenstein, 2012-08-31 In Masculinity and Sexuality in Modern Mexico historians and anthropologists explain how evolving notions of the meaning and practice of manhood have shaped Mexican history In essays that range from Texas to Oaxaca and from the 1880s to the present contributors write about file clerks and movie stars wealthy world travelers and ordinary people whose adventures were confined to a bar in the middle of town The Mexicans we meet in these essays lived out their identities through extraordinary events committing terrible crimes writing world famous songs and ruling the nation but also in everyday activities like falling in love raising families getting dressed and going to the movies Thus these essays in the history of masculinity connect the major topics of Mexican political history since 1880 to the history of daily life Part of the Dialogos Series of Latin American Studies TV Guide ,1981 The Best of News Design 31st Edition Society for News Design,2010-11-01 The Best of News Design 31st Edition the latest edition in Rockport s highly respected series presents the winning entries from the Society for News Design s 2010 competition Featuring work selected by a panel of judges from more than 14 000 international publication entries this inspirational volume sets the bar for excellence in journalistic design Bold full color layouts feature the best of the best in news features portfolios visuals and more and each entry is accompanied by insightful commentary on the elements that made the piece a standout winner Every industry professional aspires to one day see his or her work in this book Hidden Among the Hills Hanns J.
