University mathematicians and community college faculty spend much of their time engaged in work to improve their teaching. Frequently they are left to their own experiences and informal conversations with colleagues to develop new approaches to support student learning and their continuation in mathematics. Over the past 30 years, research in undergraduate mathematics education has produced knowledge about the development of mathematical understandings and models for supporting students' mathematical learning. Currently, very little of this knowledge is affecting teaching practice. We hope that this volume will open a meaningful dialogue between researchers and practitioners toward the goal of realizing improvements in undergraduate mathematics curriculum and instruction.

The Prettiest Girls in Euphoria, Kansas

Bruce Kellner, 2010. On a midwestern farm in the last century, a boy is forced to come of age in a colorful family of dysfunctional women scarred by the unfulfilled dreams of his alcoholic mother, his strange spinster aunts, his malevolent nieces, and especially the prettiest girls in Euphoria, Kansas: his five unforgettable sisters. The hapless lives of frigid Emily, beautiful Louella, the competitive but dim twins Verda and Opal, and baleful Alice, also the lives of the losers they marry or don't, range from hilarious to heartbreaking. Inevitably, these women, equally appealing and appalling, dominate their much younger Brother. An identity he can only escape by fleeing from them. Now, as a man in late middle age, Brother must return to the town he escaped long before in an attempt to cope with the shards of memory that have always haunted him.

The Famous Five Barbara Smith, 2019-05-14. A concise history of the five women who changed the course of history and brought Canadians one step closer to equality. On August 27, 1927, five women gathered at a house on Edmonton's Southside to sign a letter that would change the course of Canadian history. Those women were Emily Murphy, Nellie McClung, Louise McKinney, Irene Parlby, and Henrietta Muir Edwards, who would become known as the Famous Five. The meeting of the women had been prompted by Emily Murphy, an Alberta magistrate whose right to render judgements had been challenged by a lawyer who maintained that only men could be appointed as judges because only men were considered persons under the British North America Act. The battle for justice that began that Saturday afternoon on took many years and miles, finally making its way to the Privy Council in London. Finally, in 1929, a landmark ruling found that women were indeed persons in the eyes of the law. But who were these women, and how did they come together at such a pivotal moment in Canadian history? The Famous Five is a comprehensive look at the remarkable lives, prolific careers, sometimes disturbing contradictions, and extraordinary achievements of these five women who fought for equality at a time when women were barely recognized as relevant.

The Mercantile Navy List and Maritime Directory Great Britain. General Register and Record Office of Shipping and Seamen, 1925. Property Rites Elizabeth M. Smith-Pryor, 2009-04-30. In 1925, Leonard Rhinelander, the youngest son of a wealthy New York society family, sued to end his marriage to Alice Jones, a former domestic servant and the daughter of a colored cabman. After being married only one month, Rhinelander pressed for the dissolution of his marriage on the grounds that his wife had lied to him about her racial background. The subsequent marital annulment trial became a massive public spectacle not only in New York but across the nation despite the fact that the state had never outlawed interracial marriage Elizabeth Smith Pryor makes extensive use of trial transcripts in addition to contemporary newspaper coverage and archival sources to explore why Leonard Rhinelander was allowed his day in court She moves fluidly between legal history a day by day narrative of the trial itself and analyses of the trial s place in the culture of the 1920s North to show how notions of race property and the law were and are inextricably intertwined
