Coetzee and Lydia Maria Child who plant Wordsworth in their own writing and bring him to life in places and times far from his own and then record what happens By working beyond narratives of British influence Bergren highlights a more complex dynamic of international response in which later writers engage Wordsworth in conversations about slavery and gardening education and daffodils landscapes and national belonging His global reception critical appreciative and ambivalent inspires us to see that Wordsworth was concerned not just with local English landscapes and people but also with their changing place in a rapidly globalizing world This study demonstrates that Wordsworth is not tangential but rather crucial to our understanding of Global Romanticism Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Robert
