Emergent Theories Of Aging:

Emergent Theories of Aging James E. Birren,1988

Handbook of the Psychology of Aging James E.

Birren,2013-10-22 Handbook of the Psychology of Aging Third Edition describes the psychology of adult development and aging This book is organized into four parts encompassing 28 chapters that cover the basic behavioral changes and capacities occurring with advancing age The first part deals with the history concept and models of the psychology of aging This part also examines the distinctions between physical biological psychological and social time or age The second part explores the influences of racial ethnic and cultural factors on biological health social and psychological aging processes This part also surveys gender differences in aging The third part describes numerous behavioral processes changes and patterns in advancing age This part specifically considers the motivation cognitive and motor performance attentional processes learning memory personality and wisdom in aging The fourth part focuses on the applications of the concepts and principles of aging to the individual and society This book will be of great value to psychologists researchers and graduate students

Handbook of Aging and Mental Health Jacob Lomranz,1998-09-30 This comprehensive resource responds to a growing need for theory and multidisciplinary integrative research in adult and gerontological health Handbook of Aging and Mental Healthbrings together for the first time diverse strategies and methodologies as well as theoretical formulations involving psychodynamic behavioral psychosocial and biological systems as they relate to aging and health Forward thinking in his approach Lomranz provides the mental health adult developmental and geriatric professions with a single reference source that covers theory construction empirical research treatment and multidisciplinary program development Critical

Perspectives on Aging Meredith Minkler,Carroll Estes,2020-11-25 This unique volume brings together 20 critical essays on aging within the context of the broad social political and economic factors that help shape and determine the realities of growing old Rather than viewing aging in isolation it explores the social creation of old age dependency and the profound influence of race gender and social class on what it means to grow old It looks too at such topics as the biomedicalization of aging the role of business and the media in changing societal images of the old the fact and fiction behind senior power the multibillion dollar nursing home industry and the role of advanced capitalist nations in creating economic dependency among elders in the Third World Virtuous Cycles in Humanistic Management Ricardo Aguado,Almudena Eizaguirre,2019-11-16

This volume is divided into three major parts each of which symbolizes a new virtuous circle that is added to the previous one in order to foster the dissemination of humanistic management HM among corporations and social institutions After an introductory chapter explaining the concept of humanistic management and the plan behind this research project the first part of the book is devoted to education The authors address pedagogical strategies that can be used in higher education to introduce students to HM In turn the second part of the book focuses on the implementation of HM in corporations while the third presents an approach for measuring and monetizing the social value generated by corporations through their economic activities In the closing chapter the editors illustrate how the three parts of the book can be combined to generate virtuous cycles in corporations      Aging and Biography Gary M. Kenyon,James E. Birren,Jan-Erik Ruth,Johannes J.F.

Schroots,Torbjorn Svensson,2004-01-01 Personal life narratives can serve as a rich source of new insights into the experience of human aging In this comprehensive volume an international team of editors and contributors provide effective approaches to using biography to enhance our understanding of adult development In addition to providing new theoretical aspects on aging and biography the book also details new developments concerning the practical use of different biographical approaches in both research and clinical work This is a landmark volume advancing the use of narrative approaches in gerontology      Empowering Frail Elderly People Duncan P. Boldy,Leonard F. Heumann,Mary

McCall,2000-11-30 This book provides a unique analysis of provider environment client and societal based obstacles to the empowerment of frail elderly persons in a philosophical framework of social values as well as an applied framework wherein a variety of international case studies by a distinguished board of contributors provide concrete examples of the feasibility of achieving real empowerment Empowerment means different things to different people in the context of housing health and social service delivery This book analyzes the various definitions of the concept and practice of the empowerment of frail older persons and then discusses the definitions in a philosophical framework of social values regarding aging and the older person Each chapter demonstrates the feasibility of achieving increased empowerment of older persons even those with severe physical or mental disability True empowerment of older persons in every country requires time energy money and commitment to the goal This book will be of interest to academic as well as professional audiences in areas of Gerontology Psychology Sociology and Family Studies Caregivers and policymakers will also find this analysis useful      Aging and

Development Peter G. Coleman,Ann O'Hanlon,2017-02-03 The psychology of aging usually focuses upon cognitive changes with a particular focus on dementia and other forms of cognitive decline But getting older is about more than simply changes to the brain and related health issues Changes to our social and emotional lives are also hugely significant as we adapt across our lifespan The second edition of Aging and Development is the only textbook available that responds to the growing interest in social personal and emotional development in older age Ideally suited to complement texts on cognitive change the book provides a holistic developmental perspective on aging It highlights a range of issues including the development of personal meaning and spirituality improvements in emotional control uses of reminiscence and life review the importance of healthy attitudes to aging as well as the maintenance of close personal relationships It does not avoid the difficult issues of late life decline but illustrates how even in circumstances of physical and mental frailty a positive sense of self can be created and enhanced Fully updated to provide the most cutting edge overview on this burgeoning topic of interest Aging and Development includes a glossary and list of useful websites both on the study of gerontology and the psychology of aging It will be essential reading for all students of developmental psychology as well as anyone either training to work or already working with older people      Ageing in Singapore Peggy Teo, Kalyani Mehta, Leng Leng Thang, Angelique Chan, 2006-09-27 Older persons are often portrayed as social and financial burdens because pensions health and social care have to withstand increasing old age dependency ratios Due to a lack of access to representation or a lack of social and economic power older people have found few opportunities to have their voices heard making age an immensely political issue Written by an impressive team of authors this book provides an in depth analysis of the experience of ageing in Singapore examining key issues such as health work housing family ties and care giving It looks at how social categorization enters into everyday life to elucidate the multiple meanings of age and identity encountered in a rapidly changing economy and society Providing original critical discourse from Asian writers recording Asian voices Ageing in Singapore will appeal to a wide readership and is an invaluable resource for policy makers service practitioners and scholars working on Asian gerontology

Consumer Behavior over the Life Course George P. Moschis, 2019-01-31 This book examines consumer behavior using the life course paradigm a multidisciplinary framework for studying people s lives structural contexts and social change It contributes to marketing research by providing new insights into the study of consumer behavior and illustrating how to apply the life course paradigm s concepts and theoretical perspectives to study consumer topics in an innovative way Although a growing number of marketing researchers either implicitly or explicitly subscribe to life course perspectives for studying a variety of consumer behaviors their efforts have been limited due to a lack of theories and methods that would help them study consumers over the lifecycle When studying consumers over their lifespan researchers examine differences in the consumer behaviors of various age groups e g children baby boomers elderly etc or family life stages e g bachelors full nesters empty nesters etc inferring that consumer behavior changes over time or linking consumption behaviors to previous experiences and future expectations Such efforts however have yet to benefit from an interdisciplinary research approach This book fills this gap in consumer research by informing readers about the differences between some of the most commonly used models for studying consumers over their lifespan and the life course paradigm and providing implications for research public policy and marketing practice Presenting applications of the life course approach in such research topics as decision making maladaptive behaviors e g compulsive buying binge eating consumer well being and cognitive decline this book is beneficial for students scholars professors practitioners and policy makers in consumer behavior consumer research consumer psychology and marketing research

Counseling Older Adults John Blando, 2014-04-08 Counseling older adults is not equivalent to counseling the general population and specialized skills and knowledge as well as sensitivity to the contexts in which older adults live are essential in working successfully with this population This text provides an introduction to gerontological counseling integrating the basic skills of working with older adults with theories of counseling and aging Specific counseling issues discussed include mental health counseling career counseling rehabilitation counseling and family counseling Along with these important contextual factors such as race culture social class social justice spirituality Alzheimer

s and other dementias and family issues are considered in light of the latest research Each chapter contains case studies discussion questions a glossary and suggestions for further reading to reinforce the material presented Helping Relationships With Older Adults Adelle M. Williams, 2016-06-29 Helping Relationships with Older Adults From Theory to Practice examines the fundamental theoretical perspectives of the aging process with an emphasis on the healthy aspects of aging Taking a comprehensive approach author Adele Williams addresses various therapeutic methods as she highlights the strengths and resiliency of the older population Exercises and case studies demonstrate key concepts and promote skill development by allowing students to experience the various challenges in the lives of older clients Social Theory, Social Policy And Ageing: A Critical Introduction Biggs, Simon, Estes, Carroll, Phillipson, Chris, 2003-11-01 This work covers theoretical developments and issues influencing the study of adult ageing It explores contemporary trends in social policy drawing on the experience of ageing in the USA Europe and an increasingly global environment Feminist perspectives on ageing are also covered Time: A Bibliographic Guide Samuel L. Macey, 2018-10-10 Originally published in 1991 A multidisciplinary guide in the form of a bibliography of selected time related books and articles divided into 25 existing academic disciplines and about 100 subdisciplines which have a wide application to time studies Ageing in the Modern Arabic Novel Aghacy Samira Aghacy, 2020-09-21 There are more than 15 million people aged over 65 currently living in the MENA region yet little attention has been paid to the cultural significance of growing old This book recognises the widespread silence by countering the critical corpus that reads modern Arabic novels as a political discourse with an emphasis on youth achievement By assembling a range of fictional works from different parts of the Arab world that incorporate older characters this book draws on a range of theoretical approaches to aging particularly from the perspective of gender and feminism to reconcile the biological and cultural understandings of old age It reveals that there is no standard female or male experience and no single prototype of oldness in the modern Arabic novel and that men and women manifest a multiplicity of identities concerns and experiences as they grow older Contemporary Feminisms in Social Work Practice Sarah Wendt, Nicole Moulding, 2016-01-29 Contemporary Feminisms in Social Work Practice explores feminism as core to social work knowledge practice and ethics It demonstrates how gender neutral perspectives and practices obscure gender discourses and power relations It also shows feminist social work practice can transform areas of social work not specifically concerned with gender through its emphasis on relationships and power Within and outside feminism there is a growing assumption that equality has been won and is readily available to all women However women continue to dominate the ranks of the poor in developed and developing countries around the world male perpetrated violence against women and children has not reduced women outnumber men by up to three to one in the diagnosis of common mental health problems and women continue to be severely underrepresented in every realm of power decision making and wealth This worrying context draws attention to the ways gender relations structure most of the problems faced by the women men and children in the day to day worlds in which social work operates Drawing together key contemporary thinking about feminism and its place in social work this international collection looks at both core curriculum areas taught in social work programs and a wide range of practice fields that involve key challenges and opportunities for future feminist social work This book is suitable for all social work students and academics It examines the nuanced nature of power relationships in the everyday and areas such as working with cross cultural communities mental health interpersonal violence and abuse homelessness child protection ageing disability and sexuality

Family Crimes Against the Elderly Patricia J. Brownell, 2014-01-14 First Published in 1999 Family Crimes Against the Elderly A Study of Elder Abuse and the New York Police Department represents an important contribution to the available knowledge on elder abuse as a criminal justice issue While most studies of elder abuse to date have examined this social problem from a health mental health or social service perspective few have focused on it from the perspective of law enforcement

Routledge Library Editions: Philosophy of Time Various Authors, 2021-03-05 Reissuing five works originally published between 1937 and 1991 this collection contains books addressing the subject of time from a mostly philosophic point of view but also of interest to those in the science and mathematics worlds These texts are brought back into print in this small set of works addressing how we think about time the history of the philosophy of time the measurement of time theories of relativity and discussions of the wider thinking about time and space among other aspects One volume is a thorough bibliography collating references on the subject of time across many disciplines

Television News and the Elderly Michael L. Hilt, 2013-06-19 This concise survey investigates the television general managers and news directors attitudes towards the elderly in the United States Originally published in 1997 it raises important issues of ageing in relation to the media with specific focus on the older viewer s status as a viewing audience of the news and how they are presented in the news This is still useful food for thought for gerontologists mass communication researchers social psychologists and media studies researchers

Serving the Elderly Paul Kim, 2017-07-12 Broadly speaking there are two kinds of professional practice skills relevant to the burgeoning field of gerontological human service clinical modalities and macro strategies This book identifies seven essential approaches to clinical gerontology including five of the most important macro skills that all professionals in the field will need to acquire and it presents each of them in a single collection intended to serve as a basic text and reference work for academic and in service training Each contributor to this volume speaks with recognized expertise on his her preferred subject while mindful of the larger purpose of the collection as a whole In a concluding chapter Dr Kim draws on his own long and successful experience in obtaining financial support for his programs and provides a wealth of useful information on the preparation of grant proposals and the conduct of other fundraising activities Serving the Elderly is adaptable to the uses of a wide variety of geriatric health care providers from students and trainees in social work clinical psychology and other care giving professions to already established practitioners who are branching out in gerontology
