New Age and Neopagan Religions in America Sarah M. Pike,2004 Sarah Pike traces the history of New Age and Neopagan religions in the United States from their origins in the nineteenth century to their reemergence in the 1960s counterculture She also considers the differences and similarities between the New Age and Neopagan movements as well as the antagonistic relationship between these two practices and other religions in America particularly Christianity Covering such topics as healing gender and sexuality millennialism and ritual experience she offers a sympathetic yet critical treatment of religious practices often marginalized yet soaring in popularity Her book is a rich analysis of these spiritual worlds and social networks and questions why these faiths are flourishing at this point in American history

Elusive Consumption Karin M. Ekström,Helene Brembeck,2020-05-27 In the context of rising consumerism and globalization books on consumption are numerous These tend to be firmly rooted in particular disciplines however sociology anthropology business or cultural studies and as a result often present a blinkered view Charged with the mission of unravelling what consumption means and how it operates the worlds leading experts were flown to a secluded location in Sweden to battle it out This pioneering book represents the outcome Ranging from the little black dress to on line communities Elusive Consumption challenges our very understanding of consumerism How successful is the advertising world in manipulating our buying patterns Does the global marketplace promote cultural homogeneity or heterogeneity Is the West really more of a consumerist civilization than other countries Does the advertising of certain products influence a voters choice of political party How are products associated and marketed to different genders These controversial topics and many more are discussed Covering virtually every aspect of the word consumerism Elusive Consumption provides a state of the art view of the highly commercialized society we inhabit today Some might have it that consumers are unwitting pawns completely lacking in agency Others might argue that consumer choices are empowering and subtly shape production Richard Wilk Colin Campbell John F Sherry Richard Elliott Russell Belk and Daniel Miller who offers the most persuasive argument in this battle royal

Contemporary Spiritualities Stefania Palmisano, Nicola Pannofino, 2020-11-01 Contemporary alternative spirituality as studied by sociologists is usually seen as a recent phenomenon dating from the 1960s and 1970s However when viewed from a longer term perspective this form of religious expression is actually seen to reintroduce concepts that recur throughout Western cultural history This book argues therefore that spirituality in the 21st Century actually shares many of the same characteristics as Classical Mediaeval Renaissance and Modern spiritualities It is neither entirely new nor is it clearly alternative to more established religions The book is divided into two parts The first sets out the context in which contemporary alternative spirituality has formed charting its development as an academic term and a social phenomenon The second part looks at how these two elements have developed in countries that are historically Catholic focussing on specific examples in contemporary Italy spiritualities based on the sacralisation of nature those concerned with health and wellbeing and those which are fascinated by mystery Catholic majority countries are particularly interesting in this instance as the Catholic Church has a unique cultural hegemony with which to compare alternative spiritual practices It concludes that spirituality if framed in a longer historical perspective is a way of acting and seeing the world which was built and continues to be built upon complex relations with various contradictory sources of authority such as religion magic thinking secularism rationalism various spheres of lay culture This is a bold take on the spirituality milieu and as such will be of great interest to scholars of Religious Studies working on the sociology of religion contemporary spirituality and the rise of the spiritual but not religious
