Emotions Bodily Changes A Survey Of Li:

Emotions and Bodily Changes Helen Flanders Dunbar, 1949 Freud (RLE: Freud) Reuben Fine, 2013-10-08 In this book originally published in 1963 Dr Fine sets out to describe what Freud said and to re evaluate his views critically in the light of the best knowledge of the time Freud s numerous changes of view his constant searching for the truth wherever it might lead him as well as his resolute adherence to certain hard won positions once he had achieved them are all skilfully traced Freud s intellectual Odyssey is divided into four periods From 1886 to 1895 he was a neurologist investigating hysteria and other nervous disorders Then came his self analysis from 1896 to 1899 the real matrix from which psycho analysis grew The first psycho analytic system of psychology was developed in the period from 1900 to 1914 The remainder of his life from 1914 to 1939 was devoted to the elaboration of ego psychology and heart of contemporary psycho analysis Dr Fine undertook in writing this book the formidable task of examining the whole body of Freud s thought to clarify what he said and to review his ideas critically in the light of the best available existing knowledge As he says In this process of criticism I have tried to specify which aspects of Freud have stood the test of time and which have not So far as I can see no one has ever before taken the trouble to ask What did Freud actually say How does what Freud said stand up in terms of what we now know In answering these questions Dr Fine develops a major thesis that all modern psycho analysis derives from Freud though it has moved far in many different directions The contention is that emphasis on schools is misleading and has obscured the actual historical growth of the science As he states in his Preface to this volume Dr Fine s conviction is By building on Freud s fundamental insights we can move on most readily to empirical research and thus construct a more satisfactory science of psychology Personality Traits Gerald Matthews, Ian J.
